"Render therefore unto Cæsar..."

SCRIPTURE contains many phrases and images that are widely known and acknowledged by not only believers but by the wider community. We have one such example before us in this Sunday's Gospel with the famous encounter between Jesus and the Pharisees and the question of paying taxes to Caesar. The famous phrase that Jesus utters at the end of the encounter is often known in its early seventeenth century phrasing: "Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's."

But before looking more closely at this encounter, let us remember that Jesus has been at pains to explain the nature of the kingdom of heaven to those listening to him. He has clearly had no success with many of the religious leaders in this regard because they, both Pharisees and Sadducees, spend the remainder of this chapter of Matthew attempting to trap Jesus with a series of questions like the one we have before us today. Not surprisingly, the chapter closes out with the words, "...nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions."

So, what of this Sunday's Gospel passage? Jesus is placed in a difficult position. If he said it was not lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, he could be declared a traitor to Rome. If he said it was lawful to pay, it would be to say that the Emperor was the Lord, not God, and so Jesus would be condemned by the religious leaders. As usual, Jesus outwits and humbles his accusers. Ultimately, he challenges them to reflect on what is due to God. Paying taxes to Caesar is one obligation, easily undertaken, but this still leaves a question: What is due to God?

This is the question that we are challenged with as much as the Pharisees in today's Gospel. Of course, God needs nothing from us. Nothing we can do or say can change God, but whatever we do as a response to God can certainly change and benefit us: praising God, sacrificing for God, deepening our knowledge and understanding of God, and so on. But if our loyalties and priorities lay elsewhere, we are surely limiting our opportunities to draw close to God. Seeking fulfillment, as opposed to fleeting pleasure, in anything but God, is to deprive ourselves of the only thing that can bring true contentment and peace.

But there is more to this than simply personal fulfillment. As always, we are called to think beyond ourselves, being sisters and brothers in Christ. In giving what belongs to God, which is essentially living as Christ modelled for us, we are doing what needs to be done to bring about the reign of God in the world, building the kingdom of God. This means conveying to those we encounter a better way to live, a world of peace, justice, kindness, equality, and love. Such is the effect this can have on those receptive to the message, that we are evangelising without even knowing it!

It begins by ensuring that we are committed to giving to God what belongs to God.

Wishing you a blessed week ahead, Fr Robert

Catholic Mission Appeal

This weekend the Cathedral Parish will be supporting the Catholic Mission Appeal. This year marks 100 years of World Mission Day, a time in which the global Church celebrates God's mission through prayer and generosity. Today, that mission continues in places like Malawi, where communities are rebuilding after devastating floods and families are striving to create a future for their children.

This World Mission Month, you are invited to share in this mission, standing with families as they rebuild their lives and create a brighter future for their children. Through your prayers and support, you are part of this mission, helping to ensure that no child is left behind. To learn more about Catholic Mission and our work, please go to catholicmission.org.au/united.

Pilgrimage to Turkey in 2027 - Fr Robert

There are still a few places left for the proposed pilgrimage to Turkey in October next year (2027). This pilgrimage, titled "In the Footsteps of St Paul", is a comprehensive tour of key sites associated with St Paul and the early Church. I led a similar tour back in 2014 which was very positively received by those who travelled with me. Among other places, we will visit Cappadocia, some of the sites of church communities mentioned in the Book of Revelation, Kusadasi, Ephesus (including Mary's House), and Gallipoli, a special place for Australians. Of course, many other places are on the agenda. At this stage, the tour is planned for 08 - 21 October, with an optional six-day extension to Greece also possible. The Turkey pilgrimage is expected to cost around $7800 per person, including flights, hotels, meals and tours with a guide, etc.

If this sounds like something that interests you, please let me know via email at dean@stpatscathedral.com.au or catch up with me in person. There are some flyers in the narthex if you would like a hard copy.

POPE LEO'S...

Prayer Intention for October

For mental health ministry

"Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses."

From Pope Leo...

"X" post dated
12 October

"Prayer becomes effective when it reaches out to others. The charity born of the Holy Spirit is God's love poured into our hearts: a love that takes shape in a commitment to life and service. This love must become the goal, the way, and the meaning of our lives."

Saints of the Week

20 October - Blessed Daudi Okelo (1902-1918) and Blessed Jildo Irwa (1906-1918), Martyrs

These two catechists died for their faith on 20 October 1918 at Paimol in Northern Uganda. They were still very young – Daudi was 16, while Jildo was only 12 – and yet they were eager to share their faith with others. The missionaries sent them to Paimol in order to look after the catechumens and to spread the Gospel. In spite of the persecutions of Christians they remained there until, one day, they were dragged outside their hut and killed for the sole reason of teaching the Christian faith.

Information: Universalis

“Quote of the Week”

“Now if the earth truly was created to provide man with the necessities of life and the tools for his own progress, it follows that every man has the right to glean what he needs from the earth...All other rights, whatever they may be, including the rights of property and free trade, are to be subordinated to this principle.”

Pope St Paul VI
(1897 - 1978)

Populorum Progressio (1970)

Did You Know...?

...that as Catholics we do not worship Mary and the saints?

Even Catholics sometimes get confused with this idea and find it difficult to respond to members of other churches who challenge them on this point. We worship only God, but we venerate and honour the saints because they are close to God and so are in a wonderful position to pray for us if we ask for their intercession. Worshipping and honouring are two distinct activities. Let us not confuse them!
