The Most Holy Mystery

AS MOST OF YOU would be aware, Fr Tom, Deacon David and I take turns to write the reflection for the front of the bulletin each week. A few weeks ago, there was a bit of a hiccup in the system, with the result that it fell to me to write the reflection this week for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, a prospect I didn't relish!

Why? Because the Trinity is a truth, the fullness of which is beyond human understanding, so writing about it is hardly going to be an easy exercise.

Yet, the fact that the Trinity, the true nature of God, is a mystery is, in a way attractive, because it invites us to ponder who God is for us, a God who is not able to be defined, boxed up and mastered, to be used for our benefit like a tool. Were the nature of God to be something we could understand, define and categorise like a plant or an animal, we would not have faith, we would have science.

Speaking of which, in this scientific age when we can examine nature down to a molecular level, there is a desire for certainty with almost everything we encounter, and this can easily extend to a desire to understand God in the same way. Whilst there is nothing wrong with this desire, (think of the scholastic theology of St Thomas Aquinas which dominated theology and seminary formation for hundreds of years), focusing only on this level of understanding of the nature of God may blind us to fruitful alternatives.

Though, as mere human beings, we cannot know God fully, we nonetheless get glimpses of God here and now. These glimpses can give us encouragement during our earthly pilgrimage, reminding us of God's reality and loving care and concern for us. These occasional "liftings of the veil" may come in the form of a simple awareness of the closeness of God during a time of prayer or a walk in the bush, or a more tangible situation such as spending time with someone we love. Of course, the possibilities here are limitless, but will only become manifest to us as much as we open ourselves to God's presence and all God wants to do with us.

So, let us give thanks to God that God is indeed unknowable in fullness, giving us the joyful task throughout our earthly pilgrimage of striving to know God more fully, open to all the opportunities that are presented to us in this regard, helping us to know that God is not simply something to be studied academically but to be encountered each day, if only we are seeking God and are attuned to God's presence, often in the unexpected.

It is good to understand this truth, for just when we think we have a more concrete understanding of God, God disappears and pops up again somewhere else looking remarkably unfamiliar. Thinking we can know the fullness of God is as pointless as trying to catch the wind with our hands.

Yes, the true nature of God is as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Our task as Christians is to take that truth to others, not academically, but practically, as did Christ himself.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead, Fr Robert

Refugee Week: 15 - 21 June

Refugee Week is an event celebrated each year to raise awareness of refugees, the issues they face, and the contributions refugees are making to the Australian community.

This year, Refugee Week is held from Sunday 15 June to Saturday 21 June, inclusive of 20 June, which is World Refugee Day, globally recognised by the United Nations. The theme of this year's Refugee Week is "Finding Freedom: Diversity in Community".

World Refugee Day shines a light on the rights, needs and dreams of refugees, helping to mobilise political will and resources so refugees can not only survive but thrive. While it is important to protect and improve the lives of refugees every single day, international days like World Refugee Day help to focus global attention on the plight of those fleeing conflict or persecution. Many activities held on World Refugee Day create opportunities to support refugees.

Many of you will be aware that the parish is seeking to support a refugee family in the coming months via the CRISP process. Before we can receive a family we need to start raising funds to show the Australian Government that we can support that family. Feel free to donate via the adjacent QR code. More detailed information soon. Thank you!

PARISH NOTICES

Trivia Night - Save the Date!

The Cathedral Social Justice Group is organising a parish trivia night to be held in the cathedral hall on Saturday 26 July, 7:00 for 7:30pm. Ticket sales and funds raised on the night will be used for a current community refugee family sponsorship project led by the Social Justice Group.

Fr Chris del Rosario - Farewell!

Some of you would have seen Fr Chris wandering around the precinct of late and may even have had the privilege of him celebrating one of the 12:30pm Masses. Fr Chris leaves this Wednesday, 18 June, for postgraduate studies in Rome. I know that, along with me, you will wish him well and pray for him as he makes this next important step in his priestly journey.

Changes to clergy in residence

Along with Fr Chris moving out of the presbytery, some other changes are taking place this week. Fr Galbert, who was here with us for a few weeks, will be moving to Granville to take up leadership of the Holy Cross Parish. Fr Joseph will be leaving us too, after several years here, to move to the same parish as Assistant Priest. Fr Chinonye, who has been assisting us here whilst undertaking studies, will be moving out and we will be welcoming Fr Philip Alesin to the parish as a new priest in residence. As with the other clergy who have been in residence, Fr Philip will assist with Masses when his schedule allows. Fr Philip works for Catholic Schools Parramatta Diocese in the area of policy development, so has another full-time role. I know you will make him welcome to St Patrick's Cathedral! Fr Robert

Seniors' Ministry

We are planning to have our next Seniors' Ministry Group gathering early in August, with a focus on St Mary MacKillop. I am hoping to have a Sister of St Joseph come to speak to us so that we can learn more about our (at the moment) sole Aussie saint. More details and a date coming soon! Fr Robert

First Holy Communion

We continue to pray for those children who will soon be receiving their First Holy Communion. Just so that regular parishioners are aware, the two 9:30am Masses on both 22 and 29 June, will be the Masses in which these children will be celebrating their First Holy Communion. This means that these Masses will have a higher attendance than usual, but there will still be room for our regulars! Fr Robert

Death of Maria Thi Nguyen - Bishop Vincent's mother

Please keep Bishop Vincent and his family in your prayers in the coming days, and pray for the soul of his mother, Maria, who died on Friday, 13 June, in Melbourne, at the age of 94. May she rest in peace.

Parish Pastoral Council (PPC)

The PPC will be meeting this coming Monday, 16 June, and there is plenty on the agenda. There will be a report on the activities of the PPC in next weekend's bulletin.

Bible Study

The Credo Young Adults group gathers fortnightly on a Monday evening with the next meeting on Monday 16 June at 7:00pm. We are following Jeff Cavins Bible Timeline. This is a wonderful opportunity to engage in Bible discussions and connect with like-minded individuals.

We meet fortnightly in the Cloister Cafe from 7:00pm to 8:30pm.

If you're interested in joining us, feel free to simply show up. For more information, please email Fr Tom at: assistantpriest@stpatscathedral.com.au

Legion of Mary

Over the past couple of months our parish Legion of Mary group has been in recess due to low numbers making it difficult for them to function as an effective apostolate. This weekend we will have a representative from the Legion to speak briefly at all Masses about the operation of the Legion of Mary. There will also be a display in the cloister to help promote the work of the Legion of Mary.

It would be a shame for the Cathedral parish to not have the Legion as a part of its identity, so please pray and think seriously about whether this group is something that might be part of your Catholic faith identity. Of course, any questions you might have can be answered next weekend.

Our Commitment to Safeguarding

At St Patrick's Cathedral Parramatta, we are dedicated to creating a safe and nurturing environment for all members of our community, especially children and vulnerable adults, in line with the "Parramatta Way."

The Parramatta Way of Safeguarding is to...

- Act with justice, and state that we have a zero tolerance for any form of abuse or harm to children or any person;
- Act with justice, and ensure that laws and obligations are upheld, and safety is paramount.

POPE LEO'S

Prayer Intention for June

That the world might grow in compassion

“Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.”

From Pope Leo...

“X” post dated
12 June

“Jesus asked the Father that His own may be one (Jn 17:20-23). The Lord knows well that only when we are united to Him and among ourselves can we bear fruit and offer the world a credible witness.”

Saint of the Week

19 June - St Romuald (c.951 - 1027), Abbot

Romuald joined a Benedictine monastery but made himself unpopular there by trying to get the lax monks to mend their ways and so, with the permission of his abbot, became a wandering hermit. In a constant fight against the degenerate monasteries of the day, he founded hermitages and monasteries where a life of prayerful solitude could be truly lived. The monastery at Camaldoli, which he founded and where he remained as abbot for a number of years, became the first house of an order of hermits which still exists. But Romuald took to his wanderings once more, and died in a monastery he himself had founded at Val di Castro – as he wished, alone in his cell.

“Quote of the Week”

‘I travel slowly, one step at a time, towards eternity, because I am carrying two big suitcases. One of them contains my sins, and in the other, which is much heavier, are the infinite merits of Jesus. When I reach heaven I will open the suitcases and say to our eternal Father: “Now you can judge.” I’m sure I won’t be sent away! Then I’ll turn to St Peter and say: “Close the door, because I’m staying.”’

St Josephine Bakhita
(1869 - 1947)
Sudanese nun and former slave

Did You Know...?

...that many heresies within the Church revolve around the nature of God as a trinity?

In the early centuries of the Christian faith, the Church was struggling to establish its doctrine on the nature of God. Many understandings were proposed but rejected by the Church, though some still held to these false beliefs. For example, some held the view that the Son was not equal to the Father, that he was of a different “substance” to the Father. Known as Arianism, this heresy was one of the most widely held false beliefs in Church history, and still persists in some churches not in communion with Rome.
