Hear and heed his Word!

"OUR EYES ARE FIXED on the Lord... as the eyes of servants are on the hands of their masters."

This image from today's psalm is a mirror of what it means to be a complete, mature follower of Jesus Christ. In today's Gospel reading we heard about Jesus' reaction to how the residents of his hometown received his teaching: "He was amazed at their lack of faith." This recurrent theme in Mark's Gospel was also put by Jesus to his apostles on the boat: "How is it that you have no faith?" (Mk 4:40). On the other hand, last Sunday, Mark gave us two great miracles stories of two people whose astonishing faith brought them back to life: literally and symbolically. I am referring to the synagogue official whose daughter was brought to life from death and the haemorrhagic woman who symbolically was brought back to life from being barren and an outcast of society because of her illness. All the characters have heard the same preaching of the Lord, but the reaction is different. Why?

Mark was aware of this tension when he wrote his Gospel since his community was suffering in Rome and many were dying for their faith in Jesus. Some heard what Jesus was telling them, and it made an impact on them. For others, they heard the Word of God but did not change their lives; they perceived the truth of Christ's words, but refused to welcome that truth into their hearts. This refusal, St Mark tells us, is a "lack of faith."

Faith, then, which is the foundation of Christian life, involves two things. It involves hearing God's word and heeding that word. God is always speaking to us, and we usually hear him - in our conscience, in the teachings of the Church, in the words of the Bible - but oftentimes we do not heed what we hear, and that stunts our spiritual growth.

This was God's constant complaint in the Old Testament, as we just heard in today's First Reading. God sent prophets repeatedly, to show people the way to a meaningful and abundant life, and they heard what the prophets had to say, but they did not heed it; they "resisted" it, they "revolted" against it.

Following Christ means both hearing and heeding the Word of God. Why is it so hard both to hear as well as to heed God's word? One reason is that God loves us too much to let us settle for spiritual mediocrity. He is always calling us to spiritual excellence, also known as holiness. But the pursuit of excellence always involves breaking out of a comfort zone. Today we face the same challenges. Accepting, following, and defending Catholic teaching makes us different than our neighbours. We do not entertain ourselves with drunkenness, drugs, and promiscuity. We do not respond to marital difficulties with no-fault divorces. We put our principles before our popularity, and our faith before our feelings. In today's world of self-sufficiency, technological achievement, and moral relativism, those are counter-cultural convictions; they shatter our psychological comfort zones.

But that is what it means to have faith. If we want to unleash God's power in our lives, we must take the risk of faith, of both hearing and heeding God's word.

All the best in these difficult times,

Deacon Roderick

A Message During Lockdown

At this time, I know a lot of parishioners are struggling with not being able to get to Mass and receive the nourishment of both scripture and the Eucharist. Rest assured that I, along with Fr Chris, Fr Chadi, Fr Joseph and the parish team, are remembering you in our prayers at this time. Let us hope and pray that the lockdown will end after its two-week run, though we will not know this until we get closer to that deadline. We must be prepared for an extension if the government deems it necessary.

One perspective which might assist those who are struggling at the moment to what amounts to a eucharistic fast, is to consider one of the reasons we are called to occasionally fast from food. Though there are many reasons for fasting and various benefits that flow from this ancient practice, one thing it does is to give us solidarity and a certain amount of empathy with those who can't access food for one reason or another. Likewise, a eucharistic fast, though forced upon many of us rather than undertaken freely at this time, can give us solidarity and empathy with our brothers and sisters throughout the world who rarely receive the Eucharist, for one reason or another.

Of course, not being able to get to Mass does not mean an enforced spiritual wasteland. You can still view our weekday Masses as well as the Sunday Vigil and 11:00am Masses online on our YouTube channel, the link for which you will find on our website in case you haven't already subscribed (free of charge!) to our channel. You can also, for the moment, watch our Masses on Facebook. If you can't be present to watch our Masses when they are being livestreamed on YouTube, you can still watch them later as they are saved for future viewing.

In addition to this, our Diocesan website, www.parracatholic.org, has resources to feed you spiritually at this time. You can access them by clicking the link which pops up on the homepage when you visit the site. Of course, there is a wealth of other resources floating around in the digital ether if you wish to access them!

Once again, rest assured of our prayers at this time and we do hope and pray that we can worship together soon in our beautiful cathedral.

Yours in Christ,

Frs Robert, Chris, Chadi, Joseph and the Parish Team

Parish Office back to normal

We are pleased to let you know that the Parish Office is now back in its usual location after three weeks in Murphy House. We thank you for your patience during this time. Clearly, we are not open for general visits and enquiries at present, but we can still be contacted via phone and email.

Olive Wood Products - POSTPONED

Unfortunately, we have had to postpone the visit of Atallah Ghanim due to the current restrictions and scheduling issues that have flowed from that. We hope that he will be able to visit us later in the year. More details when they come to hand.

Sacraments of Initiation

Preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation

The online registration form can be found on St Patrick's Cathedral website <https://stpatscathedral.com.au>. Go to the "Sacraments" tab in the section titled "Confirmation". Alternately, please contact St Patrick's sacramental coordinator Meg Gale at sacrament@stpatscathedral.com.au.

The calendar of mandatory preparation sessions is as follows:

Confirmation 1: Tuesday 13 July, 7:30pm - Parent Session

Confirmation 2: Tuesday 27 July, 7:30pm - Parent Session

Confirmation 3: Saturday 07 August, 4:30pm - Parent and Children Session

Confirmation 4: Saturday 14 August, 4.30pm - Parent and Children Session

Practice for Confirmation: Saturday 21 August, 4:00pm followed by the 6:00pm Vigil Mass - Parents and Children
Ceremony for Confirmation: Saturday 28 August 3:00pm

Please keep a lookout on various platforms for any changes to this schedule which might result from an extended lockdown.

Social Justice Group

At the last Parish Pastoral Council meeting, the issue of establishing a Social Justice group was raised. In light of the great treasury of the Church's teaching on social justice and the particular emphasis it has been given by Pope Francis and Bishop Vincent, I think this is an important development in the life of our parish. More information will be forthcoming but if you have any comments on this or would like to express an interest in being a part of such a group, please contact the parish office. Fr Robert

Plenary - Fan the Flame

Towards Plenary Assembly One October 2021

"Do not be afraid; only have faith."

Mark 5:21-24,35-43

While being conscious of the work to be done, we also have much to be thankful for. There are many signs of hope in that members of the faithful persevere with the practice of the faith... and are living their commitment to love of neighbour in myriad ways.

Social Justice Sunday

We celebrate Social Justice Sunday on 29August. The Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement, Cry of the Earth, Cry of the Poor, invites us to join in responding to Pope Francis' invitation to take a seven-year journey towards total ecological sustainability guided by seven Laudato Si' Goals. The Statement provides theological foundations to ground and inspire our efforts to care for creation while responding to the needs of the disadvantaged and excluded. More information: ACBC Office for Justice, Ecology and Peace, www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au or Tel (02) 6201 9845.

Get vaccinated for the common good

Vaccination against COVID-19 is a morally good thing, providing protection for the person vaccinated and the wider community. Some COVID-19 vaccines are associated with ethically questionable production and research practices, but Pope Francis and the Australian Bishops have advised that it is morally permissible to receive any vaccine made available.

PRAYER IN A TIME OF PANDEMIC

Lord Jesus, give us the grace to hear your voice, and the strength to continue working for your kingdom in this time of pandemic.

Do not allow us to be indifferent to those who today suffer the loss of a loved one, or who suffer from the absence of work.

But give us the courage to accompany and side with those who suffer violence or injustice. Amen.

NEW STOCK: Feel free to come in and have a browse. We stock religious goods, ethical products, sacramental gifts and many more items to celebrate a time in your life or someone special.

Saint of the Week

7th July - Blessed Peter To Rot (1912-1945)

Peter To Rot was born in 1912 at Rakunai, a village on the Melanesian island of New Britain, today part of Papua New Guinea. His parents belonged to the region's first generation of Catholics. He was a pious boy and the parish priest thought that he should study for the priesthood, but his father felt that the tradition of Catholicism in the region was too short and none of the people were yet ready for the priesthood, so Peter became a catechist. He married in 1936 and had three children.

When the Japanese occupied the island during WWII, all the missionaries and the mission staff were imprisoned in a concentration camp and Peter was the only spiritual guide that Catholics had. He organised prayer services, gave religious instruction, baptised children, preserved the consecrated hosts and administered them to the sick and dying, and gave help to the poor.

The Japanese banned all Christian worship. Peter was arrested in April or May 1945 and "questioned" by officials. He was sentenced to two months in prison but a Japanese doctor came and injected him with poison, stuffed his ears and nose with cotton wool, and held him down and suffocated him till he died.

Blessed Peter To Rot

Text taken from Universalis

"Quote of the Week"

"For when I am wicked, confession to you simply means being displeased at myself; when I am good, confession to you means simply not attributing my goodness to myself."

NEWS FROM ROME

Pope Francis continued his catechesis on Paul's Letter to the Galatians: 'In emphasizing the power of the Lord's mercy at work in his own life, Paul invites us to reflect on how God enters into our lives, surprising us, renewing and radically transforming us by the Holy Spirit, and strengthening us to become missionary disciples for the spread of the Gospel and its liberating message.'

Getting to know...

Patti Murphy

Born in Northmead, the youngest of three girls. Part of a remarkable family. Educated at St Monica's and St Patrick's. I have four children, who I love dearly. Matthew, Sharon, Paul and Stephen and four grandchildren Nathan, Jessica, James and Liam. I am blessed also with a marvellous extended family: five nieces - one, the recent recipient of an OAM and two nephews, their children and grandchildren. I came to St Pat's when I retired and soon Sister Susan had me on the roster. I became involved with meditation, was a volunteer when Murphy House was open, am on the hospitality team. I have made many wonderful friends. I learned that praying means accepting what God sends as he always knows best. Long ago I was given the Serenity Prayer, adopted by alcoholics.

"God give me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can and the Wisdom to know the difference." As well as trying to make the best of each day, this is what I always try to live by.

Fond 'parish' memories include Father Dave and the trips we did with him monthly in search of the best hamburgers and the wonderful lunches and movies he provided for us after 12:30 Mass on Fridays. Also how I loved Father Bob and still miss him so much.

BAPTISMS

We welcome into our Catholic Christian family, the Body of Christ, these children who have been baptised over the past few weeks...

Milo Baluyut
Elijah Deeb
Harrison Reid

Please uphold these children and their families in prayer.

WEDDINGS

We pray for those couples who have been married in recent times here at St Patrick's Cathedral...

Jeorgia Lotoaniu & Sione Ahokava
Danielle Takchi & Thomas Sakr

Let us also pray for those who are preparing for marriage:

Katia Rossi & Luke Rinn

DID YOU KNOW...

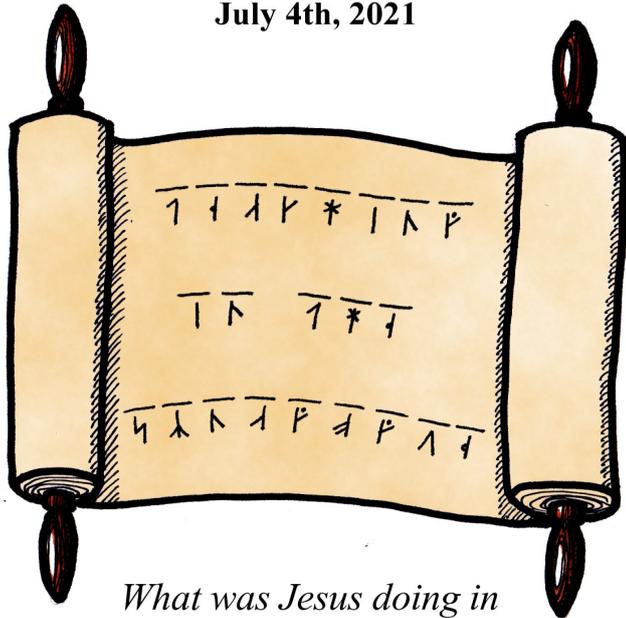

...that Nazareth, in the region of Galilee, was the home town of Jesus as well as his mother, Mary?

We hear in Luke's Gospel that the angel Gabriel was sent to Mary "to a town in Galilee called Nazareth." (1:26) Mary's home town is not mentioned in Matthew's account of the birth of Jesus, however. In Matthew's Gospel, the arrival of the holy family at Nazareth (2:23) is to fulfill a prophecy ("He will be called a Nazarene.") In Luke's Gospel, following the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem, "they went back to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth." (2:39)

Saint PAUL tells of asking God to take away his suffering: "Three times I BEGGED the LORD about this, that it might LEAVE me, but he said to me, "My GRACE is sufficient for YOU, for power is MADE PERFECT in weakness." I will rather BOAST MOST GLADLY of my WEAKNESSES, in order that the POWER of Christ may DWELL in me. Therefore, I am CONTENT with weaknesses, INSULTS, hardships, PERSECUTION and constraints, for the SAKE of CHRIST; for when I am weak then I am STRONG."

Priests Take the Place of Jesus

In today's Gospel reading Jesus was preaching in the synagogue. (A synagogue is kind of like your local church building.) The people there didn't believe in Him because they thought they knew Him. They didn't take Him seriously because they knew His family.

Do you know the priest at your church? He takes the place of Jesus at every Mass and when you go to Confession. God gave him a very special job.

However, even though priests have a very special job, they are still people like you. They need lots of help from God to do their job well. We should pray for our priests every day!

Here is a prayer you can say:

*Dear Jesus,
Please bless all priests. Make them be like you. Give them all the help they need to lead us to Heaven.
Thank you for all the priests who have helped me, and please send more good priests to the Church. Amen.*

Saint Elizabeth of Portugal July 4

ELIZABETH WAS A SPANISH PRINCESS IN THE 1200'S. AT THE AGE OF 12 SHE WAS GIVEN IN MARRIAGE TO KING DENIS OF PORTUGAL.

SHE WAS DEVOTED TO HER HUSBAND EVEN THOUGH HE WAS UNFAITHFUL TO HER.

ELIZABETH WAS KIND TO THE POOR AND SICK AND RAISED HER SON AND DAUGHTER WELL.

O Jesus, please help my husband!

FINALLY THE KING ADMITTED HE WAS LIVING AN EVIL LIFE AND CONVERTED.

ELIZABETH HAD MADE PEACE MANY TIMES BETWEEN ARMIES AND KINGS, AND NOW SHE BROUGHT PEACE BETWEEN HER HUSBAND AND GOD.

The king has agreed to the terms of peace.

AFTER HIS DEATH SHE BECAME A FRANCISCAN. SHE DIED AFTER A LONG JOURNEY ON WHICH SHE MADE PEACE BETWEEN HER SON AND ANOTHER KING.

SAINT ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL IS AN EXAMPLE TO US BY HER LIFE OF VIRTUE AND LOVE OF PEACE. GOD WANTS EVERYONE TO LIVE IN PEACE WITH EACH OTHER SO THAT WE CAN ALL GROW IN HOLINESS TOGETHER. WE CAN ALSO LEARN FROM HER TO PRAY FOR THOSE WE LOVE WHO HAVE TURNED AWAY FROM GOD.
