“Do Not Be Afraid”

ONE OF THE MANY BLESSINGS of the vocation of the priesthood is the ability to hear confessions. Now that may sound somewhat uncouth as it involves hearing sin after sin but it truly is a beautiful experience. Why? For it is through the priest, who acts in the person of Christ, that the forgiveness of sins is made real. In counselling penitents (don't worry, I'll spare you the details!) a common attitude is that of helplessness. Some feel so helpless and overwhelmed that they are resigned to the repetitive nature of temptation and sin. Yet it is in that moment of crisis that Christ's redemptive power bursts forth like a surging wind breaking the chains of sin. From helplessness emerges hope. Such is the case in our Gospel today.

Following an extensive discourse on the Kingdom of God, Christ, along with his disciples, journeys to the other side of the Lake of Galilee. His efforts have exhausted him, as such he falls asleep in the stern of the boat. As the group journeys towards their destination a violent storm breaks out. Keeping in mind that a few of the disciples are well versed in the art of seafaring, they are overwhelmed by the storm. In an act of desperation they awaken Jesus. What is the result? The storm ceases and calm ensues. Naturally, they are in awe at the sight and say:

“Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.”

My dear friends, our Gospel for this Sunday, I believe, is analogous of the human experience. Life and its complexities surround us with matters that, at times, can feel overwhelming. Battered and bruised we wonder: how can we get through this? The answer to that question lies in the one who rose from the dead. Jesus Christ, the same Jesus who saved the disciples from the storm, is also present amidst our sufferings. He reaches out and, with a word, calms the storm of life. What does that say of the Lord? He never abandons us! He never gives up on us! His love and mercy endure forever! May we have the courage to continue on life's pilgrimage knowing that the Lord walks with us.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead,

Fr Chris

For hire of Cloister Function rooms, call 8839 8400 or enquiry@stpatscathedral.com.au

Material for Bulletin

If you have something that you would like published in the bulletin, please ensure that it is conveyed to our Parish

Secretary, Pat, by 12:00 noon on Thursday. Please note that material must relate to the parish and its mission.

Don't forget that businesses can advertise on the rear page of the bulletin. For further details, please contact Pat Preca on 8839 8412 or email her at secretary@stpatscathedral.com.au

Parish Office temporarily moved to Murphy House

The Cathedral Office is currently undergoing much needed renovation. During this time, the office will operate from the music room in Murphy House. It is hoped that we will be moving the office back to its usual location in the week beginning 28 June. While mail will still be opened and emails and phone calls will still be answered, we ask that you be patient when you personally visit Murphy House. Please ring the doorbell and wait for an office staff member to come to the door to meet you.

Fr Chadi soon to leave us!

Some sad news through this week that Fr Chadi will be leaving us in early August. He has been appointed Assistant Priest at Mary, Queen of the Family Parish, Blacktown. Fr Chadi's last Sunday with us will be 08 August. Naturally, we will organise a farewell morning tea after the 11:00am Mass that day.

Social Justice Group

At the recent Parish Pastoral Council meeting, the issue of establishing a Social Justice group was raised. In light of the great treasury of the Church's teaching on social justice and the particular emphasis it has been given by Pope Francis and Bishop Vincent, I think this is an important development in the life of our parish. More information will be forthcoming but if you have any comments on this or would like to express an interest in being a part of such a group, please contact the parish office. Fr Robert

Become a Catechist - an SRE Volunteer! Who? Me? Yes...why not you?

What is an SRE (Special Religious Educators)?

SREs are parish volunteers who:

- Teach and share their faith with children of their parish who attend government schools.
- Have a passion for sharing the gift of faith with young people.
- Have an hour per week to prepare and share their time and talents with young people.
- Are people who respond to the central mission of the Church to make Jesus known and loved.

In this parish Special Religious Educators, SREs, (previously known as Catechists) go into six state primary and high schools. New volunteer SREs will be given support, training, teaching materials and will start as a classroom helper.

To register your interest or make further enquiries visit or call the Parish Office on 8839 8400 or your SRE Parish Co-ordinator at pamelab@bigpond.net.au

Cathedral Offerings

The First and Second collections are now a combined collection which will be taken up during the time of the Offertory and the Preparation of the Gifts. When making your contribution, please consider that the one collection is now split between the diocese (the old First Collection) and the parish (the old Second Collection).

Thank you for your continued support of our parish!

IT'S ON TODAY: BIGGEST MORNING TEA

Our Fundraiser, St Pat's Style!

Join us in the Cloister Function Room for morning tea after 9:30am or 11:00am Masses to help us raise money to support people with cancer.

Please come prepared to make a donation (by cash or eftpos) for this very worthwhile cause.

Thanks to Freeda Sawant for spearheading the initiative.

Sacraments of Initiation

Preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation

Registration for Confirmation through St Patrick's Cathedral Parish is now open for children 10 years or older who have made their Reconciliation and First Eucharist. While this is the minimum age for children to join in preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation, it is important to note that there is no maximum age for children who have been baptised as infants to complete their initiation into the faith community.

The online registration form can be found on St Patrick's Cathedral website <https://stpatscathedral.com.au>. Go to the "Sacraments" tab in the section titled "Confirmation". Alternately, please contact St Patrick's sacramental coordinator Meg Gale at sacrament@stpatscathedral.com.au.

The calendar of mandatory preparation sessions is as follows:

Confirmation 1: Tuesday 13 July, 7:30pm - Parent Session

Confirmation 2: Tuesday 27 July, 7:30pm - Parent Session

Confirmation 3: Saturday 07 August, 4:30pm - Parent and Children Session

Confirmation 4: Saturday 14 August, 4.30pm - Parent and Children Session

Practice for Confirmation: Saturday 21 August, 4:00pm followed by the 6:00pm Vigil Mass - Parents and Children
Ceremony for Confirmation: Saturday 28 August 3:00pm

Seeking Submissions for St Pat's Matters

Parents and children, consider sharing your recent experiences of First Holy Communion, either about the preparation sessions or the beautiful occasion itself.

But you'll have to be quick if you want it included in this issue!

Saint of the Week

21st June - St Aloysius Gonzaga (1568 - 1591)

Born in 1568, St Aloysius was the eldest son of a Mantuan nobleman, and was intended by his father to be a soldier. Aloysius, on the other hand, had determined to be a missionary, and even to die for his faith. He renounced his birthright in favour of his brother and at the age of sixteen became a Jesuit novice in Rome, living the same life of extreme austerity and penance that he had followed even when serving in the courts of dukes and princes. In 1591 an epidemic of plague broke out in Rome, and the Jesuits opened a hospital to care for the sick.

Aloysius, still a novice, worked hard in the hospital until he himself caught the plague. He did not recover; but, his determination to die for the faith having been fulfilled, he died at midnight on 20 June 1591 with the name of Jesus on his lips. He was just 23 years old.

Text taken from Universalis

“Quote of the Week”

"It takes three to make love, not two: you, your spouse, and God. Without God, people only succeed in bringing out the worst in one another. Lovers who have nothing else to do but love each other soon find there is nothing else. Without a central loyalty life is unfinished."

Venerable Fulton J Sheen

(1895 - 1979)

Bishop and Broadcaster

Seven Words of Jesus and Mary: Lessons from Cana and Calvary (1945)

NEWS FROM ROME

Pope Francis concluded his catechesis on prayer, focusing once again on the prayer of Jesus: 'In the final hours of his life, Jesus' constant dialogue with the Father becomes all the more intense, as he approaches his saving death and resurrection....For our sake, he experiences the distance separating sinners from God, and becomes the supreme and eternal intercessor for all mankind. In our own life of prayer, may we always be mindful that the Lord never ceases to pray for us, uniting us to his own eternal dialogue of love with the Father in the communion of the Holy Spirit.'

Getting to know...

Silvana Rechichi

Greetings fellow parishioners of St Pat's! My name is Silvana Rechichi, I was born in Italy; with my family, I migrated to the Land of Oz in 1968. I was 13. We settled in Parramatta and became parishioners from those very first days, all told 53 years! We spoke not a word of English yet we felt at home from the very first moment we set foot inside the church.

I remember with fondness the first people we met the very first day we attended Mass: Frank Keane, Molly Boyle, sisters Noreen Mclean & Marie Ray, Paula Cowling and many more who, through their faithful dedication and loving example, helped me grow into the faith and encouraged me to participate more fully in the life of the church here in Parramatta.

Over all this time I have been involved in various ministries: Reader, Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist and Communion to the sick at Westmead Hospital, Rosary and Lenten groups; Novena to Mary & Taize prayer groups, just to name a few. I was also a chorister in the Parish Choir and later also a cantor at the 6:00pm Vigil Mass, which I still attend to this day. Each of the ministries mentioned has brought with it its own spiritual rewards and enriched my life in many ways.

In 53 years the Parish has experienced its share of painful episodes but none more so than the disastrous fire of 1996 which destroyed our spiritual home and saw its parishioners scattered to nearby parishes. What a joy it was to be part of a combined Diocesan Choir at the dedication of the new Cathedral in 2003 and, like a phoenix rising, witness its re-birth.

Sadly, one by one, I had to let go of all the ministries when the time came to care for my mum in the final years of her life. Some years after her death, I "reprised" the Novena to Mary Full of Grace, originally started by then Dean, Fr. Kevin Walsh, and which takes place on the last Tuesday of the month, in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

From a very young age I was encouraged to let faith reside in my heart and reason in my mind, together they continue to shape and direct my life. Now that I am older, and hopefully wiser, I am beginning to understand a glimmer of that great commission entrusted to us by our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ, and that is to "love the Lord my God with all my heart and with all my soul and with all my strength and with all my mind" and to "Love my neighbour as myself". Pax et Bonum.

BAPTISMS

We welcome into our Catholic Christian family, the Body of Christ, these children who have been baptised over the past few weeks...

Isabella Aust
Cienna Cuajardo Lacourt
Mary Lin
Henry Wright

Please uphold these children and their families in prayer.

WEDDINGS

We pray for those couples who have been married in recent times here at St Patrick's Cathedral...

Jeorgia Lotoaniu & Sione Ahokava

Danielle Takchi & Thomas Sakr

Let us also pray for those who are preparing for marriage:

Katia Rossi & Luke Rinn

DID YOU KNOW...

...that every Friday is a traditional day of penance?

Every Friday should be marked by:

Prayer: participating in the Eucharist, family prayer, visiting a church, reading scripture, praying the Rosary or the Way of the Cross;

Self-denial: abstaining from meat, sweets or dessert, giving up entertainment to spend time with family, limiting food or drink in support of the poor;

Helping others: giving special attention to someone who is poor, sick, elderly, lonely or overburdened.

Trust in God

In today's Gospel reading the apostles became very afraid when a storm came up and the boat they were in started to sink.

Jesus was asleep in the boat, but when they woke Him up He told the storm to stop and it did!

Have you ever been very afraid? There are lots of things that can really scare us. Jesus wants us to turn to Him with faith when we are afraid. Sometimes God lets us be scared so that we will remember to ask Him for help.

If ever you feel scared, pray to Jesus right away. He can help to calm your fear, and He can help you to make good decisions. God is always there for us, even when things seem hopeless!

Here's an easy prayer you can say:
Jesus, I trust in You!
