“Good master, what must I do...?”

ONE OF THE GREAT THINGS about having a regular confessor is that he doesn't need to give too much advice during reconciliation. As he is aware of one's struggle with sin, the confessor provides a few encouraging remarks to remind one of God's unfailing providence. In my case, my confessor always ends his advice with these words: 'Be thankful for your weaknesses. For in the words of Fulton Sheen, if we had never sinned we could never call Christ our Saviour.' Whilst I'm still trying to understand these words, I have found the Gospel for this Sunday helpful in manifesting humanity's desire to be fully united with the Lord.

Our Gospel begins with probably the most asked question when navigating the spiritual life: 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' His question is met with the Ten Commandments. Jesus steers his question back to the Decalogue: the Ten Commandments are the very core of the Law as they stem directly from the Lord; therefore they are essential in attaining eternal life. To Jesus' astonishment the young man has kept all these since his youth. Jesus then goes further: 'Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' At these words the young man's joy turns to sadness: he turns and walks away from Jesus.

How does this Gospel assist us in our earthly pilgrimage? First, the young man's question highlights a merit-based approach towards eternal life - an erroneous approach. One does not gain eternal life through one's good deeds - though they certainly aid our cause - but in cooperating with God's grace and mercy. This reality leads into the second point: when we begin to strip ourselves of our unhealthy attachments, only then are we able to allow God's grace to work within us. This approach is revealed in the words of St. Paul: "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." I will all the more gladly boast of my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities; for when I am weak, then I am strong.' (2 Cor 12:9-10).

Dear friends, how do we approach our Lord in our pursuit for eternal life? Quite frankly, we approach him with nothing but our weakness. Only when we recognise our spiritual fragility can we allow God to transform us. As we reflect on this Gospel may we seek the intercession of Our Blessed Mother so as to imitate her humility in order that we be filled with God's grace and so attain eternal life.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead in these difficult times,

Fr Chris

An Important Lockdown Message...

Over the past couple of months, we have written a couple of messages on the subject of the pandemic and the lockdown imposed by the government in the interests of minimising the spread of the coronavirus and its sometimes deadly consequences. Those messages have sought to reassure parishioners at a difficult time and to encourage all to receive one of the vaccines on offer. We do hope you have been encouraged by the endorsement that Pope Francis and Bishop Vincent have given on the moral aspects of the various Covid-19 vaccines.

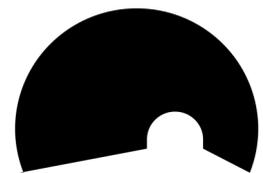

We have reached a point in the lockdown where there is a light dawning on the difficult situation we have endured over the past couple of months. This light is breaking because of the increased vaccination rate and will shine brighter as an increased number of people seek to take advantage of the vaccines on offer. Whilst we are all aware of the easing of restrictions that will occur on Monday, the Catholic Bishops of NSW have decided to postpone the opening of churches for public worship until eighty percent of the population is double-dosed. Of course, we cannot say for certain when that will be but, based on current trends, it is likely to be towards the end of the month. The reason for this decision is essentially that, based on the NSW Government regulations, opening up at the seventy percent threshold would mean having to deny entry to those who have not been vaccinated, something the Bishops aren't prepared to do. Nonetheless, we will be opening the chapel next Monday for private prayer only for a few hours each day until the full reopening of the parish.

Once churches are open for public worship, please be aware that there will still be some restrictions in place, similar to earlier ones, such as mask wearing and social distancing, signing/checking in, and so on. Please respect all of these requirements to ensure that we can all safely worship together publicly once again.

In the meantime, rest assured that the clergy and staff of St Patrick's continue to pray for you and Masses are being offered for all parishioners on a regular basis. Please pray for us and let us hope that we will soon meet and worship together in our beautiful cathedral once more.

Yours in Christ,

Frs Robert, Chris, Joseph and the Parish Team

Get vaccinated for the common good

Vaccination against COVID-19 is a morally good thing, providing protection for the person vaccinated and the wider community. Some COVID-19 vaccines are associated with ethically questionable production and research practices, but Pope Francis and the Australian Bishops have advised that it is morally permissible to receive any vaccine made available. Saint of the Week

11th October - Pope St John XXIII (1881-1963)

Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was born in the village of Sotto il Monte, near Bergamo, in 1881. At the age of 11 he entered the seminary at Bergamo and later pursued his studies at the Pontifical Seminary in Rome. He was ordained priest in 1904. He was secretary to the Bishop of Bergamo but from 1921 onwards he served the Holy See directly in various posts, both in Rome and in Bulgaria, Turkey and Greece, culminating as Apostolic Nuncio to France from 1944 to 1953, when he was created cardinal and made the Patriarch of Venice. He was elected Pope in 1958. He convoked the Roman Synod, instituted the revision of Canon Law, and called the Second Vatican Council, which opened on 11 October 1962. He died while the Council was still in session, on the evening of 03 June, 1963.

He was canonised on 27 April 2014.

“Quote of the Week”

“The load is not taken from us. Jesus, who carried his own cross, knows that we are destined to be burden carriers and the bearers of our own cross. Moreover, he knows that we are sanctified only under this burden and not without this burden. Jesus does not take from us the burden God has laid upon us. But he makes the burden easier for us by showing us how we must carry it...”

Lutheran Theologian and Martyr
A Testament to Freedom

NEWS FROM ROME

“Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our continuing catechesis on Saint Paul’s Letter to the Galatians, we now consider the Apostle’s teaching on Christian freedom. For Paul, that freedom is a gift, the fruit of our new life in Christ. Through baptism, we have been freed from our bondage to sin and freed for a life of generous love in obedience to the Gospel. Jesus tells us, “If you continue in my word... you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free” (Jn 8:31-32). Christian freedom is thus grounded in the unmerited gift of God’s grace and the truth of Christ. Through his passion, death and resurrection, Christ reveals the depth of God’s love, and teaches us that the total gift of ourselves in service of others, even to the point of death, is the mark of supreme freedom. The truth that Christ brings is in fact truthfulness about ourselves. Our journey along the path of Christian freedom is not easy, but guided and sustained by the love of the Crucified Lord, and by his liberating truth, we will find our ultimate fulfilment in accordance with God’s saving plan.”

Getting to know...

Pamela Bain

Hello, my name is Pamela Bain. When my family first came to St Patrick's in December 1986, we were so warmly welcomed that we made St Patrick's our spiritual home and have continued to worship here ever since.

During that time I have been engaged in various ministries. Currently I am a Reader, a Counter and a Catechist (a Special Religious Educator, taking the Good News of Jesus to our children enrolled in the State Schools). I am the Parish Coordinator for SRE and am always seeking new recruits to continue this very rewarding work.

I have two wonderful sons who, with their delightful wives, have given me four beautiful grandchildren. I look forward to spending as much time with them as I can. For thirty-seven years I worked in the NSW Department of Education, through which I taught in many country towns before returning to city schools. I loved teaching the Kindergarten children and watching them develop in their first year of school.

In retirement I joined the U3A (University of the Third Age). Holidays over the years have taken me from Cape York to Cape Leeuwin, from Hobart to Broome and many places in between. A special Highlight has been the annual visit to Melbourne for the Australian Tennis Championships. Although I have no Scottish ancestry, I have been a member of various Scottish Societies since 1973 and have enjoyed many Highland Gatherings.

While watching television I like to knit toys for family and friends. New babies in the family always get a knitted teddy.

Here at St Pat's I have made many wonderful friends and look forward to the Saturday Vigil when I can meet up with them and share in the Lord's Supper. I have much to be thankful for – Deo Gratias!

BAPTISMS

At this time, we pray for all those families who are seeking to have their children baptised but cannot do so because of the current Covid restrictions....

Please uphold these children and their families in prayer.

WEDDINGS

We pray for those couples who have had to postpone their wedding due to the current Covid restrictions....

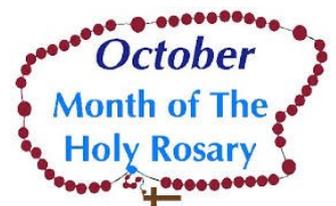

We pray that this will not dampen their desire to be united in this sacrament when circumstances permit.

DID YOU KNOW...

...that October is traditionally regarded as the month to lend a special focus to the Rosary?

The feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated each year on 07 October. This feast recalls the time when Christian forces defeated the Turkish fleet at the famous Battle of Lepanto on the first Sunday of October in 1571. This ended the Muslim domination of the Mediterranean and the victory was ascribed to the prayers and processions of the Rosary confraternity in Rome. Because the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary occurs in October, it is natural to extend the promotion and the praying of the Rosary to the whole month.

Jesus and the Rich Young Man

The rich young man in today's Gospel reading was sad because Jesus told him to sell his things and give his money to the poor.

Jesus said that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

But all things are possible with God!

Can you find the way from the camel through the needle?

The rich man in today's Gospel reading wanted to follow Jesus. But he was sad when Jesus told him that he should sell his things and give his money to the poor.

Do you think Jesus wants everyone to give away everything they have?

God calls some people to give up all their things so they can live a special life for Him, like religious brothers and sisters.

But God also wants people who are rich to use their money and things for Him- to help the poor and the Church.

What do you have that is really special? Would you be ready to give it up if God wanted you to?
