About the "O Antiphons"

SINCE 17 DECEMBER, the Church has turned her gaze away from the figure of John the Baptist who heralded the coming of the Christ toward the events leading up to the Nativity itself. Liturgically, this has been marked by prayers more earnestly imploring the Lord to come, with his advent drawing nearer. Of particular significance has been the use of the 'O Antiphons' which occur at the Gospel Acclamation during mass and accompany the Magnificat during Vespers. Interestingly enough, these are also the basis for the verses in the famous Advent hymn, "O come, O come, Emmanuel," which fills our churches at this time of year.

Not much is known about the origins of the use of these verses in liturgical celebrations, but they are nevertheless ancient, their use becoming mainstream by the eighth century. Each antiphon highlights at once a particular title of the Messiah (O Wisdom, O Lord (Leader), O Root of Jesse, O Key of David, O Rising Sun, O King of the Nations, O Emmanuel), as well as a prophecy from Isaiah about the Messiah's coming. If the first letter of each of the Latin words for these titles is taken, starting from the last antiphon to the first, the Latin phrase ERO CRAS is spelt (E[mmanuel] R[ex Gentium] O[riens] C[lavis David] R[adix Jesse] A[donai] S[apientia]), which translates as, "tomorrow, I will come." In this creative way, the Church intensifies her Advent preparation of the coming of the saviour into the world at Christmas, and brings this season to a joyful crescendo.

Meditation upon each antiphon promises to be a most fruitful exercise, a way of spiritually preparing for the birth of Jesus. Having done so, we will see that when we approach the Nativity scene to worship the baby who lays in the manger, we kneel before the Wisdom and the Word of God, who guides all things in power and love; the Leader of the House of Israel who gave the Law to Moses on Sinai; the Root of Jesse prophesied by Isaiah, a sign of God's love for his people; the Key of David who opens the gates of God's Kingdom; the Radiant Dawn, the sun of justice, the splendour of eternal light; the King of all nations; Emmanuel, God-is-with-us. It is no mere babe who lays within.

I pray that our final preparations for Christmas will make our hearts truly ready to receive such a one as this.

Wishing you a blessed conclusion to Advent,

Fr Tom

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

to Our Beloved Parishioners

As we approach the joyous season of Christmas, we extend our warmest wishes to each and every one of you, our cherished parishioners. This blessed time of year offers us a renewed opportunity to reflect on the miraculous birth of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to embrace the profound message of love, hope, and peace he brought into the world.

May the light of Christ's love shine brightly in your hearts and homes this Christmas. Let us remember that the greatest gift we can offer is the gift of love to those around us - our families, friends, and even strangers. In the spirit of the Holy Family, may we find strength and solace in our own families and communities, drawing closer to one another and to God.

As we gather to celebrate the birth of our Saviour, let us also pray for those less fortunate, for those who are suffering, and for peace in our world. May the grace of the Holy Child, Jesus, guide us in being instruments of his peace and love.

We look forward to celebrating this holy season with you through our various parish Masses. Let us come together in faith and joy, as we commemorate the wondrous gift of Christ's birth.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas filled with the blessings of love, joy, and peace.

With prayers and blessings,

St Patrick's Cathedral Parramatta Clergy and Staff

Advent Reflection Group: Join us this final week!

Last week, we had wonderful reflections with parishioners who joined our online session on Monday evening, led by Fr Robert, and with those who gathered for the in-person session on Wednesday morning, led by Fr Tom. The discussions were meaningful, and the shared prayer was uplifting as we journeyed together toward the Lord's coming.

If you haven't joined yet, you can still participate in the final session on Monday.

- Monday, 23 December at 8:00pm via Zoom (online session)

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Fr Robert, Fr Tom, Mili and all who participated who made this a reflective and prayerful share space as we prepare for our Saviour's birthday.

Cathedral Office Christmas Closure

In the spirit of the festive season and to allow our staff to spend quality time with their families, our office will be closed for a brief period.

Closure Dates:

- The Cathedral office will close on Tuesday, 24 December at 4:00pm.
- We will reopen on Monday, 06 January.

During this period, the regular office services and administrative support will be temporarily unavailable. We encourage everyone to plan their visits and inquiries accordingly.

For any urgent matters during this closure, please call 0407 289 360 or refer to our website for contact details and further information.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and thank you for your understanding and support.

We wish you a blessed and joyous Christmas season and look forward to serving you again in the New Year!

Volunteers required - Monday 23 December

On this day, we are making our cathedral ready for the Christmas services.

It is a wonderful tradition and it is a privilege to be a part of preparing our cathedral for ourselves and visitors for the Christmas celebrations.

If you would like to be a part of this, we are meeting after the 12:30pm Mass on Monday 23 December in the cathedral.

Vinnies Christmas Food Bank Drive

Thank you to all those who generously donated items for the Vinnies Christmas Drive.

Speaking to a volunteer recently, and their experience with helping out with food distribution, we can easily forget there is true need for a lot of families. Just having the basics of milk and a treat for their children can be challenging at times. Things which a lot of us take for granted.

Please note that the appeal has now closed.

So, for all of you who donated, may God give you abundant blessings for your generosity. Thank you.

POPE FRANCIS'

Prayer Intention for December

For pilgrims of hope

"We pray that this Jubilee Year strengthen our faith, helping us to recognise the Risen Christ in our daily lives, and that it may transform us into pilgrims of Christian hope."

From Pope Francis...

*Bluesky post dated
15 December*

"Advent is a time of grace to free ourselves from the false belief that we are self-sufficient, to confess our sins and welcome God's pardon, and to ask forgiveness from those we have offended."

Saint of the Week

27 December - St John (Apostle, Evangelist)

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were nicknamed by Jesus "the sons of thunder." John is involved in many of the central events of Jesus' life, including the Transfiguration, the Crucifixion, and the discovery of the Resurrection. He is "the disciple whom Jesus loved" and the one to whom he confided the care of his mother Mary.

He is mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles; later he was exiled to the island of Patmos. He is said to have died at Ephesus.

He wrote a Gospel, three Epistles, and the Book of the Apocalypse, otherwise known as the Book of Revelation.

"Quote of the Week"

"Answer, O Virgin, answer the angel speedily; rather, through the angel, answer your Lord. Speak the word, and receive the Word; offer what is yours, and conceive what is of God; give what is temporal, and embrace what is eternal. Why delay? Why tremble? Believe, speak, receive!"

Doctor of the Church

Did You Know...?

...that Christmas has four complete Masses devoted to it?

Each of these Masses is scheduled for different times around Christmas: the Vigil on Christmas Eve, Christmas Night, Dawn, and during Christmas Day. It is worthwhile looking at the readings and Gospels chosen for the different Masses to see how we can view this important Solemnity in various ways.
