The Virtue of Humility

WHAT IS HUMILITY? Humility, I believe, is one of the most difficult and misunderstood virtues. It is often understood as simply the polar opposite to the sin of pride. In this context humility is the desire to lower oneself before others; thus the person who seeks to live out this virtue often seeks to suppress all forms of gifts and talents God has bestowed on him/her. One ignores his/her uniqueness as a consequence of being made in the image and likeness of God in favour of 'being humble.' This is further reinforced with the secular understanding of humility. Most dictionaries define humility as 'the quality of having a modest or low view of one's importance.' Upon reflection neither really capture the virtue of humility Christ seeks to bestow upon his audience in our Gospel for this Sunday. So, again we ask the question, 'What is humility?'

The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines humility as 'The virtue by which a Christian acknowledges that God is the author of all good. Humility avoids inordinate ambition or pride, and provides the foundation of turning to God in prayer. Voluntary humility can be described as "poverty of spirit.'" This contrasts with the above definition which seeks to limit the human person. Humility is not the suppression of one's gifts and talents, but the acceptance of use of such gifts for the glory of God. It has nothing to do with being shy, timid or mediocre. It cause one to be fully aware of the talents Our Lord has given one and, without losing the right intention, seeks to make them fruitful in one's life. Simultaneously, humility does not seek to inflate one's ego through vain ambition. Such is the case in our Gospel where Jesus notices the vanity of the Pharisees who desire to sit at positions of honour. (If only they had known that the Author of Life humbly sat in their presence; the shock and embarrassment on their faces as they took the places of honour would be have been a sight to see!) Yes, they are learned men well-versed in the Law and respected by many, however their desire to take the places of honour is not founded in an acceptance of their gifts and talents used for the will of God, but vain ambition and to be seen as powerful or influential amongst their peers. Humility does not co-exist with vain ambition. As such, Jesus instructs them to take the lowest spot in order to avoid possible embarrassment or, in some cases, to be exalted. This is made evident in the person of Christ who strips himself of his divinity in order to raise humanity. In Christ, we see humility made manifest.

Dear friends, how then do we understand the virtue of humility? Humility is the virtue with which one accepts his/her gifts and talents and seeks to use them for the glory of God through one's interaction with others. It does not seek self-exaltation, but seeks to serve the other as Christ did throughout his life. May we be inspired by the God's grace to live this virtue throughout our lives.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead,

Fr Chris

At 12:15pm, after the Solemn Mass - Parish Hall

This is a time to celebrate 2022 and look towards 2023.

With Covid still very much a factor in all aspects of businesses including church business, the AGM is an opportunity for us to reflect as a parish on how we can live and promote the mission of the Church post Covid.

Various team leaders will be writing reports about their ministries which will be included in the AGM booklet report. It's only right that we celebrate their work in what has been a challenging year in ministry. At the same time, the journey continues, and the parish needs your wisdom in discerning the way forward.

Every parishioner is encouraged to attend. Bring your kids. The meeting is expected to last an hour. Lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP to the Cathedral Office for catering purposes.

Over the next few weeks the cathedral clergy will be going on annual leave for short periods, “tag-team” style! Saint of the Week

30th August - St Margaret Clitherow (1556-1586)

Margaret was born in York, England, and lived there all her life. At the age of fifteen she married a butcher, John Clitherow, and three years later became a Catholic. Imprisoned for her non-attendance at the Protestant church, she taught herself to read, and on her release ran a small school for her own and her neighbours' children. Her husband, although he remained a Protestant himself, allowed her to hide priests in the house. In 1586 the secret hiding places were discovered and Margaret was put on trial. As the law then stood, to be found guilty would have meant destitution for her children, so she refused to plead: thus she could not be tried, and instead was crushed to death with a heavy stone, on 25 March 1586.

"Quote of the Week"

"The virtue of solidarity challenges us to support those who are seeking justice in the face of such widespread violence. The teaching of Christ urges us to promote relationships marked by respect and freedom rather than coercion and control."

Archbishop Timothy Costelloe

(b.1954)

President, Australian Catholic Bishops Conference

Foreword to 2022 Social Justice Statement

Pope Francis' Words...

Tweeted 23 August

"Peace is primarily an attitude of the heart. It is born of justice, grows in fraternity, flourishes on gratuitousness. It inspires us to serve the truth."

RESPECT: CONFRONTING VIOLENCE AND ABUSE

Summary of the Social Justice Statement 2022-2023

Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse points out that the roots of domestic and family violence “lie in the abuse of power to control and dominate others” and that “this stands in contrast to the relationships to which God calls us”.

Our relationships should be “marked by equality and reciprocity rather than domination and violence, respect and freedom rather than coercion and control”.

We know that most often those who suffer violence and abuse in homes and families, in workplaces, and in communities, are women and children while the perpetrators are most often men. We support women in calling for respect in relationships; their lives and those of their children are sacred.

Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse focuses in a special way on the problem of spiritual violence and abuse. It discusses how religious teachings – including our own – maybe manipulated by perpetrators to excuse violence or to exert control over others.

Cultural factors in the Church and in society often also play an important role in the violence and abuse suffered in families, households, communities, and workplaces. This behaviour is sinful.

We believe that respect, dignity and justice, transformation and hope are possible.

The Statement affirms the work being done by faith communities and organisations to support those who experience domestic and family violence and abuse, and to address the drivers and enablers of violence. It points to further ways in which we can all respond to spiritual violence.

Australian Catholic Bishops Conference

Finally, it calls for faith communities to support and believe those going through domestic and family violence and abuse, to hold perpetrators to account and work towards individual and social transformation.

Taking the Lowest Place

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus was watching to see where the people sat when they were guests at a dinner. Some people thought they were important so they sat in the more important places. Jesus saw that they were proud, so He taught them about being humble.

When we are proud we think that we are more important than other people, and that we deserve to have better things. We start to look down on everyone else, and pretty soon we start thinking that God isn't so great either!

Being humble means knowing that we really are not all that important, even if we are better at some things than other people or have more money or more important jobs. It means we know that God gave us these things to help others, not so that we could be proud about them. We can only give glory to God when we are humble.

True or False: How to be Humble

What did Jesus say? Some of these are true and some aren't. Can you figure out which is which?

- If you know that you are an important guest then you should sit in the place of honour. True or False?
- If you go to a wedding feast and sit in a place of honour, someone more important might come and you will have to move to a lower place. True or False?
- If you sit in a lower place, then the one who invited you will tell you to sit in a more important place and you will be honoured. True or False?
- Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted. True or False?
- When you have a dinner, you should invite the most important people so that they will invite you back. True or False?
- If you are having a banquet or dinner, you should invite the poor and crippled people who can't invite you back. True or False?

Saint Gregory the Great September 3

GREGORY WAS BORN TO A CATHOLIC FAMILY IN 540 AD. HIS FATHER WAS A WEALTHY ROMAN AND HIS MOTHER BECAME SAINT SILVIA.

I baptize you in the name of the Father...

GREGORY WENT TO A GOOD SCHOOL AND WAS TRAINED IN LAW. HE WAS CHOSEN TO BE PREFECT OF ROME AT AGE 34.

Gregory will rule justly!

BUT A YEAR LATER HE BECAME A MONK AND TURNED ALL HIS LAND INTO MONASTERIES!

I want you to help me take care of the Church.

WHEN THE POPE DIED GREGORY WAS CHOSEN TO BE THE NEW POPE.

Ah! A perfect spot!

AFTER THREE YEARS AS A MONK HE WAS MADE ONE OF THE POPE'S 7 DEACONS.

God has given us a new holy father!

HE USED THE CHURCH'S MONEY TO HELP THE PEOPLE WHO WERE STARVING AND RUINED BY FLOODS AND FAMINE.

POPE GREGORY ORGANIZED THE MUSIC AND PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH. HE ALSO SENT OUT MISSIONARIES AND PROTECTED ROME FROM ITS ENEMIES.

The holy father asked me to bring you this.

SAINT GREGORY SUFFERED FROM DIFFERENT SICKNESSES. HE DIED WHEN HE WAS ABOUT 64. THE CHURCH'S SPECIAL MUSIC, GREGORIAN CHANT, WAS NAMED AFTER HIM BECAUSE OF HIS WORK IN SORTING IT ALL OUT. HE IS ALSO KNOWN FOR SENDING SOME OF THE FIRST MISSIONARIES TO ENGLAND.
