FAITH

AT THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS focus on the theme of faith. I want to draw out three points in relation to faith.

Firstly, faith is a gift. The Second Vatican Council, in its constitution Dei Verbum, said: "Before this faith can be exercised, man must have the grace of God to move and assist him; he must have the interior helps of the Holy Spirit, who moves the heart and converts it to God, who opens the eyes of the mind and makes it easy for all to accept and believe the truth." In other words, before we can make acts of faith, we need God to instil faith in our hearts through the Holy Spirit. The apostles in today's Gospel ask Our Lord bluntly: "Increase our faith." This must be our constant prayer too.

Secondly, Our Lord can work so much in us with just a little faith. Our Lord says in today's parable that you can work miracles "were your faith the size of a mustard seed." You may feel like your faith isn't strong enough. Some of us might think that our faith is pitiful indeed, because we do not see any miracles in our lives. So we conclude that our faith must even smaller than a mustard seed, microscopic! But this way of reading the parable misses its meaning. In this parable, Our Lord is trying to encourage and console us, not rebuke us. He is asking us to give him the little faith that we have, and he will work wonders through it just as he multiplied five loaves and two fish to feed five thousand people. So, offer to God what little faith you have confidently, secure in the knowledge that he does not need much.

Thirdly, faith in God is our duty. Christ, in our Gospels, tells us that when we have fulfilled the demands of our Christian life, we should say "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty." For us today, our Christian duty includes having faith. We might be tempted to think that when we have faith in God, he owes us something in return. Or perhaps we fancy that we are doing him a favour. But the truth is that God is owed our faith and trust. God is love and God is truth. It is because of his divine attributes that he deserves our firm belief in his word, revealed in Jesus Christ. He deserves our unwavering trust in his goodness, made manifest fully on the cross. In short, God is owed our complete faith not because we get something out of it, but because of who he is. Our reading from Habbakuk summarises our duty succinctly: "the upright man will live by his faithfulness."

So let us repeat this prayer of the apostles: Lord, increase our faith.

Have a blessed week ahead.

Deacon Matthew

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for October

A Church Open to Everyone

We pray for the Church, ever faithful to and courageous in preaching the Gospel. May the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity, and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

Pope Francis' Words

From a speech in Assisi to young economists (24 September)

"You too will improve the economy if you look at things from the perspective of victims and the discarded. In order to have the eyes of the poor and victims, however, it is necessary to get to know them, to be their friends. And, believe me, if you become friends of the poor, you will share their life, you will have a share in the Kingdom of God, because Jesus said that to these belong the Kingdom of God."

Saint of the Week

3rd October - St Francis Borgia (1510-1572)

Born in Valencia, Spain, Francis was sent to train for life at court where he distinguished himself in the service of Charles V, the Holy Roman Emperor and King of Spain. He married in 1529 and had eight children. He was a distinguished composer and musician. After his wife's death in 1546, he joined the Society of Jesus (Jesuits). In 1565 he was elected the third superior general of the order. He died in Rome in 1572. (Information taken from Universalis)

“Quote of the Week”

“To the extent that they [believers] neglect their own training in the faith, or teach erroneous doctrine, or are deficient in their religious, moral or social life, they must be said to conceal rather than reveal the authentic face of God and religion.”

Gaudium et Spes (n.19)

World

GETTING TO KNOW...

The Cooks

We (Graham and Marilyn Cook) were married in the Cathedral in January 1984 by Father Tom Harsas and our three children Sarah, Brendan and Eloise were all baptised here. They regularly attended Mass and were involved as Readers at 9.30am Mass and in the Youth group.

Graham joined the Parish Finance Committee after the fire and was a member for a few years. He was also a Reader at 9.30am Mass for many years.

We have both been involved in Children's Liturgy for over 25 years as leaders and co-ordinating the group. Through this ministry we have seen many of the young children of the parish grow to be mature and responsible members of the community. When the St Vincent de Paul group hadn't been active for a while, we joined a small team of old hands and have been providing valuable assistance to the needy in our community for the last 6 years. It is a most important and rewarding experience.

We have joined Father Robert's inaugural Social Justice Committee and are hoping that this will achieve positive outcomes in the parish and local community.

Over the years we have also been involved in many Spring Fairs and activities which we have greatly enjoyed and has helped develop friendships as well as assisting to raise Parish funds.

At St Patrick's we have made long lasting friendships for which we are very grateful and we hope to be involved for many years to come.

Did You Know...

...that the mustard seed, mentioned by Jesus in this weekend's Gospel, is also mentioned in the texts of other religious traditions?

According to Wikipedia, mustard seeds are mentioned by in a story connected with Guatama Buddha to illustrate the inevitability of suffering, some five hundred years before Christ. Jewish texts also compare the size of the universe to a mustard seed in order to teach humility. Finally, the Quran talks of Mohammed saying that if a human heart has the weight of even a mustard seed of pride, that person will not enter Paradise.

The Kids' Bulletin

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 2nd, 2022

What did Jesus say in today's Gospel reading when the apostles asked Him to give them more faith?

Sort out the letters by number and put them in the spaces below.

"If you have faith the size of a

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11

you would say to this mulberry tree,
'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,'

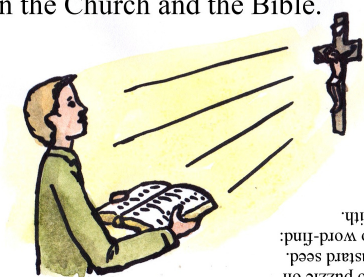

and it would obey you. Luke 17:5-10

faith...

In today's Gospel we learn a little bit about faith. In fact, Jesus says we only need a tiny bit of faith to do amazing things. If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, He said, you can tell a tree to throw itself into the sea and it will!

But what is faith? Faith is believing. We have faith in our parents and teachers. That means that we believe what they tell us and we trust them. We have faith in our friends too. Faith in God is a little bit different, though. It is a gift He gives us so that we can believe in Him.

When we are baptized God gives us the gift of faith. Then it's up to us to use it. We use that gift when we decide to believe in God and what He tells us in the Church and the Bible.

Answer to puzzle on front: mustard seed.
Answer to word-find: faith.

Here is part of today's Gospel reading. See if you can find all the words written in CAPITALS. Use the leftover letters to fill in the blanks at the end.

The APOSTLES SAID to the Lord, "INCREASE OUR faith." The Lord REPLIED, "If you HAVE FAITH the SIZE of a MUSTARD SEED, YOU would SAY to THIS MULBERRY TREE, 'Be UPROOTED and PLANTED in the SEA and it would OBEY you."
