The Crafty Steward

THE PARABLE WE HEAR this weekend has several names, including the Parable of The Crafty Steward, or The Dishonest Manager. All too often people feel that Jesus is somehow praising dishonesty in telling this parable but, of course, nothing could be further from the truth. Jesus, through the master in the story, is praising the steward for his cunning, in orchestrating a means to maintain some dignity once he is dismissed from his position. The steward's dishonesty lies not in what he does in marking down what people owe his master, but rather in whatever action he engaged in to get him dismissed at the beginning of the parable. We are, however, not privy to that information.

Before saying any more, it is important that we understand something of how loans were conducted in the culture of the time. It was not legal for interest to be charged on a loan in Israel, and so when a loan was made to another person, the amount that was written down to be paid back was increased, thus getting around the Law on a technicality. For example, if someone loaned another person $100, an amount such as $120 was written on the note given to the person to be paid back. And so, when the steward appears to reduce the amount that people owe to his master, what he in fact was doing was asking them to pay back exactly what they owed, no more and no less, in accordance with the Law. Of course, this has the effect of endearing him to those who owed money to his master. A side effect of this might also be that the master looks good as it is probable that many of those paying their reduced debts may have thought that this was the initiative of the master himself. We might classify this as a "win-win-win" scenario!

But Jesus isn't relating this parable on the basis of the steward finally acting justly. The steward is clearly a flawed character, based on his dismissal, and we cannot assume that he has had a change of heart. He states quite clearly that the motives for his actions are purely on the basis of self-interest. Jesus is trying to get us to understand that we, as Christians, have been given something of inestimable wealth, stewardship of God's kingdom here on earth, and so we ought to put all that we have in terms of "earthly" things, whether we have much or little, totally at the disposal of this mission which we have had entrusted to us.

What does this mean practically? It means we are called to be decisive, like the steward in the parable, to be generous to those in need, to be prayerful, faithful to our calling, and to understand suffering as an essential element of Christian pilgrimage. Like the steward, we are called to have our focus on the future, a future that is other-worldly and eternal however, unlike the steward's more immediate focus.

When we live in this manner then we can every confidence that, like the crafty steward, we will be welcomed into a new home when our present occupation reaches its end.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead,

Fr Robert

Deacon Matthew will be away for some time in October, as will Fr Joseph. Rest assured that the Mass schedule and other sacraments will not be affected.

Social Justice Group

The parish Peace, Ecology and Justice Group met for the first time recently with the assistance of the Diocesan Peace, Ecology and Justice Co-ordinator Dr Sebastian Salaske-Lentern. A small but enthusiastic group shared their interest in social justice and we tried to see how we might move forward. It is hoped that we will host a symposium later in the year which will have as its focus the refugee experience, giving people the opportunity to meet with and hear first hand experiences of refugees in our diocese. We hope to involve students with an interest in social justice from local Catholic high schools in this symposium, as well as our parishioners. Once we have details, they will be made public. Another event is planned for October/November and details of that will be publicised shortly.

Condolences

We offer condolences to the family of Filomena NUBLA who died recently. Her funeral will be celebrated here on Monday, 19 September, at 10:00am. Let us keep the families of all those who have died recently in our prayers.

23th September - St Pio of Pietrelcina (1887-1968)

Popularly known as Padre Pio, he was born in the small village of Pietrelcina in southern Italy, and joined the Capuchin friars at the age of sixteen. He became a priest seven years later, and spent fifty years at the monastery of San Giovanni Rotondo, where he was very much sought after as a spiritual advisor, confessor, and intercessor. Many miracles were popularly ascribed to him during his lifetime. He died a few days after the fiftieth anniversary of his receiving the stigmata, and over 100,000 people attended his funeral.

SPRING FAIR - THANK YOU!

What a beautiful sunny day we had last Sunday for the Spring Fair!

It was great to see so many people enjoying the good weather and browsing the stalls. It was especially great to see many families with children running around and enjoying the jumping castle. A few parishioners commented on how it was just great to catch up with those they had not seen for a while as as get to know parishioners whom they see weekly but haven't had the chance to meet. This is what events like Spring Fair are all about; an event to build and grow our parish community.

Apart from being a successful community building event, the Spring Fair was also a huge success financially. Our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who donated to the event. Thank you to all those who responded to our call for donations to the Barbecue and Devonshire Tea stalls prior to the fair day. Your donations enabled us to run these stalls cost free.

Many thanks to the many anonymous donors who brought donations on the day to the pop-up stall, cake stall, books stall and plant stall (especially to the young family that grew succulents for the stall).

To the stall coordinators;:Marian (Pop-up), Joanne, Claire and Marylin (Cakes/Preserves), Pauline, Kush and Bee (Devonshire), Pat (Books), Andy, Carmen, Romeo, Lynn (Barbecue/Drinks), Gen, Sheffin (Gelato), Anna (plants), John (MC), Pat and Donna (Raffle), Edward and Jean Luc (setup). Thank you also to the volunteers who assisted the coordinators at the stalls.

Congratulations to the raffle winners:

- 1st Prize - Eddy Liaw
- 2nd prize - Phil Russo
- 3rd Prize - Glen
- 4th Prize - Andy Cutajar
- 5th Prize - Carolyn Murtagh

Here are the final figures for the Spring Fair:

Total (stalls) = $ 5,618.80
Raffle = $ 3,376.80
Donations = $450
Total Income = $9,445.60
Net Income (after deducting expenses) = $ 7,554.60

This is an amazing parish effort given that we only had two weeks to plan for the Fair!

Thank you again for your generosity.

May your generosity be returned to you manifold.

Happy 100th Birthday, Keith Mathews!

Its not often that we get wish a parishioner happy 100th birthday. Long time parishioner, Mr Keith Mathews, celebrated his 100th birthday on Friday 16 September. Keith and his wife, Ann, lived in Oatlands and have a long association with St Patrick's.

In 1979, the Parish Priest, Fr Brian Larkey, asked Keith to train as an Acolyte. Keith agreed and so began a long period of service at St Patrick's.

Apart from service to his parish, Keith served the country in the RAAF and his service included being a wireless operator during WWII.

Thank you good and faithful servant. Our prayers and best wishes on this very special milestone.

DID YOU KNOW...

This campaign was launched by Bishop Vincent Long and commits the Diocese to achieving seven Laudato Si' Goals, which means to care more deeply for God's creation and our sisters and brothers in need. In a video message, Bishop Vincent invited all people in the Diocese, especially all Catholic schools, parishes, families, and organisations to participate. ## Being a Good Steward

Jesus tells the story of a steward who looked after a rich man's wealth. When he was about to lose his job, he quickly made friends by letting the rich man's debtors pay less than what they owed. Then when he couldn't work anymore these friends would look after him.

What Jesus is telling us through this parable is that we should use the money and things we have on earth to make friends with God and the saints so that they will be happy to take us into Heaven when we die and have nothing left.

How can you make friends with God using your money? First of all, God wants us to be good stewards. That means spending money when it is good or necessary, and not foolishly. We can also please God by giving money to the Church and the poor. He wants us to show that we can do well looking after small things like money so that He can trust us with bigger jobs.
