The Assumption of Mary

"THE SPIRIT IS WILLING, but the flesh is weak," says Jesus to his slumbering disciples at Gethsemane. Jesus here describes a phenomenon that we can all relate to: our bodies sometimes work against our spirits. We try to raise our souls to God in prayer, but our limbs fidget and our eyes wander. We dream of teleporting to work or to the Mediterranean instead of commuting or travelling, but we are painfully aware that our bodies are limited by space and time. And as much as we wish to be healthy, our bodies are racked with sicknesses, and we will eventually succumb to death.

This experience has led many people over the course of history to regard the body, along with its senses, appetites and emotions, as an evil thing. They have viewed the body as a hindrance to good works, a prison for the spirit, weighing it down and preventing it from reaching the heights of virtue or contemplation. That is, they say, until death, which frees the soul from the shackles of the flesh.

Tomorrow's Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary answers this way of thinking with a resounding "no". This is how the Catechism describes the Assumption: "The Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory." In other words, Mary enjoys the blessedness of Heaven right now in her material body and not as a disembodied spirit.

In fact, Mary was not the first to enter Heaven with her body. Christ opened the gates of Heaven by rising from the dead and ascending to the Father in his resurrected and glorified human body. The Catechism explains that Mary was given the grace to participate in Christ's resurrection "so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords and conqueror of sin and death."

And because God is good, Mary will not be the last to do so. We profess in the Apostles Creed: "I believe in the resurrection of the Body." It is a dogma of the faith that God will resurrect each of our bodies, in the same manner as Christ was resurrected from the dead. We will be reunited with our bodies for eternity.

The resurrection of Christ's body, of Mary's body, and of all our bodies, points us to the truth that the body is an essential part of who we are and is not evil. The body was created by God, who calls his creation "very good". Human nature is fallen and fractured by sin, and that is why we feel weighed down by the flesh. But our brokenness does not change the fundamental goodness of our bodies. Christ, by becoming flesh, elevated the human body to a great dignity. According the catechism, "This dignity entails the demand that [the believer] should treat with respect his own body, but also the body of every other person, especially the suffering."

So we rejoice in the Bodily Assumption of Mary, because she is a sign of hope. The great gifts that God has given her will be ours one day too. We ask Our Heavenly Mother, the Queen of Heaven, to pray for us, that we may live in the true hope of the resurrection.

I will leave you with the words of St Paul: "The body [is meant] for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. ... So glorify God in your body." (1 Cor 16).

Wising you a blessed week ahead,

Deacon Matthew

FRIENDS OF ST PATRICK'S CEMETERY

St Patrick's Cemetery is a heritage-listed closed cemetery on the corner of Pennant Hills Road and Church Street, North Parramatta, City of Parramatta. It is the earliest formalized Catholic cemetery in Australia and was in use from 1824 to 1972.

The cemetery is part of St Patrick's Parramatta proud history. Buried in this cemetery are parishioners and priests of our parish.

The care of the cemetery has been the sole responsibility of parishioner, Judith Dunn, in liaison with the City of Parramatta Council.

We are looking to resurrect the Friends of St Patrick's Cemetery group to assist Judith in the important work of preserving our history. If you would like to be part of this group, please call Donna on 8839 8400.

Parish Annual General Meeting - Sunday 28 August

At 12:15pm, after the Solemn Mass - Parish Hall

This is a time to celebrate 2022 and look towards 2023. With Covid still very much a factor in all aspects of businesses including church business, the AGM is an opportunity for us to reflect as a parish on how we can live and promote the mission of the Church post Covid.

Various team leaders will be writing reports about their ministries which will be included in the AGM booklet report. It's only right that we celebrate their work in what has been a challenging year in ministry. At the same time, the journey continues, and the parish need your wisdom in discerning the way forward.

Every parishioner is encouraged to attend. Bring your kids. The meeting is expected to last an hour. Lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP to the Cathedral Office for catering purposes.

Home-baked goodies made an appearance yet again — this time from Georgie (two decadent mud cakes) and Claire (delicious muffins), while Paula bought a selection of Italian cakes. Then there were the contributions from those on duty plus Pat's home made pikelets and Joanne's chocolate slice vanished quickly at morning tea after 11:00am. Saint of the Week

19th August - St John Eudes (1601-1680), Priest

John Eudes was born on 14 November 1601 in Normandy, France, and died there on 19 August 1680. He was ordained priest and spent many years preaching parish missions. He organised a congregation of nuns that grew into the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity, dedicated to the care of women rescued from a disorderly life, and a congregation of priests dedicated to the running of seminaries. He was active in encouraging devotion to the Sacred Heart, and to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

In the circumstances in France at the time, when the Church was corrupt and the heresy of Jansenism was rife, (teaching that human nature was corrupt, original sin rampant, and perfection was both necessary for salvation and practically unattainable), St John's encouragement of devotion to the Sacred Heart was a defiant proclamation that the centre of God's essence is his love, not condemnation.

(Information taken from Universalis)

"Quote of the Week"

"As the most glorious Mother of Christ, our Saviour and our God and the giver of life and immortality, has been endowed with life by him, she has received an eternal incorruptibility of the body together with him who has raised her up from the tomb and has taken her up to himself in a way known only to him."

Pope Francis' Words...

Tweeted 08 August

"Reviving a dialogue happens not with words, but with silence; not by insisting, but by patiently beginning anew to patiently listen to another person, hearing about their struggles and what they carry inside. The healing of the heart begins with listening."

Getting to know...

Barbara Hector

I was born in 1936, the second child in a family of eight children. My family name was Carter. I was the first baby to be baptised in the new St Patrick's church.

In 1936, the old church was destroyed by fire. I received Holy Communion and Confirmation at St Patrick's. Educated at St Pat's Primary School and then to high school at OLMC, where I graduated after attaining my Intermediate Certificate. I joined the CYO and later the Patrician Club.

I had a two year working holiday in New Zealand, and then came back and rejoined the Patrician Club, where I met my husband, Norm Hector. We married at St Monica's church and raised two daughters.

Eventually Norm, Anne Marie and Claire, joined Robert Beasley's Choir, so once again we were back in Parramatta.

In 1993 Father John Boyle asked Norm to train as an acolyte. Norm and I had a beautiful granddaughter in 2014. I lost Norm in 2014 and I miss him terribly every day. The deterioration of my eyesight also has been a very great challenge. St Patrick's has always been my spiritual and family home.

DID YOU KNOW...

...that the Church has said nothing definitive about whether or not Mary died, simply that her "earthly life was completed"?

As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary on Monday, it is worthwhile reflecting on what the Catechism says on this matter (974-975): "The Most Blessed Virgin Mary, when the course of her earthly life was completed, was taken up body and soul into the glory of heaven, where she already shares in the glory of her Son's Resurrection, anticipating the resurrection of all members of his Body. We believe that the Holy Mother of God, the new Eve, Mother of the Church, continues in heaven to exercise her maternal role on behalf of the members of Christ."

The Kids' Bulletin

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"I have come to set the earth on fire, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and a son against his father,

Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth?

and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished!

Luke 12:49-53

From now on a household of five will be divided,

No, I tell you, but rather division.

a father will be divided against his son and a daughter against her mother, a mother against her daughter and how I wish it were already blazing!

a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law

three against two and two against three;

What did Jesus say in today's Gospel reading?
Match the parts to find out!

Fire in Our Hearts

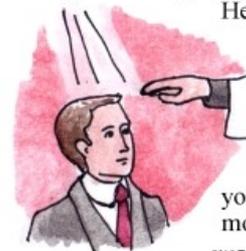

In today's Gospel reading Jesus says that He has come to set the earth on fire. Of course He didn't mean that He wanted everything to burn up. He meant that He wanted the flame of the Holy Spirit to burn in the hearts of people all over the world.

What do you think happens when the Holy Spirit is in someone's soul? The Holy Spirit pulls us closer to Himself and God the Father and Jesus. When we are closer to God that means we love Him more, and the more we love God the more we will love other people too. We were made to love God and be happy with Him, so we want the Holy Spirit to live in us and bring us close to Him!

How does the Holy Spirit come into our souls? When we are baptized the Holy Spirit comes into us for the first time. He will stay with us unless we sin and close our hearts to Him. But when we go to Confession He comes back, and in Holy Communion and the other Sacraments

He becomes even stronger in us. He comes in a special way in the Sacrament of Confirmation, when He gives us grace and strength to live as grown-up Christians and soldiers for God. Pray to the Holy Spirit to live in your heart and make you love God more every day!
