It's all about power...

FOR ME, this week's Gospel is all about power - who has it, and how they use it.

The Gospel says that Jesus taught "with authority."

Sometimes when we say someone speaks with authority, we think that means they speak with confidence, but authority is not confidence, it implies power. It implies that there is something backing up these words.

Jesus is the Word of God incarnate. When he speaks, his words contain that power. God tells us in the first reading that when Jesus speaks, He is speaking God's words, and you cannot have any greater authority than that...

Jesus' words were powerful - they made a deep impression on the people that were listening.

Jesus also had the power to do miracles, but Jesus does not do miracles for the sake of just being a "miracle worker", their purpose is to show that he is who he says he is, so that people will pay attention to what he teaches, and his teachings are about leading people to freedom.

The evil spirit also has power, but he uses his power to dominate, to possess, to imprison.

The encounter between these two powers in today's gospel is remarkable, and there are a few aspects we should pay particular attention to:

As kids, (and if we're truthful, often as adults...) we love those big epic battles between good and evil, like Star Wars or Guardians of the Galaxy, but today's gospel is not a straightforward battle between good and evil. Firstly, the demon was not attacking Jesus. It was tormenting the poor unfortunate man that it had possessed. Jesus stepped in on that man's behalf.

Secondly, there is no real battle - Jesus speaks and the demon flees. That's how powerful His words are.

We need to understand that this same power resides in scripture - it is not just a set of words, not even a set of wise words - there is something deeper, stronger about them. They are supernatural, they have real power.

A number of years ago I visited a young girl that was in hospital suffering from anorexia. When I went in, she had words from magazines - encouraging phrases, pinned to her notice board. They were encouraging but they were no real use, they held no power. We started a journey that involved prayer and scripture, and that had real power and it changed her life, probably saved her life... Of course, it worked in tandem with her medical and psychological treatment. The physical and the spiritual are always intertwined. This condition had held her imprisoned, and God's word was a big part of what set her free.

So where does this leave all of us?

Firstly, most of us have power in some capacity or other - in our jobs, our relationships, even in our finances. Let us become very conscious of exercising our power for good.

Secondly, we should harness the power of scripture in our lives. We should make a habit of reading it, reflecting on it, using it - it will change your life.

Lastly, all of us have our demons - things that create a hold over us, and often we are not strong enough to beat them by ourselves. Always remember that Jesus is ready to step into the fight for us. If we call on Him, He will step in and there is nothing that his power will not overcome.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead,

Deacon David

Saint of the Week

31 January - St John Bosco (1815-1888), Priest

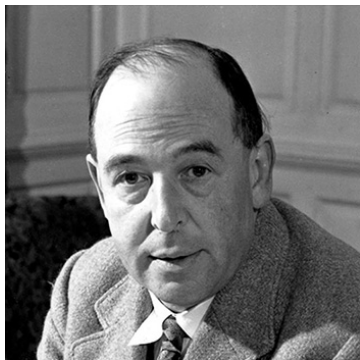

John Bosco was born in Piedmont of a peasant family, and he was brought up by his widowed mother. He became a priest, and his particular concern was for the young. He settled in Turin, where, as in so many cities in the 19th century, the industrial revolution was bringing enormous movements of population and consequent social problems, especially for the young men who came there to work. John Bosco devoted himself to the care of the young, first of all by means of evening classes, to which hundreds came, and then by setting up a boarding-house for apprentices, and then workshops for their training and education. Despite many difficulties, caused both by the anti-clerical civil authorities and by the opposition of some senior people within the Church, his enterprise grew, and by 1868 over 800 boys and young men were under his care. To ensure the continuation of his work, he founded a congregation, which he named after St Francis de Sales (a saint for whom he had great admiration), and today the Salesians continue his work all over the world.

Did You Know...?

...that the Gospel of Mark, which will be the main focus for this liturgical year in 2024, has a few distinct features?

Mark's gospel was the first to be written, probably in Rome sometime between the years 65-70, possibly by John Mark. It is the shortest of the four gospels. Significant parts of Mark's gospel were used by the authors of Matthew and Luke when they wrote their gospels. Mark is also a fast-paced gospel, with the ministry of Jesus being conveyed with a sense of urgency by frequent use of the words "then", "when" and "went". Mark was written for a gentile (non-Jewish) audience.

The Kids' Bulletin

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 28th, 2024

What did the unclean spirit in the man do when Jesus commanded?

Colour in only the spaces that have crosses to find out what it did.

Unscramble: Jesus Casts out a Demon

Sort out the letters to fill in the blanks.
Use the letters in the boxes to fill in the last row of boxes.

And immediately there was in their synagogue a    (NMA) with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, "What have you to do with us,     (ESSJU) of Nazareth? Have you come to     (YDSETRO) us? I know who you are, the     (OYLH) One of God."

But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and    (MEOC) out of him!" And the unclean    (TRSIPI), convulsing him and crying with a loud    (IOCEV), came out of him.

And     (YEHT) were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves,     (YSNIAG), "What is this? A new teaching!

With           he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him."

Baby Jesus is Presented in the Temple

On February second we celebrate the feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple. That is the day that Saint Joseph and Our Lady took the baby Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem to consecrate Him to God. The Jews were supposed to dedicate their first-born sons to God, so Mary and Joseph were obedient to the law even though their Baby was God Himself!

This was a most amazing moment, even though almost nobody noticed it: here was the great Temple where the people came to worship God, and now God had actually come into it- as a little Baby! But only Mary and Joseph and the prophets Simeon and Anna knew what had happened.

Saint Paul tells us that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit. Every time you receive Holy Communion, it's like baby Jesus entering the Temple. When you go to Communion, remember that you know that amazing secret- that even though the rest of the world might not know, you have just received Jesus! What a special moment!

Answers to Unscramble: man; Jesus; destroy; holy; come; spirit; voice; they; saying. AUTHORITY
