"Were not all ten made clean?"

WHEN IT COMES to the relationship between Jesus and the Law, we tend to feel that it wasn't a good one, yet we need to remember that Jesus was a Jew brought up to respect and obey the Law. Jesus had no problems with the Law per se but took issue with the manner in which those who applied it or promoted it undertook their task, most especially the Pharisees and scribes.

We have a good example of Jesus showing respect for the Law before us in the Gospel this weekend with Jesus telling the ten lepers, just about to experience a miraculous healing, to go and show themselves to the priests, a legal requirement before a person healed of such a virulent disease was able to be readmitted to family, social and work life. All ten lepers in the Gospel go on their way to obey the Law and benefit from being declared clean by the priests.

Yet one turns back before he gets to the priest - a Samaritan. The decision by this "foreigner" (as Jesus calls him) demonstrates to us the limitations of the Law and how Jesus, in and of himself, surpasses the Law. In acknowledging that Jesus had no issues with the Law, we might well ask why Jesus came into the world. After all, if the Law was "good enough", then what need of a Saviour? Our answer lies in the action of this "foreigner". He could well have followed the other nine lepers who we assume returned happily to their families and work. In turning back to Jesus and thanking him, the Samaritan leper shows that no requirements of the Law, no matter how esteemed they might be, were superior to Jesus, the one who was able to heal ten people of a terrible disease with merely a few words. Here, the Samaritan thought, was the Anointed One, and so the Law took second place to giving praise and adulation to Jesus.

In our own lives as Catholic Christians, it is all too easy to reverse the priorities of the Samaritan leper and place the importance of laws, traditions and routines over giving thanks and praise to Jesus. Generally, these laws and so on are good, just as the Law was regarded as good by Jesus, but we must not let that which is not God obscure our love for God. To follow the theme of last weekend's Gospel, we are called to simply love God unconditionally, as God does us, without any expectation of any return. We ought not to love God simply in order to give ourselves the best shot at getting into Heaven, but rather as a response to what God has done for us in Jesus. A religious practice which "does things" to get something in return for God is transactional in nature and not true faith at all.

Jesus' final words to the Samaritan leper are "Your faith has saved you." The leper who returned to Jesus wanted nothing in return since he had already received the healing he had asked for. His show of faith was not in that original pleading with the other nine ("Jesus! Master! Take pity on us") but in his return to Jesus to give thanks.

Let his example be our inspiration.

*Wishing you a blessed week ahead,
Fr Robert.*

Focusing the Word

Key words and phrases

- Ten lepers came to meet Jesus.
- Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.
- Your faith has saved you.
- If we have died with him, then we shall live with him.
- The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

to the point

Both the first reading and gospel present a foreign leper who asks for healing, obeys what is commanded, experiences healing, and worships God. The distinctive element is found in the gospel where an encounter with Jesus leads to the declaration, 'your faith has saved you'. Salvation is not freedom from disease but relationship with Christ.

Connecting the Word

• to Eucharist

Catholic worship is defined by Eucharist which means 'to give thanks'. The fundamental stance of the believer before God is one of gratitude.

• to Culture

Expressing gratitude is more than a simple social grace; it deepens the relationship between giver and receiver. For the Christian, giving thanks to God reinforces our most important relationship.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

A reading from the second book of Kings (5:14-17)

Naaman returned to Elisha, the prophet, and acknowledged the Lord.

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child.

Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No," allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:6-10

Second Reading

A reading from the Second Letter of St Paul to Timothy (2:8-13)

If we hold firm, we shall reign with Christ.

Remember the Good News that I carry, 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal - but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it.

Here is a saying that you can rely on:

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him.

If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him.

If we disown him, then he will disown us.

We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Belmont Mass.

C. Walker

The cantor, alone, intones the Alleluia. All repeat

Cantor: For all things give thanks to God, because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus.

(All repeat the Alleluia)

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke (17:11-19)

It seems that no one has returned to give thanks to God except this foreigner.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GETTING TO KNOW...

World Youth Day 2023 Pilgrims Caitlin Bernardo

My face may be familiar to you. I serve at the 11:00am Solemn Mass with my brother and sister. Over the past 18 months I have also sung regularly with the Cathedral Choir. My name is Caitlin Bernardo. I am privileged to be nominated to represent our parish as a youth pilgrim for World Youth Day 2023 in Lisbon, Portugal.

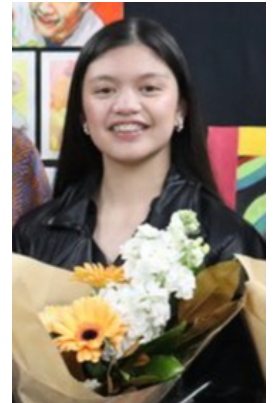

A little bit about me. I am the eldest of three children. My brother Jacob, sister Ava and I, have grown up attending Mass at St Patrick's with our parents, Aileen and Dennis. We have felt part of this community and made many friends. We enjoy serving at Mass and attending Youth Credo.

My faith is central to who I am and it's central to my family. I have had the opportunity to be supported in forming my faith from my parents and family, my school at Tangara School for Girls where I am finishing Year 12 and here at St Patrick's, our parish.

I am grateful for the gift of faith and I know it takes a conscious effort to walk with Christ each day. As a youth pilgrim I hope to deepen my faith and learn from those with whom I will share the journey. My prayer is to take the experience of World Youth Day and bring this back to the youth of our parish to encourage them to re-engage with our Lord.

Over the coming months Stacie, Kayleigh and I will be asking for your prayers and practical support. With the help of the team at the Parish Office, Fr Robert, Fr Chris, Deacon Matthew and our parents, we will be holding fundraising events to help us get to World Youth Day 2023.

We look forward to sharing this great opportunity and journey with you!

Did You Know...

...that leprosy, such as we see in this weekend's Gospel, is now a treatable disease?

According to Wikipedia, multidrug treatment is highly effective in treating leprosy and, though the disease is still prevalent in some parts of the world, incidence is quite low. Leprosy is also not highly infectious as many people think. The most recently reported cases of leprosy have been in India and Brazil, with quite a few African nations also reporting cases in recent years.

How many lepers walked away without saying 'Thank you' when Jesus healed them?

Luke 17:11-19

Count how many of the people who are walking away are wearing dark grey clothes.

Pope Saint Callistus I

October 14

CALLISTUS WAS A SLAVE OF A CHRISTIAN MAN IN THE EARLY CHURCH. A NUMBER OF PEOPLE GOT HIM TO LOOK AFTER THEIR MONEY SO HE STARTED A BANK.

Can you look after this for me?
Sure.

HOWEVER, HE LOST THE MONEY WHEN HE LENT IT OUT TO SOME MONEY-LENDERS.

I need some of the money back now.
No! You gave it to us. We're keeping it!

CALLISTUS RAN AWAY BUT HE WAS CAUGHT.

Oh no! They've found me!

Ah! I can't go any faster!
FOR PUNISHMENT HE WAS FORCED TO WORK AT A MILL.

WHEN HE TRIED TO GET THE MONEY BACK HE WAS SENT TO WORK IN A MINE.

You can't keep other people's money!

BUT THE POPE RESCUED HIM, MADE HIM A DEACON AND PUT HIM IN CHARGE OF A CEMETERY.

Come with me! The Holy Father has a job for you!

I agree. Callistus is a good choice.

WHEN THE POPE DIED, CALLISTUS WAS CHOSEN AS THE NEW ONE. HE WAS KILLED AS A MARTYR IN 223 AD, PROBABLY IN A RIOT SINCE THERE WAS NO PERSECUTION AT THE TIME.

SAINT CALLISTUS SAID THAT BAD SINNERS WHO HAD GONE TO CONFESSION AND DONE PENANCE COULD RETURN TO FULL COMMUNION WITH THE CHURCH. SOME PEOPLE DISAGREED WITH HIM, BUT THE CHURCH STILL TEACHES WHAT HE SAID.

thankfulness

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus cured ten lepers. Leprosy is a horrible disease that eats away at a person's body until they die. It was pretty amazing for those people when Jesus just told them to go and show themselves to the priests and they realized that they were cured!

But then something interesting happened. Only one of the ten who had been cured came back to say 'Thank you' to Jesus. Do you think that the other nine were not happy that they were better? Why do you think they didn't come back to thank Jesus?

THANK YOU FOR LETTING ME RECEIVE YOU!

Now think about your life. You've probably never had a disease like leprosy, but God has still done amazing things for you. He made you and gave you everything you need to live. He gave you your friends and family, and most especially He gives Himself to us in the Mass and at Holy Communion. Do you remember to say 'Thank you' to God?
