Dear Parishioners...

IT'S TIME TO WRITE YOU my last letter in this bulletin. I would like to let you know that this Sunday, 08 August, is my last day at the Cathedral. My gratitude goes toward God for my staying at the Parish Cathedral of Parramatta for nine months, and I appreciate having had the opportunity to meet you and have had a short relationship with you all. Thank you for the support and encouragement you have provided me during my time at the Cathedral. Thank you for your active presence and heart. However, words never can give the right expression of the feeling. Thank you so much everyone.

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of St Mary of the Cross, Australia's first Saint. Mary MacKillop was a pioneer and advocate for the poor, sick and those on the margins of our society. Today, her mission to the poor is very much alive in our world. Mary's love for Christ was so strong that she sought Him out in the poor, sick and suffering.

There are many examples in Mary's life where she put aside her own needs to serve the sick, the lonely and the disadvantaged. The children taught by the sisters often had no shoes to wear. On the night before their First Communion, Mary would have a re-enactment of the Washing of the Feet. This meant all the children would have clean feet for this special occasion in their life. From the pen of Mary MacKillop who wrote to the sisters in March 1900:

If choice be given, seek the most neglected places to which He calls us. Let us never forget that, in the spirit of our Rule, it is to those we should desire to go.... Let us be true to the beautiful spirit of our Institute.... Let St Joseph's true children remember their mission and seek first the poorest, most neglected parts of God's vineyard.

Coming to today's reading, we find Jesus inviting us not to be anxious, not be worried. At a leadership training course, a business executive found that fifty-four percent of his worries related to things that were unlikely to happen; twenty-six percent related to past actions that could not be changed; eight percent related to the opinions of people whose opinions really did not matter to him; four percent concerned personal health issues that he had since resolved; and only six percent concerned real issues worthy of his attention. By identifying and then letting go of the worries he could do nothing about or that were a complete waste of his energy, he eliminated ninety-four percent of the problems that had plagued him.

Jesus, however, talking about worries concerning clothes, food, and drink, says, "indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." The basis of trust is an experience that, despite the instabilities, uncertainties and controversies of life, the course of the world and our own life are ultimately in the hands of God.

How can we overcome worry?

1. Focus on eternal matters instead of temporary ones;
2. Focus on our Father's providential care;
3. Recognise our great value to God;
4. Recognise how unproductive worry is;
5. Pursue God's promises;
6. Focus on God's grace for today.

Human beings who try to live these points, or at least some of them, and discover in themselves even a tiny bit of trust in God and in life will be relieved of the stress of constantly worrying and awaken to see their present and future more clearly. Trust in God and you will see miracles in your life.

Please keep in touch. I can be reached at my personal email address: i_chadi@live.com

United in prayer,

Fr Chadi

A Message During Lockdown...

In light of the protracted lockdown we are currently experiencing, we know a lot of parishioners are struggling with not being able to get to Mass and receive the nourishment of both scripture and the Eucharist. Rest assured that the cathedral clergy and the parish team are remembering you in our prayers at this time. Let us hope and pray that the lockdown will end after the current four-week extension at the end of this month and that, even in a limited way, we can worship in the cathedral once more.

One perspective which might assist those who are struggling at the moment with what amounts to a eucharistic fast, is to consider one of the reasons we are called to fast from food occasionally. Though there are many reasons for fasting and various benefits that flow from this ancient practice, one thing it does is to give us solidarity and a certain amount of empathy with those who can't access food for one reason or another. Likewise, a eucharistic fast, though forced upon many of us rather than undertaken freely at this time, can give us solidarity and empathy with our brothers and sisters throughout the world who rarely receive the Eucharist, for one reason or another. Many of those who hunger for the Lord in the Eucharist only receive him a few times a year.

Of course, not being able to get to Mass does not mean an enforced spiritual wasteland. You can still view our weekday 12:30pm Masses (8:00am Saturday) as well as the Sunday 11:00am Mass online via our YouTube channel, the link for which you will find on our website in case you haven't already subscribed (free of charge!) to our channel. You can also, for the time being, watch our Masses on Facebook. If you can't be present to watch our Masses when they are being livestreamed, you can still watch them later since they are saved for future viewing. One of the longest running television programs on commercial television in Australia is "Mass for you at home", and this can be seen on Channel 10 each Sunday morning at 6:00am. You can also access these Masses on the website massforyou.com.au.

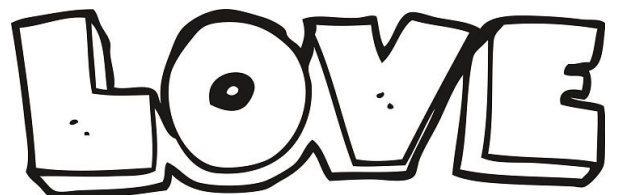

In addition to these options, our Diocesan website, www.parracatholic.org, has resources to feed you spiritually at this time. You can access them by clicking the link which pops up on the homepage when you visit the site. Of course, there is a wealth of other resources floating around in the digital ether if you wish to access them! See page three of this week's bulletin for more details.

I want to reiterate that though we cannot undertake pastoral duties with the "personal touch" at this time to the extent that we would like to, it is still possible for us to chat with people over the phone or via Zoom, etc. If you would like to chat with a member of the clergy or parish team please don't hesitate to make contact with us. We are here to serve you at this time as much as any other.

Once again, rest assured of our prayers at this time and we do hope and pray that we can worship together soon in our beautiful cathedral.

Yours in Christ,

Frs Robert, Chris, Chadi, Joseph and the Parish Team

Sacraments of Initiation

Preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation

Please note that due to the extended lockdown in Sydney, and with no certainty about how things will proceed on this front, the Confirmation program has been postponed till later in the year. It is our hope that the sacrament of Confirmation will still be celebrated before the end of the year. We will advertise a renewed program as soon as possible. We apologise for this but are sure that those families who are currently enrolled will understand our need to take this action.

Registrations for Confirmation will remain open for the time being. The online registration form can be found on St Patrick's Cathedral website <https://stpatscathedral.com.au>. Go to the "Sacraments" tab in the section titled "Confirmation". Alternately, please contact St Patrick's sacramental coordinator Meg Gale at this email address: sacrament@stpatscathedral.com.au.

Plenary - October 2021

Fan the Flame

Towards Plenary Assembly One October 2021

'Set your hearts on his kingdom first, and on his righteousness, and all these other things will be given you as well.'

Matthew 6:25-34

The Church signifies and builds up the shared life of God's kingdom. This calls all members of the Church to continual conversion from self-serving egoism to self-giving love and a willingness to "bear each other's burdens." (Gal 6:2)

Get vaccinated for the common good

Vaccination against COVID-19 is a morally good thing, providing protection for the person vaccinated and the wider community. Some COVID-19 vaccines are associated with ethically questionable production and research practices, but Pope Francis and the Australian Bishops have advised that it is morally permissible to receive any vaccine made available. Saint of the Week

14th August - St Maximilian Kolbe (1894 - 1941)

Maximilian was born on 08 January 1894 in occupied Poland. He joined the Franciscans in Lwów in 1910 and was ordained in 1918. He founded a newspaper, and a sodality called the Knights of Mary Immaculate, which spread widely both in Poland and abroad. In 1927 he founded a community at Teresin in Poland which attracted many lay people, and became self-supporting, publishing many periodicals and running its own radio station.

In 1930 Maximilian went to Japan, studied Buddhism and Shintoism, and through the Japanese edition of his newspaper spread the message in a way that was in harmony with Japanese culture.

He returned to Poland in 1936 for reasons of health. When the Germans invaded Poland in 1939, the community at Teresin sheltered thousands of refugees, most of them Jews.

In 1941 he was arrested and sent to Auschwitz where he offered pastoral care to the inmates. In August of the same year ten inmates were chosen to die by starvation and Maximilian offered to take the place of a younger man with a family. He spent his last days comforting other prisoners and was the last to die.

“Quote of the Week”

“Let us all resign ourselves into His hands, and pray that in all things He may guide us to do His Holy Will. When thoughts of this or that come I turn to Him and say: ‘Only what You will, my God. Use me as You will.’”

St Mary of the Cross
(1842 - 1909)

NEWS FROM ROME

Pope Francis had his first general audience this week since the end of June, just prior to his hospitalisation. He continued his catechesis on Paul's Letter to the Galatians: ‘...we now consider Paul's insistence on complete fidelity to the Gospel. For Paul, the proclamation of the Christian message was his very life. What he preached to the Galatians was in fact the apostolic kerygma, which summarised the fulfilment of all God's promises in Jesus Christ, who died for our sins, was buried, rose on the third day, and appeared to Peter.’

Getting to know...

George Manassa

For those who do not know me, I am the host and founder of The Catholic Toolbox Show which airs on 1701AM, Australia's Catholic Radio Network and EWTN and is on Podcast (www.thecatholictoolboxshow.com). I am also the author of 'The Art of Practical Catholicism' and 'A Server's Toolbox' available in St Pat's Gift Shop, other stores or online.

Furthermore, I have been a member of the Parish Pastoral Council since 2019. I am also a senior server here at the Cathedral, which has been my lifelong parish since my baptism in 1995, and then a late Confirmation by then Bishop Anthony Fisher in 2010. I am normally a Master of Ceremonies or server at the 11:00am Solemn Mass, with the beauty of our solemn ritual clothed by Australia's best mixed choir, led by our very own Bernard Kirkpatrick. I consider this parish my second home because I attend daily Mass and I receive the sacraments and spiritual nourishment from the generous priests we have been gifted with, to eventually aid the salvation of my soul (the entire objective of our Catholic faith).

My wife and I are still newlyweds, as of the 26th of June. (We slipped through on the exact day of the most recent lockdown, as a result of God's providence). We both live in Parramatta, and continue to be active members in our parish.

BAPTISMS

At this time, we pray for all those families who are seeking to have their children baptised but cannot do so because of the current Covid restrictions....

Please uphold these children and their families in prayer.

WEDDINGS

We pray for those couples who have had to postpone their wedding due to the current Covid restrictions....

We pray that this will not dampen their desire to be united in this sacrament when circumstances permit.

DID YOU KNOW...

...that Mary MacKillop, whose feast day we celebrate this weekend, was once excommunicated from the Church?

It is perhaps of little surprise that a strong, determined and enterprising woman like Mary should have encountered opposition from the male hierarchy of the Church nearly 150 years ago. There was opposition from some members of the clergy regarding educational matters and what was essentially a smear campaign against Mary was conducted. Though she was excommunicated for "insubordination" by Bishop Sheil, this was lifted the following year, in 1872. An episcopal commission later exonerated her completely.

The Kids' Bulletin

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday August 8th, 2021

Jesus told the people that He was the Bread of Life. The people were confused and wondered what He was talking about. So He explained again, and told them this:

" _____ "

(Use all the letters that you pass in the maze to fill in the blanks and find out what Jesus said) John 6:41-51

Believing in Jesus

JESUS DIDN'T COME FROM HEAVEN...

In today's Gospel reading some people were grumbling about Jesus when He said that He had come down from Heaven. They thought they knew who He was because they knew His family on earth, and they didn't want to listen to what He was saying.

Jesus told the people that He really is from Heaven - and He is the way to Heaven. He gives us His Body and Blood in Holy Communion. He is the food that our souls need to stay alive and get to Heaven.

Sometimes people around you might not believe in Jesus or what

WHO BELIEVES IN JESUS NOW?

He says. If that happens, remember to trust Jesus. Even in His own time some people didn't believe in Him. But Jesus has given us faith to believe in Him and wants us to be happy with Him forever in Heaven!
