"I am the good shepherd."

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY is celebrated every year on the Fourth Sunday of Easter. We are all familiar with the popular image of Jesus as our shepherd, caring for us as does a shepherd his sheep. It gives us a sense of comfort and certainty to know that we have the perfect shepherd in Jesus, leading us to fertile and lush pastures as long as we keep our eyes on him and our ears open to his voice.

What about the flipside, though? We can easily focus on the role of Jesus as the Good Shepherd and so fail to reflect fruitfully on our role as the Lord's sheep. Let us spend a little time opening up this side of the equation.

Reflecting on ourselves as sheep is, of course, not a flattering prospect. Sheep, useful creatures as they are, have a reputation for being dull-witted and anything but leaders. They are flock animals who are easily led and not too good in a crisis – hence their need for a shepherd to look after their best interests. I'm sure that all of us would prefer to identify with more majestic animals than sheep!

There is one aspect of the image of sheep that we are called to emulate, however. As flock animals, there is a oneness that is called of us, a unity that, under the care of a loving shepherd, is admirable and distinct. We often associate oneness, or unity, as something to be avoided, keen to stand out from the crowd (like a black sheep!) for fear of being considered ordinary.

We need to remember however, that unity is a hallmark of Christian faith. As well as possessing a common baptism, consider the Eucharist, the sacrament which more than any other, symbolises, and makes real, our oneness. Though somewhat undermined by our modern practice of consuming small, individual hosts, nonetheless we "eat from the one loaf and drink from the one cup." Each of us is graced with the presence of the one Christ, forming us as the one Body under the one Head.

We must be careful not to associate unity with uniformity. One of the most striking things about our cathedral is that the seating arrangements force all present to look at others, and there couldn't be less uniformity than we see at St Patrick's! It is wonderful to reflect that though we are called to be unified we are so different, but all working together to further a common mission – making Christ known to the world through our manner of living.

We are a diverse group of disciples, just like those chosen by Jesus himself. We possess differences which go beyond our physical appearances, down to how we live out our faith based on our particular understanding of the Christian faith and Jesus' message. Despite these differences, let us pray for a strengthened unity, for only by being unified can we be effective evangelists.

This weekend, let us ask Jesus, the Good Shepherd, to guide us as a unified body. For that however, we need to open our eyes and our ears, and be obedient to the voice of the one who is not only the Good Shepherd, but a perfect and loving one.

Wishing you a blessed Easter season,

Fr Robert

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY APPEAL

Good Shepherd Appeal

Support our seminarians to "go out into the deep."

Donate at yourcatholicfoundation.org.au/appeal

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, as we reflect on the nurturing and guiding role of Christ as the Good Shepherd, we are reminded of the vital importance of fostering vocations in our own community. Our seminarians, who have responded to the call to serve, are preparing to dedicate their lives to guiding God's flock. They are our future shepherds, our spiritual leaders of tomorrow.

As these brave young men follow in the footsteps of the Good Shepherd, they require our support—spiritual, emotional, and financial. The path to priesthood demands profound commitment and entails significant educational and living expenses. On this special day, we invite you to contribute to the Seminarian Support Appeal of our Diocese. Your generosity will help cover tuition fees, books, board, and other essentials for our seminarians.

Please consider how you can assist in nurturing their journey with your prayers and through your contributions.

- Donation envelopes are available on the pews for those who prefer to give in person.
- To donate via credit card simply TEXT 'GIVE' to 0488 202 202, follow the link provided and choose Bishop's appeal, or scan the QR code.

Every gift, no matter the size, makes a significant difference in the lives of those who have dedicated themselves to serving as the next generation of pastoral leaders.

Thank you for your generous support and prayers for our seminarians. May the Lord, our Good Shepherd, bless you abundantly!

thank you!

PARISH NOTICES

FORMATION OF A NEW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL You Are Invited to Our PPC Discernment Night

As we continue to navigate the journey of renewal and growth post-Covid, we recognise the importance of leadership and collaboration in our parish life. In light of this, and under the guidance of our Dean, we are excited to announce the formation of a new Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) and invite you to our PPC discernment night.

Why a Parish Pastoral Council?

The PPC serves as a vital part of our parish's life, providing counsel to the pastor and leadership team on matters concerning the pastoral mission of our parish. Its purpose is to foster community, encourage spiritual growth, and initiate programs and activities that reflect the Gospel's call to love and service. The council plays a crucial role in discerning the needs of our parish community, advising on strategic direction, and supporting the implementation of our parish's pastoral plan.

Call for Nominations

This is a unique opportunity for those feeling called to serve in a deeper way within our parish. Whether you have been involved in parish activities for years or are looking for a way to offer your talents and time to our community, this could be the moment God is calling you to step forward.

We invite and encourage every parishioner to consider nominating themselves or someone they believe has the vision, commitment, and love for our parish to be a member of the Parish Council. This is a time of discernment, to listen and respond to God's call to serve.

Discernment Night

To aid in this discernment process, we will be hosting a Discernment Night on Wednesday 01 May, at 7:00pm in the Parish Hall. This will be an evening of prayer, reflection, and information about the role and function of the PPC and how you can contribute to its mission. Whether you are certain of your call or still considering, this night is for you.

Nomination Process

Nominations will officially open the day following the Discernment Night, on 01 May. Details on how to nominate will be provided at the Discernment Night and in subsequent communications.

If you feel the Lord's nudge to explore this ministry, we urge you to say "Yes" and join us on 01 May. Let us move forward together in faith, hope, and love, strengthening our parish community and fulfilling our mission to be a light to the world.

May God bless you and guide you in your discernment.

Become a Eucharistic Minister to the Sick

St. Patrick's Cathedral is warmly inviting individuals to join the compassionate team of Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick, a role that offers more than just delivering communion—it's an opportunity to bring love, joy, and the presence of our faith to those unable to attend church due to health issues. This special ministry allows volunteers to be a beacon of hope and a reminder of inclusion within our church family for our homebound friends. Offering a bit of your time can make a significant difference in someone's week, and you'll be supported every step of the way by a team of caring volunteers. If you feel called to this heartwarming service, we encourage you to let the Cathedral staff team know by calling Pat on 8839 8412 or email secretary@stpatscathedral.com.au Join us in spreading Christ's love and ensuring every member of our community feels valued and connected.

Pentecost Sunday - 18 May

What is the main message of the Pentecost? It commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles and other followers of Jesus Christ while they were in Jerusalem celebrating the Feast of Weeks. This important event in the Christian faith is described in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 2:1-31).

For those interested in delving deeper into the meaning of Pentecost, we are organising a special 'day' retreat. Take this opportunity to strengthen your faith.

"A day of prayer and talks deepening the meaning of Pentecost."
"As they prayed, the house where they were assembled rocked. From this time, they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to proclaim the word of God fearlessly." Acts 4:31

Saint of the Week

23 April - St George (died c.303), Martyr

George was martyred at Lydda (now in Israel) in about 303, during the persecution of Diocletian. Like so many saints of that period, the only fact that we can be certain of is his martyrdom. His cult spread quickly through both the East and the West, and the legend of St George and the Dragon only appeared some time afterwards.

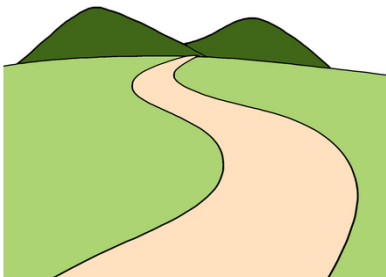

During the crusades, George was seen to personify the ideals of Christian chivalry, and he was adopted as the patron saint of several city states and countries, including England and Catalonia. King Richard I of England placed his crusading army under the protection of St George, and in 1222 his feast was proclaimed a holiday.

“Quote of the Week”

“No misfortune should distract us from [this] happiness and deep joy; for if anyone is anxious to reach a destination, the roughness of the road will not make him change his mind. The charms of prosperity must not lead us astray; for only a foolish traveller, when he sees pleasant fields on his way, forgets to go on towards his destination.”

Pope St Gregory the Great
(c.540-604)
On the Gospels

Did You Know...?

...that this week we celebrate the feast of St Mark, on 26 April?

Each of the four Evangelists has a unique story and wrote for a particular audience, just as any good writer shapes their work to their audience to maximise its impact - most likely in Mark's case for a gentile audience. Mark's Gospel was also the first to be written. The other three Evangelists' feast days are as follows: St Matthew - 21 September; St Luke - 18 October; St John - 27 December. Mark's feast is celebrated on 25 April everywhere else in the world, but a day later in Australia due to ANZAC Day. Mark's traditional symbol is a lion to convey his courage as a preacher of the Gospel.
