Childlike simplicity...

UNDER NORMAL CIRCUMSTANCES I make it a priority to visit the school a few times throughout the week and I'm always amazed when I visit the younger years. Despite my difficulty in remembering names, the children always greet me with joy and warmth. I recall at the beginning of this year first meeting the kindergarten children. Their teachers had just introduced me to the class and I spent a few moments saying hello to them. Recess time came and I said my farewells as I had to return to the Cathedral. I exited the classroom with the children and headed towards the front office when I noticed several children walking beside me attempting to hold my hand. I laughed and told them they couldn't come with me as I had to leave. They said, 'Yes, Father' but continued to walk with me to the front office nonetheless. As I left the school, I asked myself why would they walk with me all the way to the office? After all, I just met them. In the end it came down to the innocence children exhibit when they are young. They don't place importance on what you have or what you do, it's who you are - another person, made in God's image and likeness - that is important.

It is this example, this attitude, that is essential to the spiritual life. As they make their way through Galilee, our Lord reveals to the disciples the blueprint to authentic discipleship; a life patterned according to the example of Christ who both died and rose from the dead. Wealth and worldly success are not keys to spiritual enlightenment, but rather love modelled on Christ. Unfortunately, this important lesson falls on deaf ears as the disciples begin to argue about who is the greatest among them. Rather than berate them, Jesus brings before the disciples a little child, an example of innocence and simplicity. Christ says, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.' We do not approach the Lord with our merits or our achievements, but with loving trust and innocence, like that of a child.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, often in our prayers and pursuit of sanctity we fall into a similar attitude to that of the disciples on the road. We present to the Lord all that we've done for Him. In a sense, we bargain with the Lord. 'I've done this for you, you do this for me.' This, of course, is not the right attitude. The way forward is not in presenting our achievements, but in trusting in what God has already done for us and allowing his grace to move our thoughts, words and deeds. This requires the innocence and simplicity of a child who lovingly places their life in the care of their parents. As we reflect on this Gospel, let us ask the Lord for the grace to approach him like a child. In doing so, we seek to deepen our relationship with Him who offered His life for our salvation.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead in these difficult times,

Fr Chris

A Third Message During Lockdown...

Over the past couple of months, we have written a couple of messages on the subject of the pandemic and the lockdown imposed by the government in the interests of minimising the spread of the coronavirus and its sometimes deadly consequences. Those messages have sought to reassure parishioners at a difficult time and to encourage all to receive one of the vaccines on offer. We do hope you have been encouraged by the endorsement that Pope Francis and Bishop Vincent have given on the moral aspects of the vaccination for Covid-19.

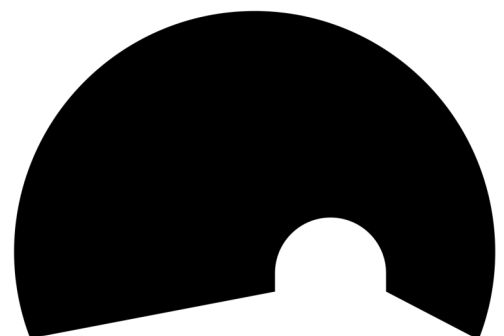

This third message sees us all at a point in the lockdown where there is, at the very least, a glimmer of light dawning on the difficult situation we have endured over the past couple of months. This light is breaking because of the increased vaccination rate and will shine brighter as an increased number of people seek to take advantage of the vaccines on offer. At this stage there is no certainty about whether parishioners will need to have received the vaccine in order to participate in parish activities, including Mass, but we would encourage those who have not yet received the vaccine to consider doing so. Once we have some news on this matter, we will let you know. Most certainly, the diocese will issue guidance on vaccine mandates when the time for reopening nears.

Speaking of this, we at least now have some hope that Masses with a congregation will be allowed in the not-too-distant future, with mid-October being suggested as a possible time for reopening. This will depend, of course, on the NSW government declaring that a sufficient percentage of the population has been vaccinated to make an easing of restrictions feasible. Let's hope and pray that this is so and do our part to increase the likelihood of this happening.

Rest assured that the clergy and staff of St Patrick's continue to pray for you and Masses are being offered for all parishioners on a regular basis. Please pray for us and let us hope that this glimmer of light with regard to a possible reopening grows bigger and brighter in the coming weeks, culminating in the chance for us to meet and worship together again in our beautiful cathedral.

Yours in Christ,

Frs Robert, Chris, Joseph and the Parish Team

Seeking assistance: St Vincent De Paul (Vinnies) is taking phone calls regarding assistance requests, the Harris Park Vinnies number is 8861 9757. The Harris Park Hub is closed until further notice due to the current lockdown. OzHarvest has a hamper hub in Granville, open Thursdays 11:00am - 2:00pm, located at 3-5 Bridge St, Granville. Karabi Community Services have a food bank running Wednesdays. Karabi is on Darcy Rd Wentworthville (corner Fyall Avenue), open 9:00am to 4:00pm weekdays. Their phone number is 9631 5428. Please ring prior to attending to confirm food bank opening hours.

Offering assistance: Karabi Community Services Wentworthville are accepting donations of non-perishable food stuffs. Please see above for phone and address details. Please remember compliance with the NSW COVID public health orders when out in the community at this time.

Caring for the health and wellbeing of our retired priests

The Bishop's Father's Day Appeal, traditionally held on Father's Day, raises much needed funds for the Clergy Support Foundation to continue its work supporting retired clergy and those in ill health. Due to the current lockdown, the Appeal will be held via mail and online. You can still contribute for several weeks after Father's Day if you wish. Your thoughtful donation will mean so much to those who have put the care of others before themselves. Please give generously via the Father's Day Appeal at parracatholic.org/fathersdayappeal or call (02) 8838 3482.

Current issues

Despite the pandemic calling a halt to much activity, various processes and issues forge ahead. These issues include the Afghan refugee debate, the proposed euthanasia legislation in the NSW Parliament, natural disaster relief efforts, and so much more. Let's uphold these issues in prayer but also do what we can practically. With regard to the euthanasia legislation, you can email our State MP, Dr Geoff Lee, at parramatta@parliament.nsw.gov.au. Time is of the essence!

Young people of the Diocese – we are with you

Towards Plenary Assembly One October 2021

'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me.'

Mark 9:30-37

Our parishes in particular are challenged to renew the formation of children, young people and families who may not be strongly connected to the Church but who still have an 'instinct for the faith' which prompts them to seek the sacraments or engage in part with the Church's life.

Saint of the Week

20th September - Sts Andrew Kim Taegon, Paul Chong Hasang and Co.

For centuries, Korea was closed to all outside influences, and all contact with foreigners was forbidden. No missionaries went there. Nevertheless, a number of laymen sought to find out all they could about the outside world. Some books about Christianity fell into their hands and they were converted. It is likely Christianity started in Korea in the early seventeenth century. In the nineteenth century over ten thousand Christians were executed with great cruelty.

For most of these years, the Church in Korea had no priests and was an entirely lay phenomenon. The first priest, a Frenchman, entered the country in 1836 and was beheaded three years later. Andrew Kim Taegon, the first Korean priest, secretly trained in Macau, entered Korea in 1845 and was executed in 1846, together with his father. A lay apostle, Paul Chong Hasang, and many others perished at the same time. A further major persecution occurred in 1866.

In all, 103 Korean martyrs are celebrated today. They are mostly lay men and women: some married, some not; some old, some young, even some children.

"Quote of the Week"

"Two societies have been formed by two loves: the earthly by the love of self, even to the contempt of God; the heavenly by the love of God, even to the contempt of self. The former, in a word, glorifies itself; the latter glorifies the Lord...The one lifts up its head in its own glory; the other says to God, "You are my glory, you lift up my head."

Bishop and Doctor of the Church
The City of God

NEWS FROM ROME

From Pope Francis' Mass on 14 September in Prešov, Slovakia: 'How do we learn to see glory in the cross? Some of the saints teach us that the cross is like a book: in order to know it, we have to open it and read it. It is not enough to buy a book, take a look at it and put it on a shelf in our home.

The same is true for the cross: it is painted or carved everywhere in our churches. Crucifixes are found all around us: on necks, in homes, in cars, in pockets. What good is this, unless we stop to look at the crucified Jesus and open our hearts to him, unless we let ourselves be struck by the wounds he bears for our sake, unless our hearts swell with emotion and we weep before the God wounded for love of us. Unless we do that, the cross remains an unread book whose title and author we know, without its having any impact on our lives. Let us not reduce the cross to an object of devotion, much less to a political symbol, to a sign of religious and social status.'

Getting to know...

The Newman Family

We are a small family of three – Peter and Priscilla, and our son, Patrick.

For those attend the 11:00am Solemn Mass regularly, our faces might be familiar, especially Patrick who is the Cathedral organ scholar. Patrick has the privilege of being taught to play on this fine beautiful organ by our gifted Director of Music, Bernard Kirkpatrick, for over ten years. Sometimes you can see Patrick playing at the 9:30am and 11:00 am Solemn Mass and some other solemnities.

I (Priscilla) used to work in Parramatta over 20 years ago. Every day during lunch break, I would make a quick dash up the road to the 12:30pm Mass celebrated in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. I felt so blessed and most grateful that the Cathedral has a midday Mass to accommodate those Catholics who work but do not live in the area.

We have befriended some wonderful people as we journey on in our faith as God's family. The Cathedral parish is very vibrant with many activities catering for all age groups. Every event is well planned and celebrated in style with so many dedicated, welcoming and committed parishioners who work very hard and always serve with a BIG smile. We can feel inclusiveness as a BIG parish family.

As a family, we enjoy short day trips (apple, cherry picking, Devonshire teas), long interstate road trips and spending time with our family and friends, both locally and overseas.

We pray that God will bless all our priests, both past and present and every parishioner richly, especially in these challenging times.

BAPTISMS

At this time, we pray for all those families who are seeking to have their children baptised but cannot do so because of the current Covid restrictions....

Please uphold these children and their families in prayer.

WEDDINGS

We pray for those couples who have had to postpone their wedding due to the current Covid restrictions....

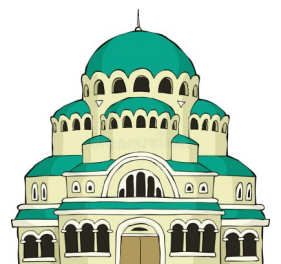

We pray that this will not dampen their desire to be united in this sacrament when circumstances permit.

DID YOU KNOW...

...that Pope Francis has recently returned from a trip to Hungary and Slovakia?

Pope Francis, in his first international trip since recent surgery, visited the two neighbouring, formerly Communist, countries for two purposes. He visited Budapest, the capital of Hungary, for just one day to celebrate the closing Mass of the 52nd International Eucharistic Congress (the next will be in Quito, Ecuador, in 2024) and he visited Slovakia for a few days to encourage the people in the faith. Most Catholics in Slovakia are Greek Catholics and the Pope celebrated Mass in the Byzantine Rite.

In the Gospel reading today the disciples were arguing with each other about who was the greatest. Jesus knew what they were talking about, so He told them that whoever wanted to be great must serve others.

Can you think of anyone who serves you? What about your parents? Priests, teachers and doctors also serve us. How can you serve others?

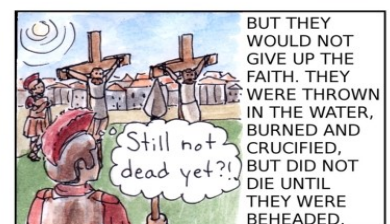

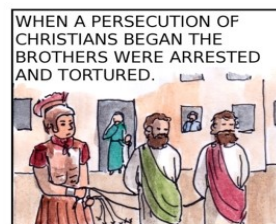

What would you like to do when you grow up?
How will you be able to serve people then?
