The Prodigal Son

“WHILE HE WAS STILL a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with pity. He ran to the boy, clasped him in his arms and kissed him tenderly.” This scene from the story of the prodigal son moves me deeply every time I hear it. I find one detail particularly striking: the father runs a great distance to meet his son.

This image is powerful because it corrects some common misunderstandings of God and his attitude toward sin and sinners. One common view sees God as a harsh judge, always disappointed in sinners, and ready to condemn and punish. This is a view of God that makes us responsible for our own sins, but perhaps gives us very little hope of redemption. Another view might see God as indifferent to sin: it's no big deal. This is a view of God who is unmoved when we reject him, who is distant and uncaring. But this Sunday's Gospel reveals that both of these views of God is misguided.

The three parables in today's Gospel reveal that God wishes neither to condemn sinners, nor to simply dismiss sin. Rather, the Father's love runs, sprints, and chases after his children when they turn away from him by their sins. Like a shepherd seeking his lost sheep, God will traverse mountains and valleys, hills and plains, in pursuit of the one lost soul. God will search for sinners through every corner of heaven and earth, like the woman sweeping every corner of her house for the lost drachma.

This is something we see play out in salvation history. When Adam and Eve reject God by their first sin, they are expelled from Eden. But God follows humanity out of paradise, continuing to form covenants with them. He rescues Israel from slavery in Egypt, and despite their idolatry, which we hear about in the first reading, he makes his dwelling among them in the tabernacle and later in the temple.

But God's hunt for humanity comes to fulfilment in the incarnation of God the Son. Christ pursues fallen humanity to such a degree that he not only assumes a human nature just like ours, but he follows humanity into the pits of our sin and death. He descends from Heaven to pursue our souls to the ends of the Earth, even to the tomb, and into Hades. When his love and mercy hunt us down with such unstoppable pursuit, is there anywhere we can hide from him? Is there any place he will not go looking for us?

This should give us great comfort. It means that whenever we turn away from God by sin, avoid him in anger, hide from him in shame, flee from him in fear, ignore him by our indifference, resent him in our vanity, or reject him by our pride, he is never far behind. He will not let us be lost so easily. We only need to turn around to see him running after us, intent on forgiving us, and by his graces of his sacraments, tending to our wounds, our dejection and our exhaustion. God makes repentance easy because he has already run most of distance behind us. We only need to let ourselves be found, caught, and embraced.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead,

Deacon Matthew

Clergy Annual Leave

Over the next few weeks the cathedral clergy will be going on annual leave for short periods, “tag-team” style! Fr Chris will be away for the first half of September, Fr Robert the second half and Deacon Matthew will be away for some time in October, as will Fr Joseph. Rest assured that the Mass schedule and other sacraments will not be affected.

Social Justice Group

The parish Peace, Ecology and Justice Group met for the first time recently with the assistance of the Diocesan Peace, Ecology and Justice Co-ordinator Dr Sebastian Salaske-Lentern. A small but enthusiastic group shared their interest in social justice and we tried to see how we might move forward. It is hoped that we will host a symposium later in the year which will have as its focus the refugee experience, giving people the opportunity to meet with and hear first hand experiences of refugees in our diocese. We hope to involve students with an interest in social justice from local Catholic high schools in this symposium, as well as our parishioners. Once we have details, they will be made public. Another event is planned for October and details of that will be publicised shortly.

Condolences

The funeral for Peggy Napier will be celebrated here on Monday, 12 September, at 10:00am. We offer condolences also to the family of Filomena NUBLA who died recently. Her funeral will be celebrated here on Monday, 19 September, at 10:00am. Let us keep the families of these beloved dead in our prayers.

Safeguarding Sunday

This Sunday, 11 September, is Safeguarding Sunday. The Catholic Church in Australia marks Safeguarding Sunday each year on the second Sunday in September, on which we pray for those who have been abused, their families and supporters. We recognise and apologise for the harm done by priests, religious and lay people in Church settings. Rebuilding trust and confidence in the Church requires constant work and vigilance. We recommit to cultural change that will help the Church be a place where people feel safe and supported. You can find out more about the Church’s work in this area at:

Saint of the Week

13th September - St John Chrysostom (349-407)

Born in Antioch, after a thorough education, John took up the ascetic life. He was ordained to the priesthood, and became a fruitful and effective preacher.

He was elected Patriarch of Constantinople in 397, and was energetic in reforming the ways of the clergy and the laity alike. He incurred the displeasure of the Emperor and was twice forced into exile. When the second exile, to Armenia, had lasted three years, it was decided that he should be sent still further away, but he died on the journey, worn out by his hardships.

His sermons and writings did much to explain the Catholic faith and to encourage the living of the Christian life: his eloquence earned him the surname "Chrysostom" (the Greek for "golden mouth").

Pope Francis' Words...

From a Tweet of 06 September

Getting to know... The Jackman Family

Originally from Victoria, via the UK, Canada and Brisbane, I became a parishioner of St Patrick's in September 2005, when I took up the position of Principal at Catherine McAuley, Westmead. Earlier in that year, on the day of my interview for this position, I arrived early, found the Diocesan building, then crossed the road to spend some time in prayer before the interview. Initially I was puzzled at the sealed entrance on Victoria Road and followed the path around the side to discover, much to my amazement, the wonderfully designed Blessed Sacrament chapel and the cathedral itself. I remember thinking that if I was successful, this was the parish I would join, and that was before I had even heard our beautiful organ! It was a great privilege to belong to a parish within the school community and I rejoice to see many current and past Catherine McAuley young women active in the parish.

I attend the Vigil Mass, where I am a Reader and Eucharistic Minister. To proclaim the Word of God and to distribute the sacrament is such a great privilege and a joy and I am delighted that I live in an age when this privilege is open to women. I am also the chair of the Parish Finance Committee, not perhaps an equal joy, but an important service made easier by the dedication and competence of the other members who make up the committee.

My husband, Peter, and I are blessed with three adult daughters and three grandchildren, who are presently continuing in the family tradition of Mercy and Marist education. Two of our daughters and their families live interstate and one lives in the Inner West but we all treasure the cathedral and those special times when we have been able to worship there together as a family. May God continue to bless our priests and all who gather as the people of God at St Patrick's Parramatta.

BAPTISMS

We welcome into our Catholic Christian family, the Body of Christ, these children who have been recently baptised...

Emilija Datenis
Eleanore Gonsalvez
Charli Hochuli
Jaden Stanley

Please pray for these children and their families.

DID YOU KNOW...

...that this Sunday is Safeguarding Sunday?

From the Sisters of St Joseph website:

“Safeguarding Sunday seeks to acknowledge the immense damage caused by the sexual abuse of children, including by priests, religious and lay people within the Catholic context. It makes a commitment to the practices and protocols that create and maintain safe environments for all people, especially children and other people who are at risk. It invites people to pray for those harmed by abuse directly and indirectly.”

The Kids' Bulletin

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 11th, 2022

Luke 15:1-32

Jesus told us that God is like a shepherd that cares for every one of His sheep. There are some sheep lost in this picture. Can you find them?

Then you can colour in the rest of the picture.

God Wants Everyone to Come Back to Him

In today's Gospel we hear three parables. In the first Jesus tells about the shepherd who lost one of his hundred sheep. But even though he had so many, he still cared about the one that was lost and went out to find it. God is like that too: even though He has so many people to look after He still cares about you in particular.

The next parable is similar, with the woman searching all over her house when she loses one of her special coins. She rejoices when she finds it, just like the angels rejoice in Heaven when a sinner turns back to God.

The last parable that Jesus tells is the story of the prodigal son. We are like the son in that story when we run away from God by sinning. But like the father, God is waiting and watching for us to be sorry and come back to Him. All we have to do is tell Him we are sorry for our sins in Confession and He will be so happy to have us back!

Answers: Front page: there are 5 sheep. Fill in the blanks: loses, found, have, tell, sinner. LOVES

www.thekidsbulletin.com

Fill in the Blanks: The Lost Coin

Here is part of today's Gospel reading. See if you can fill in the blanks and use the marked letters to fill in the blanks at the end.

"Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she  _____ one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it?

And when she has  _____ it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I  _____ found the coin which I had lost.'

Just so, I  _____ you, there is joy before the angels of God over one  _____ who repents."

This parable helps to show us how much God _____ each of us.
