Many of his disciples left him...

WE COME TO the fifth and final excerpt from our little dip into chapter six of John's Gospel this weekend. Next weekend we return to Mark's Gospel, where we once again find Jesus in conflict with some Pharisees and scribes, this time over the issue of religious tradition and ritual purity.

But this weekend we hear the conclusion of Jesus' "Bread of Life" discourse. Jesus has concluded his words, and we hear the response of those who had been listening. For the most part, it is not positive.

Perhaps this is to be expected. After all, Jesus is once again revealing something of his divinity to those listening and this is hard for them to accept. Presumably, they want to recognise Jesus as a great and learned rabbi, one to be revered, someone whose teaching is reliable and life-giving. Instead, they hear Jesus speak about giving them his flesh and blood to drink so that they might live for ever! No one had spoken like this before and so it is hardly surprising that they reject not only the words of Jesus but Jesus himself.

But some of the disciples remain, namely the Twelve. Jesus, however, is not reluctant to allow them to go should they so wish, and makes this clear in his question: "What about you, do you want to go away too?" As is usually the case, it is the ever-impulsive Peter who speaks up, with a response which seems to indicate that the Twelve are absolutely committed to following Jesus, calling him "the Holy One of God."

Of course, it will not be long before the disciples desert Jesus; Peter most notably and infamously denied knowing Jesus three times on the night before Jesus' crucifixion. The fickleness of the disciples is clearly echoed in the First Reading today from Joshua as Israel renews its covenant, once again, with God.

Hearing this, our own fickleness is highlighted this weekend. As I have often said, taking the Christian faith seriously means having to endure considerable periods of time when God seems absent and unconcerned with our struggles. We may echo the sentiments of Peter when things are going well, feeling very committed to following Christ, but then at the slightest hint of a struggle, maybe believing that God is challenging us beyond our endurance, we simply give up.

Most often, the fall away from faith is far more gradual than the sudden rejection of Jesus we hear about in today's Gospel, and thus more insidious. We start to feel less and less enthusiasm for our faith, devotional practices start to peter out, our attendance at Mass lacks any sort of enthusiasm, and before we know it, we have abandoned the practice of our faith, ("...but I still believe in God!")

When we come to this realisation, it is a good practice to remind ourselves of what used to enthuse us about our faith. Rather like a couple in a stale marriage needing to remind themselves of what brought them together so many years ago, doing this can revitalise our love for Christ and Christ's people, and so revitalise our faith.

And then whatever words Jesus utters will not deter us in following him.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead,

Fr Robert

Social Justice Sunday

TRUTH AND PEACE: A GOSPEL WORD IN A VIOLENT WORLD

Each year the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference publishes a Social Justice Statement. The title of this year's statement is Truth and Peace: A Gospel Word in a Violent World.

Truth and Peace: A Gospel Word in a Violent World highlights the urgent need for peace from a Gospel perspective, addressing alarming global and local violence. The statement points out that the 20th and early 21st centuries have been marked by significant conflict, including 55 state-based and 82 non-state conflicts in 2022 alone, affecting two billion people worldwide.

The document also discusses the erosion of truth in public life, warning of a post-truth culture where misinformation and fake news undermine civil society and democracy. It calls on Catholics to be active peacemakers by embracing dialogue, truth-telling, and collaboration with all people of goodwill.

Theologically, Jesus is presented as the embodiment of truth and peace, with the fullness of peace being both a divine gift and a human task. The statement encourages practical actions such as building relationships with those affected by violence and engaging in interfaith dialogue, urging a collective effort towards a peaceful world rooted in the Gospel.

Call to Action: In responding to this call, we are urged to actively pursue the mission of Jesus and the Church to build the Kingdom of God here and now. Let us commit ourselves to being instruments of peace, truth, and reconciliation in our families, communities, and the world. Together, let us work to bring about the peace that Christ offers, building a world that reflects God's love and justice.

A full copy of the Social Justice Statement is available on the Cathedral app.

Invitation to Join the RCIA Process

Do you know someone who is seeking a deeper relationship with God or a sense of belonging within the Catholic Church?

Perhaps you, or someone close to you, feel a call to explore the Catholic faith more fully. Our Cathedral parish will soon be recommencing the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) process.

The RCIA is a spiritual journey designed for adults who are considering becoming Catholic, particularly those who have not yet been baptised. It is a time of reflection, prayer, and learning, where individuals are invited to explore the richness of our Catholic faith and discern whether God is calling them to enter into full communion with the Church.

This is not just a process, but a transformative journey that leads to a deeper relationship with Christ and his Church. We encourage you to reach out to family members, friends, neighbours, or anyone who may be searching for a spiritual home. Your invitation could be the first step in their journey toward discovering the fullness of faith in the Catholic Church.

For more information or to express interest, please contact Fr Robert on frrobert@stpatscathedral.com.au or call the Cathedral office on 8839 8400. Let's work together to extend Christ's invitation to those seeking him, and help them embark on this beautiful path of faith.

Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) Update

Parishioners at the launch of the Diocesan Pastoral Plan

1. Launch of Diocesan Pastoral Plan: 10 August
Members have been busy this month! Several Council members went to the new convention centre near Panthers on Saturday 10 August for the official launch of the Diocesan Pastoral Plan 2024-28.

We heard from Fr Ormond Rush and Dr Myriam Wijlens, attended workshops, shared at the famous round tables, witnessed Bishop Vincent officially launch the plan, and discussed with those present from our parish what we might do next to implement the plan.

2. Retreat with St Patty Andrew: 17 August
A week later we spent an afternoon with St Patty reflecting on how our walking together in synodality is expressed in communion, participation, and mission. We shared something of our own backgrounds, both culturally and religiously, and ended our retreat with Mass celebrated by Fr Robert.

3. Meeting: 19 August
We shared our retreat and diocesan launch experiences with each other, affirmed our desire to work in consultation with parishioners, started discussing simple things to make the parish more welcoming, while figuring out which bigger projects we could take on.

Please let us know your thoughts by speaking with PPC members or drop us an email at ppc@stpatscathedral.com.au. And pray for us too!

POPE FRANCIS' Prayer Intention for August

For political leaders

"We pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and for the common good, especially caring for the poor and those who have lost their jobs."

From Pope Francis...

*From a tweet
dated 21 August*

"The fragrance of Christ emanates from the "fruits of the Spirit," which are "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Galatians 5:22). How wonderful it is to meet someone who possesses these virtues!"

Saint of the Week

26 August - Blessed Dominic Barberi (1792-1849), Priest

Dominic Barberi was born near Viterbo, Italy, in 1792 and joined the Passionist Order, urged on by an inner assurance that God called him to work as a missionary in England. He was ordained a priest in 1818 and worked in Italy and Belgium before coming to England in 1841. His first foundation was at Aston Hall in Staffordshire; he established four Passionist houses in all, and received many Anglicans into full communion, the most famous being John Henry Newman, who was received at Littlemore near Oxford on 9 October 1845.

Blessed Dominic was noted for the personal warmth of his approach to non-Catholics and for his zeal in preaching; he drew crowds in spite of his strong Italian accent. He favoured a higher profile for the small Catholic body in England; he went around in his Passionist habit and, while at Aston Hall in 1844, organised a Corpus Christi procession through the streets of the neighbourhood, which is believed to have been the first public procession of its kind in England in modern times. Blessed Dominic died at Reading on 27 August 1849 and was beatified by Pope Paul VI in 1963.

“Quote of the Week”

“I’ll give you one piece of advice: don’t neglect his name ‘Jesus’. Meditate on it in your heart night and day as your personal and precious treasure. Love it more than your life. Root it in your mind. Love Jesus because he made you and bought you at a very high price. Give your heart to him because it is the debt you owe him.”

The English Writings

Did You Know...?

...that despite Jesus speaking of himself as the Bread of Life in chapter six of the Gospel of John, this Gospel does not depict the institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper?

In John’s Gospel, the focus of the Passover is the washing of the feet of his disciples (13:1-20). It is this event, of course, which is highlighted at the Mass of the Lord’s Supper each year on Holy Thursday.
