Rejoice! Rejoice! Rejoice!

REJOICE IN THE LORD ALWAYS; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near.' (Phil 4:4-5)

What does it mean to rejoice? The term "rejoice", according to the dictionary, is a verb describing great joy or delight of a person towards someone or something. In the scriptures this is expressed in the joy of King David as the Ark of the Covenant is welcomed into Jerusalem, and Mary's song of praise, the Magnificat. For the Third Sunday of Advent, the Church celebrates Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is the Latin word for joy which comes from the opening word of our Entrance Antiphon for today's Mass. We are called to let up on our spiritual preparation for the Nativity of the Lord in order to rejoice at his imminent arrival. As wonderful as this is, our Gospel, at a cursory glance, evokes an alternative thought; Jesus and his coming is not the primary focus but John the Baptist. However, when one considers the message of John the Baptist it becomes clear that this Sunday is one of rejoicing.

What kind of Messiah were the Jewish people expecting? Scholars argue that the Jews expected a military figure similar to Alexander the Great. The Jews expected the Messiah to lead a resistance against the Roman Empire and so reign supreme in the ancient world. Jesus, however, was not sent to do battle with the forces in this world, but to save humanity from sin. Jesus, speaking to the disciples of John, states this as he says 'Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them. And blessed is the one who takes no offence at me.' Whilst Jesus speaks of various healings from physical affliction, he actually speaks of the spiritual restoration of the human person; God will make all things new. No more sorrow. No more suffering. No more sin. This reality, the coming of Jesus and his saving work, is the message John the Baptist seeks to preach in order to stir the hearts of the people towards renewal in Christ.

Dear friends, imagine a world without sorrow, suffering or death. Imagine a world where peace and joy are eternal. This world is that which John the Baptist preaches with the coming of the Messiah. The Christ of God is the one who takes away the sins of the world. His coming brings about perfection beyond comprehension. As such, his words are just as relevant today as they were then. As we celebrate Gaudete Sunday, may we rejoice at the imminent coming of the Lord. May we recognise like John the Baptist the saving power of the Lord and rejoice at his coming.

Wishing you a blessed Advent season,

Fr Chris

Material for Bulletin

If you have something that you would like published in the bulletin, please ensure that it is conveyed to our Parish Secretary, Pat, by 12:00noon on Thursday. Please note that material must relate to the parish and its mission. Don't forget that businesses can advertise on the rear page of the bulletin too!

Christmas - A Time To Give

This week, on 06 December, the Church celebrated the memorial of St Nicholas, famously known as the inspiration for Santa Claus, the man in the red suit that secretly brings Christmas presents to children worldwide. Santa, the modern-day bringer of gifts, also reminds us that Christmas is as much about giving as it is about receiving. It is wonderful that in the present Advent season, we are preparing for Christmas by ticking off our list for Santa so that those we love will unwrap our gifts of love at Christmas. However, there are people in our community who, through no fault of their own, cannot tick off their Christmas list this season. Are you prepared to transition to be a Santa Claus to one of these? Can you be Santa or Santa's helper to these brothers and sisters of ours? Can you spread love? Help the Christmas initiative below, the JRS Christmas Food Drive, that we may bring love to others in our community....

JRS Christmas Food Drive

This year, we are again holding a food drive for the Jesuit Refugee Service (JRS) during the first three weeks of Advent (until 15 December). You can help refugees and people seeking asylum celebrate Christmas by donating non-perishable food items, toiletries and Coles or Woolworths gift cards. A list of items is available at the back of the cathedral and in the narthex.

Please drop off your donation under the Christmas tree which is located in the Chapel. Gift cards to the office, please!

Bishop's Christmas Appeal

No one should be homeless or without support. Your Christmas gift today will enable Catholic Care to give homeless people practical and emotional support, and a safe place to call home. Please stretch out your hand to the poor and give generously via the Bishop's Christmas Appeal envelopes, at yourcatholicfoundation.org.au/appeal or scan the QR code below. Thank you for stretching out your hand in compassion for our homeless community.

Scan the QR code to donate by credit card to the Bishop's Christmas Appeal.

For too many disadvantaged people, 'home' is a damp, mouldy garage. A mattress on the floor. Or a piece of cardboard on the street.
Please help Catholic Care provide safe, secure shelter, and end homelessness in our community.

World Youth Day Raffle

Thank you to everyone who supported our wonderful young people by purchasing raffle tickets. We understand how you are called to support many organisations and this is why we are especially grateful. If you are attending the 6:00pm Vigil this weekend, you have one last opportunity to buy your ticket. It could be 'the one'!

The draw will take place on Saturday evening (10 December) at the Carols Festival and the winners will be published next week.

St Patrick's Giftshop EXTENDED TRADING HOURS

Great opportunity now exists to get in your Christmas shopping at the giftshop before Christmas. Hours are extended on the following days:

Saturday 10 December: 10:00am - 8:00pm

Monday 12 December: 10:00am - 8:00pm

Monday 19 December: 10:00am - 3:00pm

The extended hours above are in addition to the normal operating hours. Last day of trading is Friday 23 December and we will reopen on 16 January.

Cloister Cafe

If you joined us last Sunday, you would have been treated to a very special morning tea - mainly compliments of the Loto'aniu family. Thank you!

Morning tea is on again today, 11 December, as usual so please come and say hello. But, on 18 December, next week, we will be supplying morning tea to the 9:30am parishioners only as there is a special celebration happening after the 11:00am Mass (see below). We do hope you can join us for Fr Chris' birthday!

Birthday Celebrations

Fr Chris is shortly turning 30 (an old man!) Come and join us for lunch in the Cloister Hall following the 11:00am Mass on Sunday 18 December. Please bring a plate to share!

Diaconate Ordinations

Congratulations to the five married men ordained as permanent deacons here in St Patrick's Cathedral on Saturday morning. They are Charles Abela, David Dowling, Jerome D'Rozario, Batsirai Maringehosi, and Alan Skofic. Let us pray for them as they enrich the Church's mission in our diocese with their unique gifts and talents.

Priestly Ordinations

We've had plenty of good news lately about diaconate ordinations and now for some wonderful news about priestly ordinations. We can confirm that Bishop Vincent will ordain three men to the priesthood here at St Patrick's on Thursday, 02 February at 7.30pm, including our own Deacon Matthew Dimian. Mark your diary and please pray for them!

Christmas Light Spectacular

After a bit of a hiatus, thanks to Covid, Andy & Carmen (two of our very generous parishioners) are lighting up their house again. If you like to travel around looking at highly decorated homes, this will not disappoint. Please pay them a visit. Proceeds go to support children's cancer research.

Address: 45 Grassmere Ave, Northmead.

Date: 01-26 December

Skoolbag App

Please note that circumstances beyond our control mean that the parish is no longer using the Skoolbag app to communicate news and bulletins etc. The parish bulletin is available digitally via the Cathedral website and Twitter account, usually late each Friday afternoon. Should you wish to receive the bulletin via email, please contact the parish office with your email address and you will be added to the mailing list. We are currently exploring options for another app for administrative purposes which we hope to have up and running early next year.

Parking on weekends

Thank you to all those who are being considerate and using the parking facilities here correctly for weekend Masses. A gentle reminder to NOT park in the turning circle as it is used not only by those who need to quickly turn and exit the car park but also by emergency vehicles. Please make use of the overflow car park, parking within the marked spaces or on the grassed area on the left as you enter the overflow parking area. Thank you!

Thank you...

...to all those who took on board the recent notice about maintaining a spirit of silence and reverence before and after Mass in the cathedral and the chapel. Our places of worship ought to be oases of stillness and contemplation in a world of noise and bustle. Thank you again!

Saint of the Week

16 December - Blessed Mary of the Angels

Born in Turin, Italy, in 1661, Mary died, after spending her whole life there, in 1717. In 1675 she entered the Discalced Carmelite Convent of St Christina, and several times filled the offices of Prioress and Novice Mistress. She underwent continual spiritual trials, but was constant in her ardent love of God. She was outstandingly faithful to prayer and particularly devoted to St Joseph, in whose honour a convent was founded through her good offices at Moncalieri.

Getting to know... the AGUILERA family

Hi, we're the Aguilera family! Oscar, Kirrily, Ben (14), Tom (13), Zac (11) and Zoe (7). Oscar grew up in Mexico and moved to Australia when he was 12 and Kirrily has been in the parish her whole life. Pictured in the photo are Kirrily's parents - Joan and John McDermott, who many long-time parishioners will recognise. For the past six years, we have all lived together in a multi-generational home in North Parramatta, although last year Dad moved to Courtlands Nursing home as his Parkinsons has worsened.

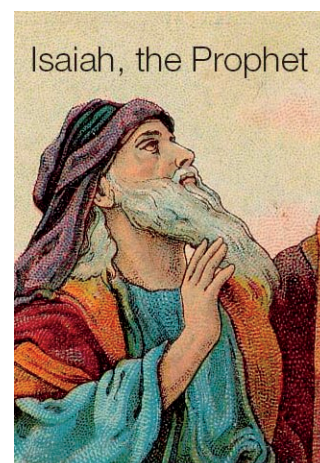

You will find our family at 9:30am Mass each Sunday. We coordinate the Children's Liturgy, take Communion to a number of housebound and sick parishioners (including Kirrily's parents), and the boys are on the servers' roster. On Fridays, our children also attend the Credo Youth Group run by Fr Chris. This is always a great night for the kids... and the adults!! We usually all stay around for a chat and have met so many lovely young families this way. We feel very blessed to be part of our beautiful and welcoming St Pat's Cathedral community. Oscar and Kirrily even have the privilege of saying they met at Church... literally! Back in 2005, Oscar and Kirrily attended a Diocesan Youth event here at the Cathedral and the rest, as they say, is history! Thank you to the many priests, parish staff and parishioners for the spiritual nourishment, friendship and support you have provided our family for many years. We are so grateful. God bless!

Did You Know...

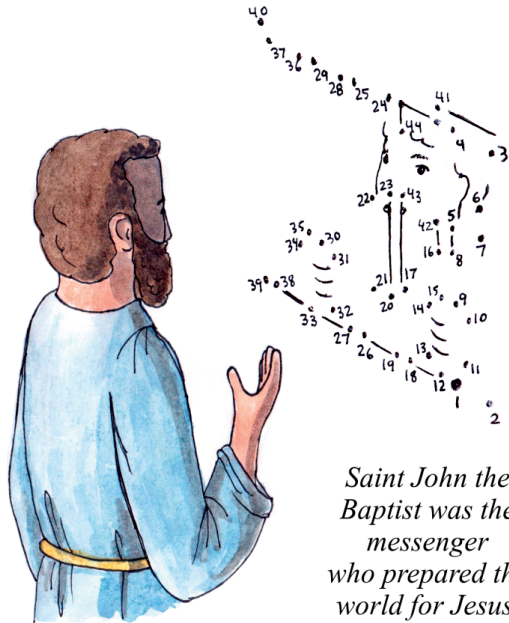

...that the Book of Isaiah, that we hear from throughout most of Advent, was written over several centuries by various authors?

Most scholars agree that chapters 1-39 were written by the Prophet Isaiah in the eighth century BCE. It is likely that chapters 40-55 were written by an anonymous author during the Exile (sixth century BCE), and chapters 56-66 written sometime after the return from Exile. Christians hold the book of Isaiah in high regard and sometimes refer to it as the "Fifth Gospel".

Third Sunday of Advent
December 11th, 2022

Saint John the Baptist was the messenger who prepared the world for Jesus' coming.

Where was he in today's Gospel reading?

Then you can finish colouring in the picture.

What Happens When Jesus Comes?

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells the disciples to tell John the Baptist what He does.
What happens to whom?
Match up the people with what happens to them.

Advent is Half Over!

Today is the third Sunday of Advent. That means that half the wait is over! If you have an advent wreath, this is the week to light the pink candle. Pink is a symbol the joy we have because we're half-way to Christmas.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the people that John the Baptist was a prophet and messenger. A prophet is someone who tells the truth. In the Old Testament the prophets told God's people the truth about God. Saint John was a prophet because he told the people that the Messiah, or saviour, was coming soon, and that they needed to repent of their sins.

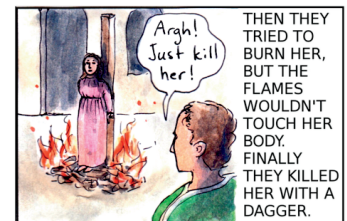

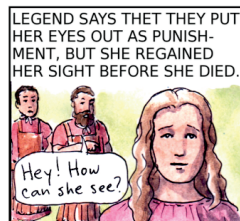

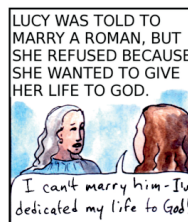

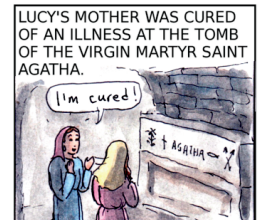

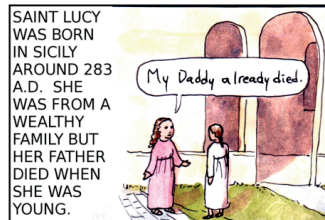

Saint John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus by calling people to repentance. You can help prepare for Christmas by thinking and talking about how Jesus came to earth on the first Christmas. Can you tell somebody the story of the first Christmas today?

Answer to front page: St. John was in prison. Answer to match up puzzle: the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.

Saint Lucy December 15

SAINT LUCY IS A GREAT EXAMPLE FOR US BY HER PURITY AND DEDICATION TO GOD. SHE DID NOT LET ANY TORTURE STOP HER FROM DOING WHAT WAS RIGHT. BECAUSE SHE WAS BLINDED SHE IS THE PATRONESS OF SIGHT AND OF BLIND PEOPLE. WE CAN PRAY TO HER IF WE HAVE PROBLEMS WITH OUR EYES.
