'Place me with your Son!'

IN 1537, IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA was journeying to Rome with his companions in order that they might offer themselves to the Pope for his missioning. At a shrine at La Storta, a few kilometres north-west of Rome, Ignatius received an extraordinary response to his novena-like prayer to Mary, "Place me with your Son." Ignatius describes his experience in these words: "He experienced such a change in his soul and saw so clearly that God the Father placed him with Christ his Son that he would not dare doubt it – that God the Father had placed him with his Son." In the "seeing", Jesus was carrying his cross. The Father addresses Ignatius and says, "I shall be favourable to you at Rome." Then the Father turns to Jesus who is carrying his cross and makes this request: "I want you to take this man to serve us." Jesus, with his cross in hand, looks at Ignatius and says: "We want you to serve us." The vision is an obvious answer to Ignatius's prayer to Mary. He is confirmed in his being placed with Jesus in action carrying his cross. This vision becomes an icon of Ignatian spirituality. The vision is about Ignatian service. TO BE PLACED WITH THE SON means TO SERVE. Hence, my prayer on my bookmark to commemorate my ordination on the 22nd February 2019.

I never had any visions like St Ignatius but the desire to serve as a deacon is something that I feel strongly in my prayers. When the Bishop asked me to serve at South Mount Druitt, my first reaction was, "Why me?" I felt the heaviness of the cross on my shoulder, but I could not say "no" to the Bishop if I truly believe that God speaks through one that is the successor of the Apostles. Since I always regularly pray to Mary to be placed with her Son, then my prayers have been heard! I must carry the cross not grudgingly but with the same will as that of Mary who accepted to be "the handmaid of the Lord." They say to be careful what you pray for. The words of Jesus in the garden of Gethsemane: "Thy will be done, not mine" has now a new whole meaning for me. A few days ago, I retired from nursing, thinking of having a relaxed life. It did not last long. This is what it takes sometimes to serve – to be a disciple of Christ.

I am saying all this with great humility to demonstrate that unless the talk becomes action, then the Gospel is not truly our way of living. Many of you asked me, "Why are you leaving us?" With some humour, I answered, "Ask the Bishop!" The answer is more profound than anyone may think, since to do God's will, we need to listen to those God sends around us and to those who really love us. Some of you told me that there is no better person to be appointed as the Pastoral Director of a Parish and others said, 'Our loss is their gain!' These words were of great consolation in the midst of the uncertainty, fear and anxiety I was going through during my discernment process.

Your support has been amazing. Your words of encouragement have been soothing to my soul. We have experienced highs and some lows together during my two and a half years ministering in the Cathedral. You have taught me a lot and you have become part of my life. For this, I say, "Thank you." How much I wish there are more words to show my gratitude to you and to God! God has formed me and moulded me to be a better person during my stay. The work in the 'field hospital' is plentiful and the need to move has arrived. My only hope is that I brought you, in some way, closer to God with my example, words and love. Please pray for your priests and deacons. Au revoir!

God bless you all,

Deacon Roderick

SYNOD 2021-2023

In his homily to open the journey of the Synod of Bishops, Pope Francis called to mind the rich young man who desired to follow Jesus. As avid readers of the scriptures we are well aware of this account. The rich young man approaches Jesus, impresses him with his devotion to the law but walks away in sadness following Christ's call to renounce all earthly attachments. To follow Christ requires a process of self-emptying. Yet Pope Francis tackles this particular account from another angle, he focuses on the very first line of the Gospel 'Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him.' Why this particular line? Pope Francis shows that Christ is always journeying, moving from one place to another yet continues to avail himself to all. Along his journey he encounters many (all with ranging issues) whom he never turns away. Jesus encounters, listens and discerns. Take the rich young man; Jesus, being the Incarnate Word, knew exactly what this man needed. Yet he didn't jump to conclusions, he conversed with the young man, seeking to draw him into the heart of the Father. This journeying process is the hallmark of the Synodal process the Pope calls the faithful to. I ask you to continue to pray for this process.

Sacraments of Initiation Information Evening - Reconciliation and First Eucharist

Unfortunately, due to the most recent COVID lockdown, the regular schedule for the sacramental program here at St Patrick's Cathedral had to be postponed but we are pleased to inform everyone that a new calendar has now been formulated and the next program for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist for children already baptised will commence in Term 1, 2022. In preparation for this, there will be an INFORMATION EVENING on Tuesday 07 December at 7:30pm in the Cathedral hall for parents who are interested in registering their child/ren for the upcoming program and would like to learn more about the process. Please note that children must be 7 years of age or older to be eligible for the program. For more information regarding the upcoming program for Reconciliation and Eucharist or any other enquires about the Sacraments of Initiation at St Patrick's Cathedral please contact Meg Gale: sacrament@stpatscathedral.com.au

Please note that any material intended for display or distribution on the premises, religious or otherwise, must first have the approval of the Dean. Unauthorised material will go straight to recycling, regardless of quantity! Thank you for your cooperation.

Gift Shop Sale

There is a sale in our gift shop from 21—28 November with up to 25% discount on Christmas stock, including nativities, Christmas collectibles and decorations, books, kids' presents, cards and much more! Get in quick before we sell out!

Arabic Mass

Please note that Mass in Arabic on Sunday evenings will now take place at St Michael's at Blacktown (58 Orwell Street). The time remains the same each Sunday at 7:15pm.

Funeral Mass for Danny Dingle

The Requiem Mass for Danny Dingle, a parishioner and former member of the Cathedral choir, will be celebrated here on Wednesday 17 November at 10:00am. Please pray for the repose of his soul and pray too for his family and loved ones at this difficult time. May he rest in peace.

Return of the St Patrick's Cathedral Choir

Due to a number of continuing Covid restrictions surrounding singing and spacing issues, St Patrick's Cathedral Choir will remain in recess until these are lifted, which is currently scheduled by the NSW Government for 01 December. At that stage (or if restrictions are lifted earlier), the choir will be reconstituted and return to singing at the 11:00am Mass on the Sunday following. For the next couple of weeks, singing at the 11:00am Mass will continue to be led by a cantor.

Thank you from Fr Kevin Walsh

I'm deeply grateful for the prayers of St Patrick's community during my open heart surgery. The Lord has given me more time and a greater quality of life. Sincerely in Christ's love. Fr Kevin Walsh.

HSC Exams

Let us bring to our thoughts and prayers all those students who are currently undertaking the HSC exams which conclude early December. We pray that despite the difficult circumstances under which students have laboured, they will perform to the best of their abilities and continue to find the support and encouragement needed from family and loved ones.

Bishop's Christmas Appeal

This appeal will take place on 27/28 November and envelopes will be distributed next weekend. More details next weekend.

Parish Picnic

The parish team felt that it would be nice for us to gather as a community for a simple social event in light of the easing of Covid restrictions. To that end, we are asking parishioners to bring a picnic lunch so that we can gather in the cloister after the 11:00am Mass on the Feast of Christ the King next weekend. Of course, you don't have to be at that Mass to come to the lunch!

St Pat's Matters

The aim is to publish issue 109 in December, with many articles already submitted.

Some suggestions to encourage you to write:

- ◆ Share how cultural traditions influence the celebration of Christmas in your household.
- ◆ Are you involved in Ministry at the Cathedral? Share how and why you chose to serve. We'd love to receive articles from our young altar servers!
- ◆ What draws you to belong to St Pat's Parish?
- ◆ Have you witnessed, or personally experienced, a "Good Sam" act, particularly during the long lockdown? Share it with the community.
- ◆ Articles and archival photos relating to the long-standing history of our remarkable parish — its priests, people and events — are always welcome.

Email your submissions to either Fr Robert or M. Polizzi at balmap5@bigpond.com

Update from Cloister Café

Reopening for morning teas after 9:30am and 11:00am Mass on Sundays is looking promising! At this stage, that could be either 28 November or 05 December, continuing for the Sundays following till just before Christmas. Then, as in the past, the Café closes until February. We will keep you posted. Checking with Hospitality team members as to whether or not they are happy to return to serving parishioners and welcoming them to enjoy a cuppa and a chat.

Sacramental Program

The enquiry evening for Reconciliation and First Eucharist will be held in Cathedral Hall on Tuesday 07 December at 7:30pm.

12:30 Mass on Tuesday 16 November

Please note that the 12:30pm lunchtime Mass this week will be considerably longer than usual as it is being celebrated by Bishop Vincent for the Jubilarians. All are welcome to come and celebrate with these faithful servants of the Church.

Saint of the Week

15th November - St Albert the Great (1206-1280)

Albert was born at Lauingen on the Danube in Germany in 1206, and studied at Padua and Paris before entering the Order of Preachers (Dominicans). He taught in a number of places including the University of Paris, where St Thomas Aquinas studied under him.

He was one of the greatest philosophers of the Middle Ages, coming at the beginning of the great flowering that came with the rediscovery of the works of Aristotle. He had a great interest in science and astronomy and his learning gave him the title, as a Doctor of the Church, of Doctor Universalis, the "Universal Doctor".

In 1260 the Pope made him Bishop of Regensburg, a post that he held for three years before resigning it. He made great efforts to secure peace between people and between cities. He died at Cologne in 1280.

(Information taken from Universalis)

"Quote of the Week"

"By virtue of the creation and still more of the incarnation, nothing here below is profane for those who know how to see. On the contrary, everything is sacred."

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin
(1881-1955)

Priest, palaeontologist
and theologian

NEWS FROM ROME

"Dear Brothers and Sisters: Today we conclude our series of catecheses on Saint Paul's Letter to the Galatians. We have seen Paul speak in a variety of ways as apostle, theologian and pastor, opening up the inexhaustible riches of Jesus Christ. Paul's personal encounter with the risen Lord led him to proclaim boldly the freedom from sin and death won by Christ's victory on the Cross, and the new life bestowed on us by the Holy Spirit at our baptism. Paul's insistence that charity is the fulfilment of the law should lead us enthusiastically to pursue the way of Christian love and to cultivate the fruits of the Holy Spirit. Nor should we ever grow weary or discouraged by our failures or apparent lack of progress. Saint Augustine evokes the image of Christ asleep in the boat amid the storm to remind us that whenever we feel weary and the tempests of life threaten to overwhelm us, we need but awaken Christ in our hearts, trusting in his faithful presence and the life-giving power of his Spirit. With Saint Paul, may we constantly rejoice in the newness, joy and freedom of the new life proclaimed by the Gospel."

Appreciating the Natural Environment

A good place to start thinking about what does 'the cry of the earth' mean for each of us is to appreciate our natural environment to help us focus on actions to treasure it. Parramatta has many options to escape the built environment and get out into nature. Paths along the Parramatta River allow us to walk, run or ride. You can observe the many bird species, watch mud crabs scuttling and contemplate the cobbled spread of mangroves on the riverbank. Parramatta Park is also a wonderful outdoor space, with majestic eucalypts and regenerated shrub habitat perfect for picnics, playing and quiet contemplation of a book, the sky or just being outside. Lake Parramatta has a 4km bush walking circuit, with stopping places to rest and contemplate the bush serenity, plus options to swim and kayak if that's your thing. The Sydney basin is ringed by multiple national parks to the north, west and south, natural places interfacing with suburbs (Lane Cove, Botany Bay) plus the iconic harbour with many foreshore bushland pockets protected. Parramatta Council has an extensive bushcare program involving community volunteers if you're inspired to get more deeply involved in hands on nature conservation locally. There are also national tree day mass planting activities too.

DID YOU KNOW...

...that the Second Reading on Sundays in Ordinary Time generally has no thematic link with the First Reading or the Gospel?

At Sunday Mass we hear three readings in addition to the Responsorial Psalm. There is always a link between the First Reading and the Gospel but the Second Reading is ordinarily part of a continuous reading from one of the Epistles of St Paul or another letter in the New Testament such as the Letter to the Hebrews we have been hearing over the past few Sundays. Next weekend, the Feast of Christ the King, the Second Reading from the Book of the Apocalypse, does link in thematically with the others.
