“You have the message of eternal life...”

THIS WEEK WE REACH THE final instalment of what, in most years, would have been a five-week dip into chapter six of the Gospel of John. Unlike most cases of “exception” in the current times this is not due to the prevalence of Covid and its disruptive nature but because over the past two Sundays we have celebrated respectively the Solemnities of Mary of the Cross MacKillop and The Assumption. Had we heard from John for all five weeks, we would have witnessed the miracle of the multiplication by Jesus of the loaves and fishes, heard Jesus declare himself to be the Bread of Life, listened to him state that the bread he gives is his flesh and that those who eat his flesh will live for ever, and witnessed the incredulous response of the Jewish leaders to Jesus’ proclamation. All of this is capped off this weekend with many of Jesus’ followers voting with their feet and deciding to no longer follow him. When Jesus throws out the challenge to the Twelve, Peter, the leader, responds with some famous words: “Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe.”

It pays to remember that the decision made by those who chose to no longer follow Jesus came after an extended speech by Jesus on the Eucharist. He has declared that he is the Bread of Life “and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.” He goes on to declare that “...my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.” It is this challenging talk of Jesus that appears to have been the stumbling block for many of his followers. Had he not been so bold as to speak this truth, no doubt those same followers, or most of them, would have stayed loyal to Jesus.

But notice Jesus’ response. No mention is made of Jesus calling them back, pleading with them to return to him. Jesus doesn’t apologise for offending them, or confounding them, with his talk, nor does he water down his words. He stays firm in declaring the truth. Jesus leaves the response of others entirely in their own hands, respecting their autonomy: it is up to them to decide whether to embrace the truth of the Eucharist or reject it.

This is not to say that Jesus has no concern for the welfare of those who have made the choice not to follow him. In Jesus we know one who has, and by his very nature is, unconditional love. We can imagine the pain Jesus must have felt in seeing many of his followers deserting him as they failed to grasp the significance of the truth he was proclaiming. We can only hope that they reflected on their decision and, at some point in the future, had a change of heart.

And for us it is just as well that Jesus has concern for the welfare of those who are slow to grasp his nature and his teachings, or even reject them, for surely we are all guilty of this at times. The teaching on the Eucharist is, after all, just one teaching of the Church that can be hard for many to grasp, and we have witnessed over many centuries other groups of Christians rejecting the truth of the teaching on this sacrament. But let us not judge others without reflecting on our own behaviour and thanking God that it is in his nature to welcome us back with open arms when we embrace the truth that is him.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead in these difficult times,

Fr Robert

Want to become a lifelong disciple of Christ?

“Come and See” (John 1:39 - 41)

What is the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)?

A process which leads you towards becoming a lifelong follower of Christ by becoming a Catholic. We will explore your doubts and beliefs, the quest for the meaning of life, the service to the poor and concerns about the environment from the eyes of the Catholic teachings and Pope Francis. This journey of faith, which passes through different stages and ritual steps, leading up to reception of the three Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at Easter Vigil is an exciting one – full of discoveries, wisdom and challenges!

Who can participate in the RCIA?

The RCIA process is for people who are:

- not baptised and never lived the faith;
- baptised Catholics but never lived the faith;
- baptised non-Catholics (another Christian denomination) but never lived the Christian faith.

Come, discuss and discover in a welcoming and supportive atmosphere whether you, or someone you know, is called to become a Catholic.

For more information contact the Parish Office on 8839 8400 or email Deacon Roderick Pirotta at: deacon@stpatscathedral.com.au

Preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation

At this stage, we hope to begin the postponed preparation for Confirmation early next month. All families who have expressed an interest in having their child/ren prepare for Confirmation should have been contacted by email a few days ago. In case there has been an oversight, the first session will be held in the Cathedral Hall on Tuesday, 07 September at 7:30pm. Again, should the lockdown be extended, another plan will be implemented which will be detailed at the appropriate time.

Get vaccinated for the common good

Vaccination against COVID-19 is a morally good thing, providing protection for the person vaccinated and the wider community. Some COVID-19 vaccines are associated with ethically questionable production and research practices, but Pope Francis and the Australian Bishops have advised that it is morally permissible to receive any vaccine made available. We celebrate Social Justice next Sunday, 29 August. The Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement, Cry of the Earth, Cry of the Poor, invites us to join in responding to Pope Francis' invitation to take a seven-year journey towards total ecological sustainability guided by seven Laudato Si' Goals. The Statement provides theological foundations to ground and inspire our efforts to care for creation while responding to the needs of the disadvantaged and excluded. Saint of the Week

27th August - St Monica (332-387)

Monica was born at Thagaste in Africa (present-day Souk Ahras in northern Algeria, near the border with Tunisia) of a Christian family. She was married young to Patricius, and among her children was the famous Augustine, whose feast day is celebrated the day after that of Monica.

Augustine had a brilliant intellect and uncertain morals and his wayward spiritual career saw him at one time a Manichee and then a Neoplatonist. With many tears Monica prayed unceasingly to God for Augustine's conversion and her prayers were answered shortly before her death. She had a deep faith and outstanding virtue and is a wonderful example of a Christian mother.

"Quote of the Week"

"I'll give you one piece of advice: don't neglect his name, 'Jesus.' Meditate on it in your heart night and day as your personal and precious treasure. Love it more than your life. Root it in your mind. Love Jesus because he made you and bought you at a very high price. Give your heart to him because it is the debt you owe him."

NEWS FROM ROME

Pope Francis continued his catechesis on Paul's Letter to the Galatians: 'Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the Letter to the Galatians, we have seen how Saint Paul teaches that faith in Jesus Christ brings a spiritual freedom that liberates believers from the demands of the Mosaic Law. For the Apostle, the Law served a "pedagogical" function; as a merciful gift of God, it demanded obedience to his commandments, while at the same time pointing to the reality of our sinfulness and need for salvation. With the coming of Christ and his redeeming grace, the Law finds its fulfilment in the Gospel message of new life and freedom in the Spirit.'

Getting to know...

Paul Mousley

My name is Paul Mousley and I have been a parishioner of Saint Patrick's Cathedral for over fourteen years.

I am involved in ringing the church bell and leading Our Lady's cenacle each Friday when the church is open. I also perform some duties on the church grounds and belong to the Legion of Mary.

A highlight of my life has been my travels overseas as I went to Rome and Medjugorje. I was fortunate enough to have a very kind travel companion by the name of Frank Jones and he knew his way around these places that were all new to me.

I intend to live a life of fidelity to the gospel and of prayer.

Saint Joan of Arc is my favourite saint as I admire her for her courage. I would love to meet her one day in heaven.

I lead the Rosary during the weekdays and have several prayer partners that I am privileged to be able to pray the Rosary with.

The Rosary gives me peace, strengthens my faith and I enjoy praying with others and have established some very strong bonds with other Christians.

I am currently studying Information Technology and have been interested in computers all my life.

My hobbies are music, walking, cats, gardening, chess, tennis and I love going to the movies with friends.

Please pray for me.

BAPTISMS

At this time, we pray for all those families who are seeking to have their children baptised but cannot do so because of the current Covid restrictions....

Please uphold these children and their families in prayer.

WEDDINGS

We pray for those couples who have had to postpone their wedding due to the current Covid restrictions....

We pray that this will not dampen their desire to be united in this sacrament when circumstances permit.

DID YOU KNOW...

...that despite Jesus speaking of the "Bread of Life" in chapter six of John's Gospel, this Gospel does not depict the institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper?

In John's Gospel, the focus of the Passover is Jesus' washing of the feet of his disciples (13:1-20). It is this event, of course, which is highlighted at the Mass of the Lord's Supper each year on Holy Thursday, also known as Maundy Thursday.

We Choose to Follow Jesus

Joshua 24:1-2, 15-18

In today's first reading, Joshua told the people that they had to choose between the false gods and the true God. Joshua and the people chose to worship the true God.

In the Gospel today we hear that many people stopped following Jesus because they couldn't understand what He was teaching. But the Apostles chose to stay with Jesus. Like Saint Peter said, they knew that He was the Holy One of God.

Do you ever have a hard time understanding what Jesus tells us? We need to be like the Apostles and choose to follow Jesus even when it's hard, especially when other people don't follow Him.

Saints Monica and Augustine August 27 and 28

ST. MONICA WAS BORN IN 332 IN NORTH-EAST AFRICA. SHE WAS RAISED IN A CHRISTIAN FAMILY BUT MARRIED A PAGAN. HE CONVERTED BEFORE HE DIED.

I do want to be baptized!
Can you bring a priest?

HER SON AUGUSTINE, HOWEVER, WAS AWAY LIVING A LIFE OF SIN AND DISSIPATION.

AUGUSTINE WAS VERY SMART BUT STUBBORN. MONICA PRAYED AND WEPT FOR HIM.

Lord, have mercy on my son!

Take up and read!

FINALLY AUGUSTINE CAME TO BELIEVE IN THE TRUE FAITH.

HE LEARNED FROM THE GREAT BISHOP, SAINT AMBROSE.

Let's look at what Isaiah wrote here...

SAINT MONICA DIED AT AGE 55 WITH HER SON AUGUSTINE AT HER BEDSIDE.

Here we speak evil of no one.

Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.

AUGUSTINE BECAME A PRIEST AND BISHOP. HE WAS GENEROUS AND DEFENDED THE CHURCH'S TEACHINGS. HE WAS ALSO A GREAT PREACHER.

SAINT MONICA IS THE PATRONESS OF MARRIED WOMEN AND MOTHERS BECAUSE OF HOW SHE HELPED HER HUSBAND AND SON COME TO GOD. SAINT AUGUSTINE WROTE SUCH IMPORTANT WORKS THAT THEY ARE STILL STUDIED TODAY. WE CAN LEARN FROM THESE SAINTS HOW MUCH PRAYER CAN REALLY DO!
