"Come to me...and I will give you rest."

OVER THE PAST couple of weekends, we have heard some challenging words from Jesus as he prepares his disciples for mission. Most particularly challenging were the words of Jesus last weekend when he declared that we were to place our love for him before all others, even family members and friends.

We move on this Sunday to the next chapter (11) of Matthew's Gospel but in doing so skip over some verses which we would do well to at least glance at.

Following last Sunday's Gospel Jesus goes on to praise John the Baptist and then condemn the towns of Chorazin and Bethsaida for failing to repent, saying that on the day of judgement it will go worse with them than with the infamous Sodom.

We then come to today's words from Jesus which are more comforting than confronting. These words conclude chapter 11 and are well known for the phrase "my yoke is easy and my burden light."

Before we get to looking at the meaning of these words, let's look at those which begin this weekend's Gospel: "I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth...". Jesus then goes on to rejoice in the intimacy between him and the Father in a way which is not found anywhere else in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark or Luke. Only John (Chapters 5 and 17) rivals it. He speaks of the manner with which God turns conventional wisdom on its head by "...hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children," and of the oneness of the Son and the Father, ("...no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son...").

Following on from this beautiful image of harmony, we then come to the famous "yoke is easy, burden light" phrase which brings so many such comfort and peace. We ought not to overlook the fact that Jesus is not saying that we have nothing to worry about but that he will ease the burden, helping us in challenging times. It is wrong to think that being a person of faith means that all worry, concerns and difficulties are a thing of the past; no such promise is made by Jesus. Instead, Jesus tells us that he will accompany us in our struggles.

And he does this with the image of a yoke. Like much in the scriptures, some of the imagery and metaphors are lost on us two thousand years later. A yoke is a heavy piece of wood which is placed on the shoulders of an ox to assist it to pull a heavy load. A yoke can also be placed across the shoulders of two oxen so that together they can pull a load such as a plough. This second image is more fitting to our understanding of Jesus, the one who makes our burden light because he shares the yoke with us, thus helping ease the burden. In doing so, our afflictions, be they physical, mental or spiritual, feel lighter and we are filled with a sense of peace because of the confidence we have that our God is walking with us when we feel most vulnerable and distressed.

Let us give thanks for the God who walks with us, a God of peace and a God who wants to ease our burdens.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead,

Fr Robert

SEA SUNDAY AND SYNODALITY

"We are a synodal Church, in which we walk together. We should go forward together, navigating together, without leaving anyone behind, and enriching one another. No one should think that they have nothing to offer." (Cardinal Michael Czerny)

Today is Sea Sunday, a day meant to honour over one million seafarers who enable our everyday life and economy. Their faith, hopes, and struggles, including long periods of separation from their families and limited access to spiritual services, are spotlighted. In his message for Sea Sunday (Vatican news 03 July), Cardinal Michael Czerny, the Prefect of the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development, emphasised that the recognition of Sea Sunday extends beyond seafarers to all Christian communities who benefit from their work.

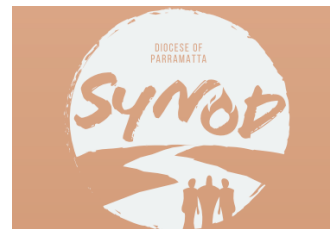

Cardinal Czerny affirms that the Church seeks to understand seafarers' unique perspectives on work, economy, interreligious and intercultural relations, environmental conditions, and faith. He highlights that the Church is a synodal entity, walking together and learning from each other. No one should believe they have nothing to offer.

This year, the Church has committed to foster greater engagement and understanding between seafarers and other members of the Church. The aim is to bring the experiences of seafarers closer to the everyday faith experiences of all.

As we walk on this synodal path, may Mary, the Star of the Sea be our guide. May she be a "font of consolation and perseverance" for all seafarers and their families.

Parish Synod Gatherings

As you are aware, the Eastern Deanery recently had its Synod Listening Session, hosted by us here at the Cathedral. It was great to see the Cathedral parish well represented at this gathering of people from around the Deanery.

Being a Deanery-wide gathering, there was not an opportunity for individual parishes to give their voice to this important process.

To enable us to formulate a submission we have two dates set aside to meet. Both meetings will take place in the Cloister Function Room (hall) at St Pat's.

Saturday 22 July at 3:00pm
Monday 24 July at 7:00pm

I am hoping that we get a good response with a diverse range of voices! Fr Robert.

PARISH & DIOCESAN NOTICES

Friends of St Pat's Cemetery

We have a small core group of parishioners who have been involved with St Pat's Cemetery.

A meeting has been organised to talk about inroads that have been made and future plans. This will be held on:

Wednesday 12 July, 7:00pm in the Parish Hall

If this is something you would like to have input on or offer support, you are most welcome to attend.

WYD - Farewell Mass & Barbecue

On Sunday 16 July the parish will be holding a farewell barbecue for the WYD pilgrims after the 11:00am Mass. A barbecue will also be in operation for the 9:30am Mass-goers.

Come and give the pilgrims your support and good wishes as they embark on a journey that hopefully brings them closer to their spirituality.

Are you a new parishioner?

At the Cathedral parish we often get new parishioners coming to Mass, be they people who have just moved into the area or people coming in from surrounding parishes. You are very welcome!

One issue that many parishioners new to the parish have is that they can feel a little lost in a parish this size. Of course, as an inclusive parish, we want to make everyone welcome and so we urge all new parishioners to make contact with the parish office to register and receive a welcome pack which we hope will ease that transition into the Cathedral parish.

We urge you to make yourself known to us and look forward to welcoming you in person. Don't forget that if you come to either the 9:30am or 11:00am Mass on Sundays you can always come and say hello at the morning tea that is on offer after both of these Masses.

We look forward to meeting and welcoming you in person!

St Pat's Matters - Extra Good News!

The long awaited edition, Issue 116 is out now.

Please take one issue per family.

A quick note to say 'thank you' to the many wonderful parishioners and friends who shared their stories.

Submissions for the next edition of St Pat's Matters are already being collated. If you have an idea for a story or if something really touches your heart and soul and you would like to share, send to balmap5@bigpond.com or to Marian Polizzi c/- parish office.

Saint of the Week

14 July - St Kateri Tekakwitha (1656-1680), Martyr

Known as the "Lily of the Mohawks" and the "Geneviève of New France," she was born in the Mohawk fortress of Ossemenon in what is now New York State, the daughter of a Mohawk warrior and a Catholic Algonquin woman whom he had saved from captivity at the hands of the Iroquois. When she was about four, smallpox killed her parents and her brother and left her scarred and with impaired eyesight. She was adopted by her uncle, the chief of the Turtle clan, and had many offers of marriage. She received some knowledge of Christianity from Jesuit missionaries when she was 11, and she determined to live the life not only of a Christian but of a Christian virgin: a heroic determination at the time. She was baptised when she was 20 and eventually, to escape persecution and death threats, she fled to an established Christian community at Kahnawake in what is now Québec. She advanced in union with God, with bodily mortification and intense prayer, and died at the age of 24. She was beatified by Pope John Paul II on 22 June 1980 and canonised by Pope Benedict XVI on 21 October 2012.

The Kids' Bulletin

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 9th, 2023

"Come to Me, all you who labour and are burdened..."

What does Jesus say will happen if you go to Him when you're tired and worn out? First find your way through the maze and then use the words from that path to fill in the blanks.

"I Will Give You Rest"

Today Jesus tells us, "Come to Me, all you who labour and are burdened and I will give you rest." God understands that we get tired and worn out. He wants us to come to Him when we need to rest. He refreshes our souls and gives us the energy and strength to carry on.

JESUS, I'M SO TIRED! PLEASE HELP ME!

Do you ever feel like quitting when a job gets hard? Maybe you get tired of school or helping your Mom or Dad. When you feel like giving up it's time to start praying! Your work might seem easier when you pray, but even if it still seems hard you will be happier knowing that you are doing it for God.

Jesus tells us to take His yoke on our shoulders. A yoke is a sort of bar that is used to help carry heavy things. Jesus is saying that we should do His work. For some people that means preaching like He did, or healing the sick, or being a priest, but for most people it means just doing everything we have to do out of love for God.

WOW! THIS ALL SEEMS EASIER NOW!

Answer to maze on front: You will find rest. Answer to maze on front: He is compassionate.

Use the letters that are left over to fill in the blanks:

What is one of the things this Psalm tells us about God?

I will EXTOL you, O my GOD and King, and I will bless your NAME forever and ever. Every day will I bless YOU, and I will PRAISE your name FOREVER and ever.

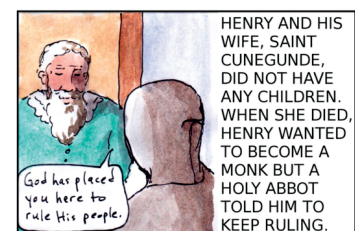

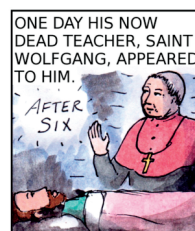

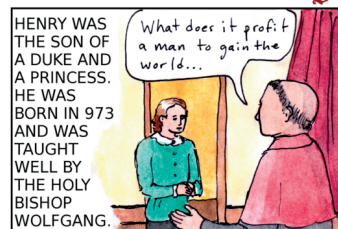

The Lord is GRACIOUS and MERCIFUL, SLOW to ANGER and of great KINDNESS. The Lord is GOOD to all and compassionate toward all his works.

Let all your works give you THANKS, O Lord, and let your faithful ones BLESS you. Let them discourse of the GLORY of your KINGDOM and SPEAK of your MIGHT.

The Lord is FAITHFUL in all his WORDS and holy in all his WORKS. The LORD lifts up all who are FALLING and RAISES up the bowed down.
