Radical Love

THROUGHOUT MY YEARS in the seminary I made it a priority to attend as many ordinations, diaconal or priestly, as I could. With the rigorous grind of priestly formation, at times the seminary would feel like an eternity. Ordinations thus served as a joyful reminder of the light at the end of the tunnel. On one occasion I attended a priestly ordination at St. Mary's Cathedral. The church was filled to capacity as three young deacons were ordained priests of Jesus Christ. As the ordination came to a close the youngest of the new priests gave a note of gratitude to the Bishop and the congregation. 'Praised be Jesus Christ and his most Holy Mother,' he declared. 'On this most joyful day, my brother priests and I have been called and sent out to love in a radical way.' On hearing this I was immediately taken aback. Radical love? What is radical love? The young priest continued, 'We are sent on mission to imitate Christ in our lives and present Him in all that we do.' The imitation of Christ, for the young priest, is the radical love he spoke of. But in what sense is the imitation of Christ 'radical'?

Our Gospel for this Sunday presents a very interesting teaching from Christ. Speaking to his disciples, Christ instructs them to 'Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly. To the man who slaps you on one cheek, present the other cheek too.' His teaching astounds the crowd as it opposes the secular gospel - to love your friends and hate your enemies. How can one love one's enemies? As difficult as it is, Christ paves the way for us. He shows us that it is possible to exercise charity in this radical way. We recall during his crucifixion the soldiers both mocking and cursing Jesus. The Pharisees too looked on as the thorn in their side slowly dies. Yet did Christ retaliate in response to their taunts? Did Christ strike them down in vengeance? No, Christ prayed to the Father for their forgiveness. He sought their salvation despite their sins. He exercised charity beyond belief as it sought the well-being of his transgressors. That, dear friends, is the radical love we are called to.

Dear friends, like the disciples we are called and challenged by Christ to exercise his radical love in the world. How do we treat those who transgress against us? Do we continue to harbour ill feelings towards them? Do we seek their destruction in our thoughts? If the answer is yes then we must change that. May I suggest praying for those who hurt us? It may seem strange but by this action we invite Christ into our wounds. He will inspire change in our lives so that we emulate the Father's love in our hearts. I'll end with the beautiful words of our Lord,

'I give you a new commandment; love one another as I have loved you.'

Wishing you a blessed week ahead

Fr Chris

National Church Life Survey

Each census year, the National Church Life Survey is conducted in Australia across all Christian churches to ascertain changes in practice and so on. The surveys are anonymous and there are 61 questions, all with tick-a-box responses and so shouldn't take more than 10 minutes or so to complete. The areas covered include many of those examined in the Australian census such as education level, language, country of origin, but also, naturally, areas such as what is valued in the parish, how comfortable you are about speaking of your faith, and so on. Hard copies are available for collection at Mass. Please return them before the end of February. Boxes will be available for you to return the surveys next weekend. Should you wish to undertake the survey online, please go to attendersurvey.ncls.org.au and use type in the Church Code TA410501.

Cloister Café has reopened

The Cloister Café is now open once again after the 9:30am and 11:00am Masses. However, be prepared! Expect operational procedures to still be affected due to COVID-19 regulations. Tea, coffee etc will be served inside at the counter, but then parishioners are asked to move outside into the Cloister area to enjoy their refreshments. The Hospitality Team look forward to when the café's normal routine can return, but meanwhile hope parishioners will understand the need for caution.

Extra! Extra! Read all about it!

St Pat's Matters issue 110 is out this weekend!

A wealth of content to peruse about:

- ◆ A baptism by full immersion
- ◆ An organist's journey
- ◆ The Annual Red Mass
- ◆ Vocational stories
- ◆ Ministry involvement and updates
- ◆ A modern mother's opinions

The identity of contributors will only be revealed when you begin browsing the magazine.

As always, our appreciation to those who submitted articles for publication either voluntarily or when asked. One hard copy per family, please.

A copy is also be available on the parish website.

Parramatta Catholic Foundation Appeal—26/27 February

Next weekend we will be conducting a special collection for the Parramatta Catholic Foundation (formerly called the Diocesan Works Fund). This appeal happens right across the diocese several times each year and supports the various charitable works undertaken by the Church in our diocese, including those run by various agencies. Donations are tax deductible. You can use the envelopes, contribute cash or, most conveniently, donate online. Do this at yourcatholicfoundation.org.au. Please note the quota for our parish for each appeal is around $11,000. If you use the online option, please ensure that you indicate via the menu that you are contributing for the Parramatta Cathedral Parish to ensure that your donation is credited to St Patrick's Parish. Thank you for your generosity.

Synod 2023: Sharing Responsibility

Our Church is all about participation and shared responsibility. How well do we do we balance authority with teamwork and responsibility? How do we encourage lay participation, involvement and leadership?

Have a prayerful conversation with your family, friends or colleagues, and tell Bishop Vincent and Pope Francis what you find!

Online submissions close February 26. Find out more at bit.ly/synod2023.

Call Wendy on 0427 863 149 or email MET@parracatholic.org if you need assistance.

Voluntary Assisted Dying Bill 2021

Be aware that this bill has reached the Upper House of the NSW Parliament. Please voice your opposition to this bill by signing the online petition (open till 25 April). You can find the petition at www.parliament.nsw.gov.au/lc/pages/epetitions-list.aspx. Note that when you go to this address there are two petitions in relation to this bill, one for and one against. Please ensure you click on the correct one! Bishop Vincent is encouraging us to do everything we can to stop the passage of this distinctly anti-life legislation.

Lenten Courses

Lenten groups usually consists of a small group of 3 to 8 people who come together during the Lenten season to pray, reflect and share on the Sunday readings. Groups usually meet in the Cathedral meeting room or in the cloister cafe.

This year we have chosen the Remember Lenten Program book designed by the Diocese of Wollongong as a guide for our groups. We are hoping to run two weekly groups on Tuesdays at 10:00am and Thursdays at 7:30pm commencing on Thursday 03 March and Tuesday 08 March. If you would like to join one of our groups, please let Pat in the office know.

Saint of the Week

23rd February - St Polycarp (died c.155), Bishop, Martyr

Polycarp was a disciple of the Apostles, bishop of Smyrna (modern-day Izmir in western Turkey), and a friend of St Ignatius of Antioch. He went to Rome to confer with Pope Anicetus about the celebration of Easter. He was martyred at Smyrna in about 155 by being burnt to death in the stadium. Polycarp is an important figure in the history of the Church because he is one of the earliest Christians whose writings still survive. He bears witness to the beliefs of the early Christians and the early stages of the development of doctrine.

"Quote of the Week"

"...the Christian thinks any good he does comes from the Christ-life inside him. He does not think God will love us because we are good, but that God will make us good because He loves us."

NEWS FROM ROME

From the Pope's General Audience on 16 February:

'Nowadays it is common, it is an everyday occurrence, to criticise the Church, to point out its inconsistencies — there are many — to point out its sins, which in reality are our inconsistencies, our sins, because the Church has always been a people of sinners who encounter God's mercy. Let us ask ourselves if, in our hearts, we love the Church as she is, the People of God on the journey, with many limitations, but with a great desire to serve and to love God. In fact, only love makes us capable of speaking the truth fully, in a non-partisan way; of saying what is wrong, but also of recognising all the goodness and holiness that are present in the Church, starting precisely with Jesus and Mary. Loving the Church, safeguarding the Church and walking with the Church. But the Church is not that little group that is close to the priest and commands everyone, no. The Church is everyone, everyone. On the journey. Safeguarding one another, looking out for each other.'

Visits to the Sick...

One of the many ministries we are called to is to visit the sick. This is an important ministry as it helps those who are unwell and unable to receive the sacraments in church to know that they are not forgotten by the parish or by God. If you know of someone who is unable to get to Mass, and would like a visit to receive the sacraments or even just a chat, please let one of the clergy know or contact the parish office.

BAPTISMS

We welcome into our Catholic Christian family, the Body of Christ, these children who have been recently baptised...

DID YOU KNOW...

...that the National Church Life Survey (NCLS), currently being conducted, is, like the national census undertaken by the federal government, a five-yearly project?

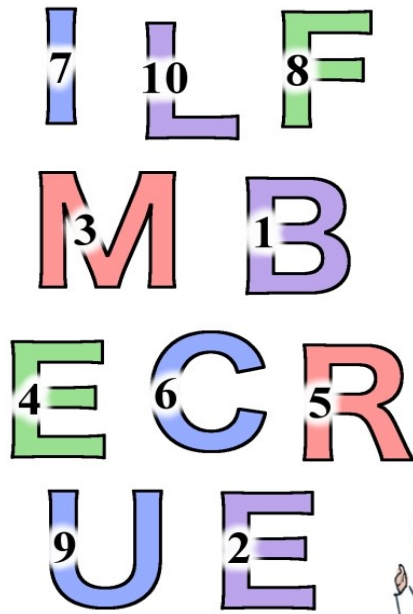

From the NCLS website (ncls.org.au): "NCLS Research is a world leader in research focused on connecting churches and their communities. Decades of rigorous and thoughtful research has examined wellbeing, spirituality and church health. The most well known five-yearly project is called the National Church Life Survey, which has had millions of participants.

Cooperating denominations, including Catholics, Anglicans and Protestants, are a network for sharing practical resources to help churches and communities."

What was Jesus telling us to do in today's Gospel reading?
Use the numbers to help unscramble the letters!

Being Merciful

YOU'RE SHARING WITH ME EVEN THOUGH I WAS MEAN TO YOU?

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells us to be more kind and generous to others than they are to us. He tells us that the way we treat others is how God will treat us.

Has anyone ever been unkind to you and you felt like getting even by being mean back? Jesus tells us that what we should do instead is be extra kind to that person. Sometimes we do mean or selfish things too, and we hope that God will forgive us.

What our Lord is talking about is called mercy. Mercy means being nicer to a person than they deserve. God is the most merciful of all and we should try our best to be like Him. Next time someone is mean to you ask Jesus to help you forgive that person and be kind to them.

See if you can find all the words in CAPITALS in this story of David and King Saul.

Use the leftover letters to fill in the blanks at the end.

LONG AGO GOD chose SAUL to be the king of the ISRAELITES. Sometimes Saul WAS a good RULER and sometimes he wasn't. When David became a great WARRIOR the people STARTED to love HIM more than they LOVED King Saul. The king became ENVOIOUS and wanted to kill DAVID, so he took his SOLDIERS and WENT HUNTING for him. But that night when the KING and his soldiers were SLEEPING, David FOUND them. He could have easily KILLED King Saul, but he CHOSE to be MERCIFUL INSTEAD. He went AWAY without HURTING Saul.

Saint Gabriel Possenti February 27

WE CAN LEARN FROM SAINT GABRIEL THAT BEING A SAINT DOESN'T MEAN YOU HAVE TO BE BORING OR SAD. GOD IS PLEASED WHEN WE HAVE FUN WITH OUR FRIENDS AS LONG AS WE ARE OBEYING THE COMMANDMENTS. ALSO, WE CAN HELP OUR FRIENDS GROW CLOSER TO GOD WHEN WE ARE CHEERFUL.
