Sunday of the Word of God

RECENTLY I NOTED in my column for the bulletin that in just about every other part of the world, the Sunday of the Word of God, instituted by Pope Francis in 2020, was celebrated two Sundays ago on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. In Australia, the Australian Bishops decided to postpone this day for two weeks because of the possibility of Australia Day being a distraction. So, this weekend is our opportunity to focus on the Word of God, albeit with different scriptural texts than the norm.

And it appears that shift in date is very fortuitous because in this weekend's Gospel we encounter the crowd pressing around Jesus as he stands by the Lake of Gennesaret (also known more popularly as the Lake of Galilee). And what is the crowd doing? Listening to the word of God! We do not hear what their response was, but we can only hope that some lives were changed. Indeed, that is the purpose of God's word, something made clear by Pope Francis' homily on the Sunday of the Word of God, an excerpt from which I reproduce here:

"Sisters and brothers, the word of God changes us. Rigidity does not change us, it hides us; the word of God changes us. It penetrates our soul like a sword (cf. Heb 4:12). If, on the one hand it consoles us by showing us the face of God, on the other, it challenges and disturbs us, reminding us of our inconsistencies. It shakes us up. It does not bring us peace at the price of accepting a world rent by injustice and hunger, where the price is always paid by the weakest. They always end up paying. God's word challenges the self-justification that makes us blame everything that goes wrong on other persons and situations. How much pain do we feel in seeing our brothers and sisters dying at sea because no one will let them come ashore! And some people do this in God's name. The word of God invites us to come out into the open, not to hide behind the complexity of problems, behind the excuse that "nothing can be done about it" or "it's somebody else's problem", or "what can I do?", "leave them there". The word of God urges us to act, to combine worship of God and care for man. For sacred scripture has not been given to us for our entertainment, to coddle us with an angelic spirituality, but to make us go forth and encounter others, drawing near to their wounds. I spoke of rigidity, that modern pelagianism that is one of the temptations of the Church. And this other temptation, that of seeking an angelic spirituality, is to some extent the other temptation today: gnostic movements, a gnosticism, that proposes a word of God that puts you "in orbit" and does not make you touch reality. The Word that became flesh (cf. Jn 1:14) wishes to become flesh in us. His word does not remove us from life, but plunges us into life, into everyday life, into listening to the sufferings of others and the cry of the poor, into the violence and injustice that wound society and our world. It challenges us, as Christians, not to be indifferent, but active, creative Christians, prophetic Christians."

Wishing you a blessed week ahead,

Fr Robert

"The Word wishes to take flesh today, in the times in which we are living, not in some ideal future....Let us ask, then: do we want to imitate Jesus, to become ministers of liberation and consolation for others, putting the word into action? Are we a Church that is docile to the word? A Church inclined to listen to others, engaged in reaching out to raise up our brothers and sisters from all that oppresses them, to undo the knots of fear, to liberate those most vulnerable from the prisons of poverty, from interior ennui and the sadness that stifles life? Isn't that what we want?" - Pope Francis, from Homily on Sunday of the Word of God

A New Arrival for our Parish!

I am delighted to announce that St Patrick's Cathedral will have a newly ordained deacon, Rev Mr Matthew Dimian, in residence here this coming week. Matthew was ordained at Holy Family Luddenham on Saturday, 05 February, and will take up his appointment here on Monday 07 February. He has already taken up residence with the clergy here and you will probably see him around at Masses over the weekend. I know you will make him welcome and pray for him as he journeys towards priesthood. Fr Robert

Face Masks

A polite reminder that face masks are mandatory during Mass at this time, at least until the end of February. Unless you have a medical exemption, you are legally obliged to wear a face mask. Don't put others' health at risk, nor our ability to remain open, by not doing the right thing. No one enjoys wearing a mask but it is a small sacrifice to make! Thank you.

St Patrick's Gift Shop

The gift shop has now reopened. Please see the bottom of the page for hours of opening.

HURRAH! Cloister Café Reopens

Today, 06 February, after 9:30am and 11:00am Masses. However, be prepared! Expect operational procedures to still be affected due to COVID-19 regulations. Tea, coffee etc will be served inside at the counter, but then parishioners are asked to move outside into the Cloister area to enjoy their refreshments.

The Hospitality Team look forward to when the café's normal routine can return, but meanwhile hope parishioners will understand the need for caution.

Congratulations!

To Fr Peter Williams who was named a Member of the Order of Australia (AM) in this year's Australia Day Honours list, for significant service to the Catholic Church in Australia and to tertiary education. Well done, Fr Peter!

National Church Life Survey

Each census year, the National Church Life Survey is conducted in Australia across all Christian churches to ascertain changes in practice and so on. Postponed from last year, we hope to do ours shortly, on a voluntary basis. The surveys (hard copies) will be available for collection at Mass next weekend. Please return them the following weekend or the final Sunday of February. Boxes will be available for you to return the surveys. More details on the nature of the survey next weekend.

Saint of the Week

8th February - St Josephine Bakhita (1868/69-1947), Virgin

Born in 1868 or 1869 into a wealthy Sudanese family, Josephine was kidnapped by slave traders while still a child and was sold several times in the slave markets of Africa, but was eventually rescued and taken to Italy to work as a nanny. She converted to the Catholic faith in 1890, taking the name Josephine, and entered the Institute of the Canossian Daughters of Charity some three years later, where she worked unstintingly for the next fifty years at Schio, a small village near Vicenza.

Josephine died in 1947.

She was canonised by Pope John Paul II in 2000 and is believed to be the only saint to have originated from Sudan.

NEWS FROM...ROME

'Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our continuing catechesis on Saint Joseph, we have seen how the Church, in pondering the message of the Gospels, has grown in devotion to this great saint. Our veneration of the saints and our trust in their intercession are grounded in the very mystery of the Church as "the communion of saints", redeemed by Christ's saving sacrifice and united to him as members of his mystical body. Our confidence in their intercession is born of our union with them in Christ, and the bonds of spiritual solidarity that unites the pilgrim Church on earth to the saints in heaven. The Christian people have always turned to the saints as friends of Christ and, consequently, as our friends, ever ready to help and support us at decisive moments in our lives. Among the saints, the Church especially venerates the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God and our Mother. So too, we give special honour to Saint Joseph, to whose care God entrusted the Holy Family. Echoing a prayer that I have recited daily for many years, let us all place ourselves under the protection of Saint Joseph and ask him to make known to us, in union with Jesus and Mary, the great power of his friendship and love.'

Visits to the Sick...

One of the many ministries we are called to is to visit the sick. This is an important ministry as it helps those who are unwell and unable to receive the sacraments in church to know that they are not forgotten by the parish or by God. If you know of someone who is unable to get to Mass, and would like a visit to receive the sacraments or even just a chat, please let one of the clergy know or contact the parish office.

BAPTISMS

We welcome into our Catholic Christian family, the Body of Christ, these children who have been recently baptised...

DID YOU KNOW...

...that the Red Mass, celebrated here last Thursday evening, is a Mass to mark the beginning of the legal year?

The Red Mass is an important event in the legal calendar because of the common mission of the legal fraternity and of the Church: to promote justice. The patron saint of lawyers is St Thomas More, the Englishman who was Lord High Chancellor of England under King Henry VIII. More was a devout Catholic and lost his life because of his firm stand against the King's move to declare himself head of the Church over the Pope.

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 6th, 2022

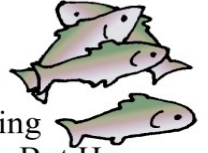

Luke 5:1-11

Peter had been fishing all night and caught nothing. But when Jesus told him to let the nets down again, they got filled right up! Can you draw enough fish to fill the nets?

Fishers of Men

In today's gospel reading Peter had been out fishing all night and hadn't been able to catch any fish. When Jesus told him to let down the nets again he did it anyway. He was very surprised when the nets filled up with fish right away. And there were so many that the boat started to sink!

Jesus told Peter and his friends James and John that he was going to make them "fishers of men." But He didn't mean that they would catch people in nets! He was showing them that they had to bring people into the Church.

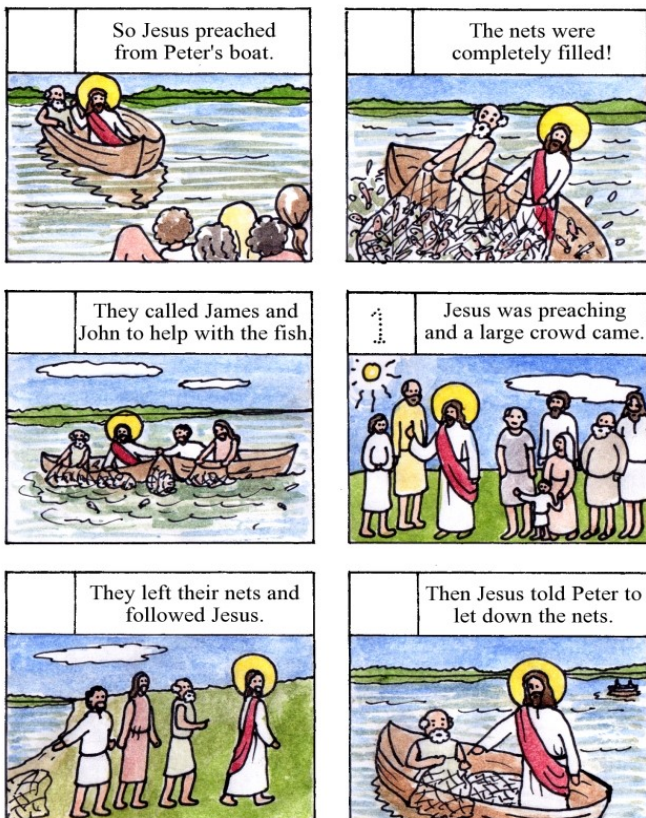

Who are the "fishers of men" today? Priests! They help people to come to the Faith by giving them the sacraments and teaching them the truth about God.
